East-West Literary Imagination Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2017-06-30 This study traces the shaping presence of cultural interactions arguing that American literature has become a hybridization of Eastern and Western literary traditions Cultural exchanges between the East and West began in the early decades of the nineteenth century as American transcendentalists explored Eastern philosophies and arts Hakutani examines this influence through the works of Emerson Thoreau and Whitman He further demonstrates the East West exchange through discussions of the interactions by modernists such as Yone Noguchi Yeats Pound Camus and Kerouac Finally he argues that African American literature represented by Richard Wright Ralph Ellison Alice Walker Toni Morrison and James Emanuel is postmodern Their works exhibit their concerted efforts to abolish marginality and extend referentiality exemplifying the postmodern East West crossroads of cultures A fuller understanding of their work is gained by situating them within this cultural conversation The writings of Wright for example take on their full significance only when they are read not as part of a national literature but as an index to an evolving literature of cultural exchanges     The Ends of Meter in Modern Japanese Poetry Scott Mehl, 2022-01-15 In The Ends of Meter in Modern Japanese Poetry Scott Mehl analyzes the complex response of Meiji era Japanese poets and readers to the challenge introduced by European verse and the resulting crisis in Japanese poetry Amidst fierce competition for literary
