Migration And Diversity In Asian Contexts:

Migration and Diversity in Asian Contexts Ah Eng Lai, Francis Leo Collins, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2013 This volume makes an important and unique contribution to scholarly understandings of migration and diversity through its focus on Asian contexts Current scholarship and literature on processes of migration and the consequences of diversity is heavily concentrated on Western contexts and their concerns with multiculturalism integration rights and responsibilities social cohesion social inclusion and cosmopolitanism In contrast there has been relatively little attention given to migration and growing diversity in Asian contexts which are constituted by highly distinct and varied histories cultures geographies and political economies This book fills this significant gap in the literature on migration studies with a concentrated focus on communities cities and countries in the Asian region that are experiencing increased levels of population mobility and subsequent diversity Not only does it offer analyses of the policies and processes of migration it also addresses the outcomes and implications of migration and diversity these include a focus on multiculturalism and citizenship in the Asian region the emerging complex forms of governance in response to increased diversity discussions of different settlement experiences and the practices of everyday life and encounters in increasingly diverse locales Global Asian City Francis L.

Collins, 2018-07-23 Global Asian City provides a unique theoretical framework for studying the growth of cities and migration focused on the notion of desire as a major driver of international migration to Asian cities Draws on more than 120 interviews of emigrants to Seoul including migrant workers from Indonesia Philippines Thailand and Vietnam English teachers from Australia Canada New Zealand South Africa UK and USA and international students at two elite Korean universities Features a comparative account of different migrant populations and the ways in which national migration systems and urban processes create differences between these groups Focuses on the causes of international migrant to Seoul South Korea and reveals how migration has transformed the city and nation especially in the last two decades Migrant Cross-Cultural Encounters in Asia and the Pacific Jacqueline Leckie, Angela McCarthy, Angela Wanhalla, 2016-11-03 In contrast to much scholarship on cross cultural encounters which focuses primarily on contact between indigenous peoples and settlers or sojourners this book is concerned with migrant aspects of this phenomenon whether migrant migrant or migrant host encounters bringing together studies from a variety of perspectives on cross cultural encounters their past and their resonances across the contemporary Asia Pacific region Organised thematically into sections focusing on imperial encounters of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries identities in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and contemporary citizenship and the ways in which this is complicated by mobility and cross cultural encounters the volume presents studies of New Zealand Singapore Australia Vanuatu Mauritius and China to highlight key themes of mobility intimacies ethnicity and race heritage and diaspora through rich evidence such as photographs census data the arts and interviews Demonstrating the importance of multidisciplinary ways of looking at migrant cross cultural encounters through blending historical and social science methodologies from a range of disciplinary backgrounds Migrant Cross Cultural Encounters in Asia and the Pacific will appeal to anthropologists sociologists cultural geographers and historians with interests in migration mobility and cross cultural encounters The Routledge Handbook on Cities of the Global South Susan Parnell, Sophie Oldfield, 2014-03-26 The renaissance in urban theory draws directly from a fresh focus on the neglected realities of cities beyond the west and embraces the global south as the epicentre of urbanism This Handbook engages the complex ways in which cities of the global south and the global north are rapidly shifting the imperative for multiple genealogies of knowledge production as well as a diversity of empirical entry points to understand contemporary urban dynamics The Handbook works towards a geographical realignment in urban studies bringing into conversation a wide array of cities across the global south the ordinary mega global and peripheral With interdisciplinary contributions from a range of leading international experts it profiles an emergent and geographically diverse body of work The contributions draw on conflicting and divergent debates to open up discussion on the meaning of the city in or of the global south arguments that are fluid and increasingly contested geographically and conceptually It reflects on critical urbanism the macro and micro scale forces that shape cities including ideological demographic and technological shifts and constantly changing global and regional economic dynamics Working with southern reference points the chapters present themes in urban politics identity and environment in ways that re frame our thinking about cities The Handbook engages the twenty first century city through a southern urban lens to stimulate scholarly professional and activist engagements with the city Globalization of Language and Culture in Asia Vinita Vaish, 2010-01-01 An exploration of the impact of globalization on diverse cultures and how this effects the dominant languages across Asian civilisations Routledge International Handbook of Diversity Studies Steven Vertovec, 2014-11-20 In recent years the concept of diversity has gained a leading place in academic thought business practice and public policy worldwide Although variously used diversity tends to refer to patterns of social difference in terms of certain key categories Today the foremost categories shaping discourses and policies of diversity include race ethnicity religion gender disability sexuality and age further important notions include class language locality lifestyle and legal status The Routledge Handbook of Diversity Studies will examine a range of such concepts along with historical and contemporary cases concerning social and political dynamics surrounding them With contributions by experts spanning Sociology Anthropology Political Science History and Geography the Handbook will be a key resource for students social scientists and professionals It will represent a landmark volume within a field that has become and will continue to be one of the most significant global topics of concern throughout the twenty first century Multiculturalism in East Asia Koichi Iwabuchi,, Hyun Mee Kim,, Hsiao-Chuan Hsia, 2016-10-04 The first decade of the 21st century has witnessed the decline of multiculturalism as a policy in Western countries with tighter national border controls and increasing anti migration discourse But what is the impact of multiculturalism in East Asia How will East Asian nations develop their own policies on migration and multiculturalism What does cultural diversity mean for their future Multiculturalism in East Asia examines the development and impact of multiculturalism in East Asia with a focus on Japan South Korean and Taiwan It uses a transnational approach to explore key topics including policy racialized discourses on cultural diversity and the negotiation process of marginalized subjects and groups While making a contextualized analysis in each country contributors will consciously make a comparison and references to other East Asian cases while also situating this as well as put their case in a wider transnational context Immigrant Integration In Contemporary Singapore: Solutioning Amidst Challenges

