Minnesota's Geologist Sue Leaf, 2020-06-09 Winner of the 2021 Minnesota Book Award for Minnesota Nonfiction The story of the scientist who first mapped Minnesota s geology set against the backdrop of early scientific inquiry in the state At twenty Newton Horace Winchell declared I know nothing about rocks At twenty five he decided to make them his life's work As a young geologist tasked with heading the Minnesota Geological and Natural History Survey Winchell 1839-1914 charted the prehistory of the region its era of inland seas its volcanic activity and its several ice ages laying the foundation for the monumental five volume Geology of Minnesota Tracing Winchell's remarkable path from impoverished fifteen year old schoolteacher to a leading light of an emerging scientific field Minnesota's Geologist also recreates the heady early days of scientific inquiry in Minnesota a time when one man's determination and passion for learning could unlock the secrets of the state's distant past and present landscape Traveling by horse and cart by sailboat and birchbark canoe Winchell and his group surveyed rock outcrops river valleys basalt formations on Lake Superior and the vast Red River Valley He studied petrology at the Sorbonne in Paris bringing cutting edge knowledge to bear on the volcanic rocks of the Arrowhead region As a founder of the American Geological Society and founding editor of American Geologist the first journal for professional geologists Winchell was the driving force behind scientific endeavor in early state history serving as mentor to many young scientists and presiding over a household the Winchell House located on the University of Minnesota's present day mall that was a nexus of intellectual ferment His life story told here for the first time draws an intimate picture of this influential scientist set against a backdrop of Minnesota's geological complexity and splendor

Thinking Continental Tom Lynch, Susan Naramore Maher, Drucilla Wall, O. Alan Weltzien, 2017-11-01 In response to the growing scale and complexity of environmental threats this volume collects articles essays personal narratives and poems by more than forty authors in conversation about thinking continental connecting local and personal landscapes to universal systems and processes to articulate the concept of a global or planetary citizenship Reckoning with the larger matrix of biome region continent hemisphere ocean and planet has become necessary as environmental challenges require the insights not only of scientists but also of poets humanists and social scientists Thinking Continental braids together abstract approaches with strands of more personal narrative and poetry showing how our imaginations can encompass the planetary while also being true to our own concrete life experiences in the here and now

Annual Report - Geological and Natural History Survey of Minnesota Geological and Natural History Survey of Minnesota, 1893 Iron and Water Grant J. Merritt, 2018-06-05 A memoir of family mining pioneers and unscrupulous magnates and the fight for Minnesota's natural resources In 1855 the Merritt family arrived in Minnesota where a descendant Alfred would one day become one of the Seven Iron Men builders of the first mines to tap the state's great mineral wealth in the Mesabi Range Another Merritt more than half a century later would lead the efforts to protect Lake Superior from damage caused by mining Iron and Water is Grant J Merritt's memoir of his life's work on behalf of Minnesota's people and environment and also the story of a significant family in state history Merritt's family played a key role in the struggle over natural resources in Minnesota for the enrichment of mining pioneers the prosperity of the state and its people and the prospect of a secure and healthy future This complex tale begins with the adventure of discovering iron ore and building the mines railroads and docks to move it then devolves into the intrigues of business partnerships gone bad and attempts by John D Rockefeller to defraud the Merritts What follows is an engrossing account of Grant Merritt's years in the halls of state politics and the trenches of environmental activism in defense of Minnesota's North Shore and Lake Superior's waters The author's tenure as head of the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency under Governor Wendell Anderson and his service on the first board of the Minnesota Environmental Quality Council take us behind the scenes of landmark legal cases and crucial moments in Minnesota history particularly the notable Reserve Mining case in which the company was found liable for serious environmental and health threats on the shores of Lake Superior and ordered to be shut down In these pages we encounter the people who were critical to this history from robber baron Rockefeller to judges activists and politicians including Walter Mondale and Jim Oberstar In chronicling both the discovery of vast iron deposits on the Mesabi Range and the fight to save Lake Superior and Minnesota's natural riches Iron and Water reveals how whether alone or together individuals wield the power to change the world
