Mediating Faith Faith Formation In A Trans Media Era:

Mediating Faith Clint Schnekloth, 2014-02-01 The church struggles with media Whether it is a denomination negotiating the 24 hour news cycle or a church evaluating how online games influence the youth group the role of media in the church and the importance of understanding media for the church has never been greater In Mediating Faith Clint Schnekloth offers an insightful tour evaluation and theological response to the trans media era Far from frightening Schnekloth highlights the opportunities and the riches of this fascinating time

Mediating Faith Clint Schnekloth, William H. Willimon, 2014 The church struggles with media Whether it is a denomination negotiating the 24 hour news cycle or a church evaluating how Facebook or online games are influencing the youth group media is raising questions and placing demands on communities of faith in ways that could not have been imagined just 20 years ago Thus the importance of understanding media for the church has never been greater In Mediating Faith church leaders of all kinds will find Clint Schnekloth an engaging and insightful guide to this new and sometimes wondrous world In doing so he offers an evaluation and theological response to the trans media era that highlights its potential to transform our work and world Far from frightening Schnekloth highlights the opportunities and the riches of this fascinating time

Cultivating Teen Faith Richard R. Osmer, Katherine M. Douglass, 2018-10-25 What are churches doing to form the faith of their young people Many church denominations that practice infant baptism offer confirmation or an equivalent ministry when children reach adolescence and enter a new phase of spiritual growth but all churches regardless of tradition wrestle with how to get young adults to actively join the church What really works In this book twelve authors draw on a three year study of more than three thousand US congregations across five denominations United Methodist Church African Methodist Episcopal Church Episcopal Church Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and Presbyterian Church USA to answer this pressing question They tell stories of excellent and innovative confirmation programs that work and that show above all what good discipleship with young people looks like Youth pastors church leaders and parents alike will benefit from the practices and new ways of teaching presented here that have proven helpful in forming and enhancing the faith of youth Contributors Joy L Arroyo Reginald Blount Kenda Creasy Dean Katherine M Douglass Terri Martinson Elton Lisa Kimball Gordon S Mikoski Kermit Moss Richard R Osmer Kate Harmon Siberine Jacob Sorenson Kate O Unruh

Always On (Theology for the Life of the World) Angela Williams Gorrell, 2019-05-21 Many of us are always on scrolling through social media checking email or searching the web New media spaces can be sites and instruments of God's unconditional love but they can also nurture harmful conditions and become sources of anxiety jealousy and despondency Always On provides useful tools for helping students and congregants understand the world of social media and engage it faithfully enabling Christian communities to address its use in constructive pastoral ways The book includes discussion questions and sample exercises for each chapter

Popular Culture and the Civic Imagination Henry Jenkins, Gabriel Peters-Lazaro, Sangita Shresthova, 2020-02-04 Winner 2021 Ray and

Pat Browne Edited Collection Award given by the Popular Culture Association How popular culture is engaged by activists to effect emancipatory political change One cannot change the world unless one can imagine what a better world might look like Civic imagination is the capacity to conceptualize alternatives to current cultural social political or economic conditions it also requires the ability to see oneself as a civic agent capable of making change as a participant in a larger democratic culture Popular Culture and the Civic Imagination represents a call for greater clarity about what we're fighting for not just what we're fighting against Across more than thirty examples from social movements around the world this casebook proposes civic imagination as a framework that can help us identify support and practice new kinds of communal participation As the contributors demonstrate young people in particular are turning to popular culture from Beyoncé to Bollywood from Smokey Bear to Hamilton from comic books to VR for the vernacular through which they can express their discontent with current conditions A young activist uses YouTube to speak back against J K Rowling in the voice of Cho Chang in order to challenge the superficial representation of Asian Americans in children's literature Murals in Los Angeles are employed to construct a mythic imagination of Chicano identity Twitter users have turned to BlackGirlMagic to highlight the black radical imagination and construct new visions of female empowerment In each instance activists demonstrate what happens when the creative energies of fans are infused with deep political commitment mobilizing new visions of what a better democracy might look like

The Congregation in a Secular Age (Ministry in a Secular Age Book #3) Andrew Root, 2021-01-19 Churches often realize they need to change But if they're not careful the way they change can hurt more than help In this culmination of his well received Ministry in a Secular Age trilogy leading practical theologian Andrew Root offers a new paradigm for understanding the congregation in contemporary ministry He articulates why congregations feel pressured by the speed of change in modern life and encourages an approach that doesn't fall into the negative traps of our secular age Living in late modernity means our lives are constantly accelerated and calls for change in the church often support this call to speed up Root asserts that the recent push toward innovation in churches has led to an acceleration of congregational life that strips the sacred out of time Many congregations are simply unable to keep up which leads to burnout and depression When things move too fast we feel alienated from life and the voice of a living God The Congregation in a Secular Age calls congregations to reimagine what change is and how to live into this future helping them move from relevance to resonance

Journeying in the Wilderness Terri Martinson Elton, 2020-02-04 In Journeying in the Wilderness author Terri Martinson Elton observes that faith formation in the church setting is contextual and multiple forces are coming together today to create seismic contextual changes at record speed These changes are disrupting aspects of our lives challenging assumptions and dislodging personal and communal practices For the church to take seriously its call to form faith in each generation it must be attentive to current contextual realities Elton places confessional understanding of faith in dialogue with five contextually altering forces in order to provide a pathway for congregations to reimagine faith formation in the midst of twenty first century realities The use of stories nontechnical language and biblical perspectives make this work accessible for congregational leaders and others who seek to explore new directions in forming faith Processes and practices are offered to help both leaders and congregations contextualize their approach to their particular settings Each chapter includes leadership competencies shared practices and group discussion questions

Postcolonial Representations of Women Rachel Bailey Jones,2011-06-11 In this accessible combination of post colonial theory feminism and pedagogy the author advocates using subversive and contemporary artistic representations of women to remodel traditional stereotypes in education It is in this key sector that values and norms are molded and prejudice kept at bay yet the legacy of colonialism continues to pervade official education received in classrooms as well as unofficial education ingested via popular culture and the media The result is a variety of distorted images of women and gender in which women appear as two dimensional stereotypes The text analyzes both current and historical colonial representations of women in a pedagogical context In doing so it seeks to recast our conception of what difference is challenging historical patriarchal gender relations with their stereotypical representations that continue to marginalize minority populations in the first world and billions of women elsewhere These distorted images the book argues can be subverted using the semiology provided by postcolonialism and transnational feminism and the work of contemporary artists who rethink and recontextualize the visual codes of colonialism These resistive images created by women who challenge and subvert patriarchal modes of representation can be used to create educational environments that provide an alternative view of women of non western origin