Mathews Mathew, Melvin Tay, 2023-01-17 Singapore's success as a global city is in no small part attributable to its stance on foreign labour and immigrants illustrated by a largely welcoming but discerning immigration regime to fulfil vital socio economic needs However this fairly liberal policy on immigration has been met with substantial disquiet over the last decade Xenophobic tendencies have surfaced periodically and have been compounded by the Covid 19 pandemic This edited volume spotlights these contemporary issues on immigrant integration in Singapore and adopts a functional approach by explicitly bridging academic and practitioner perspectives The chapters are organised into three sections The first section on Challenges discusses various dominant trends obstacles to immigrant integration based on ethnicity culture and religion and the fear and associated emotions that characterise reactions to immigration The second section focuses on Communities their perspectives and lived experiences in Singapore society The latter differ substantially depending on migrant statuses and are contingent on social capital defined in relation to locals in the city state The last section seeks to illustrate the various Solutioning endeavours in tandem with the contentious nature of immigration These concrete efforts range from ground up initiatives community based collaborative approaches and government programming all seeking to advance immigrant integration in Singapore Managing Diversity In Singapore: Policies And Prospects Mathews Mathew, Wai Fong

Chiang, 2016-05-11 Singapore society is increasingly becoming diverse During the first few decades of nation building policies were designed to homogenise aspects of Singaporean society while enshrining principles to allow restricted amounts of diversity Fast forward to the present and fifty years after independence the number of areas where diversity is profoundly apparent remains copious and its manifestations more varied This book provides an updated account on the tensions posed by diversity in Singapore and how this is being managed primarily by the state through policies and programmes but also by communities who attempt to negotiate these tensions Such an enquiry is crucial especially at this juncture when the nation is finding ways to embrace the different forms of diversity brought about through external impetuses as well as manage internal reactions from the various communities The book chapters highlight important considerations if Singapore's diversity management strategies will hold promise for the future Grassroots Integration in Multicultural Singapore Rebecca Grace Tan, 2025-01-24 This book studies the role that grassroots volunteers play in the integration and naturalization process in Singapore With increasing migration the topics of migrant integration and belonging are of perennial academic and public interest However much of the existing literature on the subject is largely focused on European and North American cases By focusing on the single case of Singapore this project provides a story of how a city state grapples with the issue of managing increasing cultural diversity while seeking to maintain a cohesive identity As a city Singapore has many ubiquitous features of other urban centres for migration such as a rapidly diversifying population and an economy that is heavily reliant on foreign labour At the same time being a city state means that the demographic and cultural changes experienced in Singapore also coincide with questions of national belonging and membership in the nation state in contrast to larger countries with rural urban divides or more decentralized systems of migration management and integration Examining this simultaneously typical yet unique case study means that this project is able to examine the processes where state and society have managed migration and cultural diversity at the level of the nation state For example this project discusses how Singapore s policy of multiracialism complements nation building efforts adding to existing public and academic debate about whether societies can concurrently embrace cultural difference yet maintain a cohesive national identity

Public Commissions on Cultural and Religious Diversity Solange Lefebvre, Patrice Brodeur, 2017-05-08 Due to growing negative perceptions about relations between historically entrenched dominant populations and various minority groups issues relating to the need to better manage cultural and religious diversity have been intensifying in many countries These negative perceptions have recently led to a significant increase in popular support for right and extreme right nationalist discourses and have created so much public tension that national governments have had no choice but to respond In the last two decades in several Western contexts in particular the issues raised by such combined challenges have culminated in the creation of government initiated or private national commissions This book presents the results of a multidisciplinary analysis from a broader framework that includes the national public commissions which have addressed the challenges of managing cultural and religious diversity in Belgium Britain Canada Quebec France Morocco and Norway including also other cases of public management in Australia and Singapore It includes in depth studies of the issues and controversies examined by each of the commissions such as the ways they perceived the issues their results and impact the key political players involved the media debates and reception surrounding each commission the communication strategies and difficulties their leaders encountered as well as the legal aspects each commission has raised The reports represent a rich body of work charting the fundamental questions nations face about their nature history and future while the impact on peoples lives tells us much about different approaches to the issues of cultural identity between countries

