Naughty Girls and Gay Male Romance/Porn: Slash Fiction, Boys' Love Manga, and Other Works by Female "Cross-Voyeurs" in the U.S. Academic Discourses Carola Katharina Bauer,2013-05-17 Despite the fact that there actually exists a large number of pornographic and romantic texts about male homosexuality consumed and produced by American women since the 1970s the abnormality of those female cross voyeurs is constantly underlined in U S popular and academic culture As the astonished public reactions in the face of a largely female heterosexual audience of Brokeback Mountain 2005 and Queer as Folk 2000 2005 have shown a woman s erotic romantic interest in male homosexuality is definitely not as accepted as its male counterpart men consuming lesbian porn In the academic publications on female cross voyeurs the application of double standards with regard to male female cross voyeurism is even more obvious As Karen Hellekson and Kristina Busse note in their Introduction to Fan Fiction and Fan Communities in the Internet 2006 slash fiction fan fiction about male homosexual relationships mainly produced and consumed by women has stood in the center of fan fiction studies so far despite being merely a subgenre of it The reason for this seems to be an urge to explain the underlying motivations for the fascination of women with m m romance or pornography within the academic discourse a trend which differs completely from the extremely under theorized complex of men interested in lesbians It is this obvious influence of conventional gender stereotypes on the perception of these phenomena that provokes me to examine the way in which the works of female cross voyeurism and their consumers producers are conceptualized in the U S scholarly accounts In many ways this thesis explores unknown territories and respectively tries to take a closer look at academic problems that have not been adequately addressed yet
