Major note: our focus throughout today, unlike Madame Tipton, goes beyond corporate and institutional or state and UN institutional goals for societal goals and in fact is focused on building the future. The commitment to the global mission's second, societal commitment, is not seen as separate with state or local actors who have already been involved.

As this reader might guess, neither country is quite going to follow one of the standard funding models. There just aren't too many alternatives that will keep them in any way healthy in the long run. But there are two possibilities that will work better.
