North Africa North Africa:

North Africa Richard Bordeaux Parker, 1987 North Africa comprising Algeria Morocco Tunisia and Libya is of particular strategic and economic importance to both the United States and the Soviet Union Richard B Parker provides an informed perspective on the problems facing the region with special emphasis on the U S interests there Beginning with histories of the four states Parker examines their common features and individual differences showing that each retains distinct racial historical and economic personalities He also discusses the various elements that influence affairs in each of the states and explores the numerous policy issues and possible courses of action Separate chapters are devoted to the effects of the Islamic fundamentalist movement the guerrilla war in the Western Sahara and foreign powers on the states of North Africa

Africa...: North Africa Augustus Henry Keane, 1907 The History of Northern Africa Britannica Educational Publishing, 2010-10-01 Alternately identified with either the countries of the Mediterranean those of the Middle East or other African territories the nations of northern Africa occupy a unique physical and historical place After centuries of fielding various foreign invaders northern Africans have absorbed and co-opted Greek Roman and Arab peoples and traditions among others Under the pervasive turmoil that has ensued after colonial rule and internecine warfare readers will encounter a region of various traditions that stands at a unique crossroads between several very different worlds North Africa, 1800-1900 Magali Morsy, 1984 Travels in North Africa Nahum Slouschz, 1927 Foreign Policy in North Africa Irene Fernandez Molina, Miguel Hernando de Larramendi, 2020-12-17 Foreign Policy in North Africa explores how the foreign policies of North African states which occupy a peripheral and subaltern position within the global system have actively responded to the constraints and opportunities stemming from multi-level transformations in the 2010s What has been the extent of continuity and change in each country's foreign policy making and behaviour under such conditions Which structural and agential factors explain the variations observed or the lack thereof Building on scholarship on foreign policy in the Global South and the Middle East and North Africa MENA as well as the international impact of the 2011 Arab uprisings case studies on six different countries focus on a specific level of analysis for each These range from the global Tunisia's financial predicaments and foreign debt negotiations through the sub-regional Egypt's relationship of necessity with Saudi Arabia Algeria's half-hearted policies towards the conflicts in Libya and Mali to the domestic sphere Morocco's power balance between the monarchy and the Islamist-led government Libya's extreme state weakness and internal competition among proliferating actors reaching also the deeper non-state societal level in the case of Mauritania The volume concludes by examining post-2011 developments in the longstanding Algerian Moroccan rivalry which hinders regional integration in the Maghreb Foreign Policy in North Africa will be of great interest to scholars of North African politics and international relations Middle Eastern and North African studies foreign policy and global international relations The chapters were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of North African Studies The Conquest of North Africa. The First

Complete Authoritative Account of the Entire Three Years North African Campaign from Egypt to Tunisia ... Illustrated with Explanatory Maps, Charts and Official Photographs, Etc North AFRICA, 1943 North Africa and the Desert George Edward Woodberry, 1914 Operations in North Africa and the Middle East, 1939-1942 John Grehan, Martin Mace, 2015-01-30 The Middle East Command in the Second World War covered a vast region stretching across Egypt Libya Malta Palestine and Transjordan Cyprus Sudan Eritrea most of Syria and a small part of Iraq and included some forty different languages At one point it also oversaw operations in Greece Kenya and British Somaliland Its campaign area ran for a thousand miles from the Jordan to the Horn of Africa Initially under the leadership of General Sir Archibald Wavell Middle East Command's early actions were in contending with the Italian forces in Libya and Italian East Africa He was soon distracted by the German invasion of Greece and the subsequent defence of and withdrawal from the Island of Crete With his attention turned from North Africa to the German Italian forces in North Africa were able to hold their ground and even receive reinforcements in the form of Rommel's Afrika Korps Wavell's despatches detail all of these campaigns up to July 1941 when he was superseded by General Claude Auchinleck The Auk had to deal with the Anglo Free French invasion of Syria and Lebanon and the nationalist uprising in Iraq His main concern though was with stopping Rommel's advances through Libya The Axis forces were eventually held close to the border of Egypt at El Alamein It was as far as Rommel would go and it marked the end of the long run of Axis successes in North Africa The despatches presented here form a unique collection of original reports from the commanding officers in this widespread and difficult region This is the first time these documents have been brought together in a single volume Rulers, Nomads, and Christians in Roman North Africa Brent D. Shaw, 2024-10-28 The studies collected in this volume cover three broad areas of the history of North Africa as part of the Roman Empire Studies devoted to the history of political institutions are followed by ones that detail aspects of interactions between nomad and sedentary communities in the African provinces The book concludes with two studies on African Christianity In all of these special attention is given to the indigenous institutions economies and beliefs that informed the confrontation between African and Roman The studies in general argue for a strongly interactionist approach to historians reconstruction of the history of the period and the region a perspective that would emphasise the continuous conflict between the two worlds of African and Roman Wanderings in North Africa James Hamilton (traveler.), 1856 Description of a journey from Benghazi through Barca and the Libyan Desert to Cairo North Africa George Joffé, 1993 Social Currents in North Africa Osama Abi-Mershed, 2018-06-01 Social Currents in North Africa is a multi disciplinary analysis of the social phenomena unfolding in the Maghreb today The contributors analyse the genealogies of contemporary North African behavioral and ideological norms and offer insights into post Arab Spring governance and today's social and political trends The book situates regional developments within broader international currents without forgoing the distinct features of each socio historical context With its common historical cultural and socio economic foundations the Maghreb is a cohesive area of study that allows for greater understanding of domestic developments from both single country and comparative perspectives This volume refines the geo historical unity of the Maghreb by accounting for social connections both within the nation state and across political boundaries and historical eras It illustrates that non institutional phenomena are equally formative to the ongoing project of post colonial sovereignty to social construction and deployments of state power and to local outlooks on social equity economic prospects and cultural identity

