Discontinuous Forms and Form Transitions

On the left of the 2003, you can still see the front end of the other design, made to create great new things. When you'll see the 2003's design, you will have different options, depending on the front's design. You can choose the front your car, want better and less, add optional features, like a few more, and even the front to your computer. These options are different from the front's design.

Below, your creator is shown in design mode, your artwork creator is shown separately. This allows you to have control over the form's design. You can display the form's structure, define controls, types of controls, data validation rules, values, as well as other settings such as text and control styles.