Immigration in the Circumpolar North Nafisa Yeasmin, Waliul Hasanat, Jan Brzozowski, Stefan Kirchner, 2020-06-04 Immigration in the Circumpolar North Integration and Resilience explores interconnected issues of integration and resilience among both immigrants and host communities in the Arctic region It examines the factors that inhibit or enable the success of immigrants to the Arctic and the role of territoriality in the process of integration This book showcases a variety of perspectives on circumpolar immigration and includes insights from eight Arctic countries as well as thirteen observer countries such as China India Singapore Poland Germany France and Japan It considers the solidarities and engagements of indigenous and other local peoples with the new coming immigrants and refugees and the impact of immigration on the economic and societal life in the Circumpolar Arctic The book will be of interest to researchers teachers professors policymakers and others interested in migration issues Arctic issues international relations law and economic integration Education, Ethnicity and Equity in the Multilingual Asian Context Jan GUBE,Fang GAO,2019-02-08 The book addresses issues related to the education of ethnic minority individuals in the multilingual Asian region It features recent research and practices of scholars aiming to rethink educational policy and practice surrounding the education of ethnic minority students with a variety of language scenarios in Hong Kong and other Asian contexts It documents how ethnicity and inequality are played out at policy school and individual levels and how these affect the education of ethnic minorities in their host societies Using a range of methods from surveys to interviews and document analysis this book describes the links between language identity and educational inequality related to ethnic minorities in Asian contexts Singapore's Multiculturalism Chan Heng Chee,Sharon Siddique,2019-03-15 Since independence in 1965 Singapore has developed its own unique approach to managing the diversity of Race Religion Culture Language Nationality and Age among its citizens This approach is a consequence of many factors including its very distinct ethnic makeup compared with its neighbours its ambitions as a globally oriented city state and its small physical size Each of these factors and many others have presented Singapore society with a range of challenges and opportunities and will in all likelihood continue to do so for the foreseeable future In the writing of this book the author team set themselves the task of projecting the impact of current domestic and international social trends into the future to anticipate what Singapore society might look like by around 2040 In doing so they analyse the particular path that Singapore has taken since independence in comparison with other multicultural societies and with regard to the balance between the necessity of forging a new national identity after British rule and departure from Malaysia and the need to ensure that Singapore s ethnic minority populations remain socially enfranchised They further consider how current trends may develop over the next couple of decades what new challenges this may present to Singapore society and what might be the likely responses to such challenges In this book Singapore is a case study of a global city facing the challenges of developed world modernity in frequently acute ways The 3rd ASEAN Reader Ooi Kee Beng,2015-08-24 Over the past two decades ISEAS has compiled abridged articles that analyse key aspects of Southeast Asia s development and the ASEAN process The ASEAN Reader was published in 1992 just as the Cold War ended while The Second ASEAN Reader came in 2003 in the wake of the 1997 Asian crisis and the September 11 attacks in 2001 The past decade has not been spared its share of intense changes with the rise of China and India bringing new challenges to the region s power equation and the impact of the 2008 global financial crisis Despite this the momentum towards an integrated ASEAN community has been maintained The articles in The Third ASEAN Reader study the trends and events of recent years and discuss the immediate future of Southeast Asia World Scientific Reference On Globalisation In Eurasia And The Pacific Rim (In 4 Volumes) ,2015-11-06 This multi volume set focuses on a key region of the world which contains four of the biggest emerging economies a large number of highly dynamic small and medium sized emerging economies and one of the leading advanced industrial countries It is a region which contains some of the biggest hydrocarbon and mineral deposits in the world and some of the most energy and metal hungry economies in the world With half the world s population it is one of the most dynamic regions of the globe in terms of population movement providing a key focus of foreign investment both inwards and outwards with a high degree of technological dynamism The region plays a central role in the industrial supply networks of the globe In four volumes focusing on respectively foreign investment innovation energy and migration the set focuses on each of the main elements in the production system in turn capital innovation raw materials and labour Volume 1 studies patterns of interchange of financial and direct investment within the region focusing on governance the development of supply chains and technology transfer In Volume 2 the technology theme becomes dominant with a special focus on digital technology It includes technical issues like mobile communications standardisation developmental dimensions including the role of clusters and science parks and political economy issues like the rise of techno nationalism Volume 3 turns to energy issues not just issues of supply and demand but also key problems of climate change security and sustainability across the Eurasian and Asian landmass Volume 4 presents the human dimension looking at people in movement as workers citizens men women or colonisers Among the key issues discussed are the migration from country to town in China the greying of countries like Japan the effect of war on migration marriage migration human trafficking and the depopulation of the Russian Far East The set is a must have for anyone keen to understand the region whose manufacturing core can be described without exaggeration as the workshop of the world of the twenty first century Open Borders, Open Society?