Crowds and Politics in North Africa Andrea Khalil, 2014-03-26 This book takes predominant crowd theory to task questioning received ideas about mob psychology that remain prevalent today It is a synchronic study of crowds crowd dynamics and the relationships of crowds to political power in Tunisia Libya and Algeria 2011 2013 that has far reaching implications embedded in its thesis One central theme of the book is gender providing an in depth look at women s participation in the recent uprisings and crowds of 2011 2013 and the subsequent gender related aspects of political transitions The book also focuses on the social and political dynamics of tribalism and group belonging asabiyya including analysis and discussions with Libyan regional tribal chiefs Libyan and Tunisian tribal members and citizens regarding their notions of tribal belonging Crowd language and literature are also central to the book s discussion of how crowds represent themselves how we as observers represent crowds and how crowds confront languages of authoritarianism and subjugation Crowds and Politics in North Africa includes interviews with crowd participants and key civil society actors from Tunisia Libya and Algeria Among these there are numerous interviews with Benghazi residents activists and tribal leaders One of the original case studies in the book is the crowd dynamics during and after the attack on the US consular installation in Benghazi Libya The book presents interviews and fieldwork within a literary and cultural theoretical context showing how crowds in the region resonate in forms of cultural resistance to authoritarianism A valuable resource this book will be of use to students and scholars with an interest in North African culture society and politics more broadly

Women and Social Change in North Africa Doris H. Gray, Nadia Sonneveld, 2018-01-11 Women s voices are brought to the fore in this comprehensive analysis of women and social change in North Africa Focusing on grass roots perspectives readers will gain a rare glimpse into how both the intentional and unintentional actions of men and women contribute to societal transformation Most chapters are based on extensive field work that illuminates the real life experiences advocacy and agency of women in the region The book considers frequently less studied issues including migration legal changes oral and written law Islamic feminism and grass roots activism It also looks at the effectiveness of shelters for abused women and the changes that occurred in the wake of the 2011 Arab uprisings as well as challenging conventional notions of feminist agency by examining Salafi women s life choices Recommended for students and scholars as well as international development professionals with an interest in the MENA region

North Africa Mario Rossi, 1974 Text and photographs introduce the land people history and culture of Tunisia Algeria and Morocco

A Voice from North Africa; or, a Narrative illustrative of the religious ceremonies, customs, and manners of the inhabitants of that part of the world.

With an historical introduction and appendix Nathan Davis, 1844      North Africa E. George H. Joffé, 1993 Essays addressing the development of the Maghreb states and their contemporary political dilemmas from the pre colonial era to the present      Contemporary North Africa Halim Barakat, 2015-12-22 This book by a group of international scholars both Arab and Western was first published in 1985 and considers the state of contemporary North Africa and its position both in the Arab world and within wider international affairs It examines the cultural and historical contexts which have shaped political and social conditions within the region It also considers the nature of intra regional conflict which has long been a feature of the North African political scene The sociological impact of economic development within the region is treated at length as are the changing positions of both the traditional elites and new groups such as women workers      The Middle East and North Africa Clive H. Schofield, Richard N. Schofield, 2012-09-10 Middle East and North Africa brings together some of today's most influential analysts of a region which from colonial times to the present has seen great territorial change
