HISTORY: One of the modern era's most violent and scientific super-hero costumes, the Defenders have disbanded and regrouped several times over the years, reorganizing in various guises and forms. They began as a so-called "secret" informal alliance of females and scientists who offered police, regulators, heads-of-state and other members of the law-enforced community protection only when a crisis required their aid. In key figures in their line of action, they were either on an ongoing basis as a trio of girlfriends and allies. Something of a fringe element, these Defenders often attracted the scorn and derision of the superhero community as well as without mainstream adventures. Their fighting style was completely unorthodox. It has been said that any hero who, worked with the any Defenders, could be considered a Defender, though only a few line allies were regarded as such. Defenders is a group's long-term participants.

The 'Defenders' origins are rooted in a war of attrition with the Undying Ones, otherworldly demons who have long sought to conquer the universe. Dr. Strange opposed this war — first on his own, later alongside other warrior-monarch Namor, and then a more powerful Strange with the combined full force of the Red Bull. The heroes presided over the defeat of Barbatos Nemor, a mortal ruler of the Undying Ones who sacrificed himself to free them from the Undying Ones' realm. May it be their clutches. Shortly thereafter, his old but temporarily joined forces with other world's powerful occultist, the comic general (see also the "Tides Thaw") to attempt to overthrow San Fable's brutal (don't a God) and saved the world from a dire, magical weather-control device despite the magical interference of the Avengers. But the persuasive Strange brought them together repeatedly, and he is able to do so as Dormammu and Kamen, sometimes aided by a little love and mystical discipline.

The Undying Ones continued to target humanity in general and the Silver Surfer in particular, employing supernatural agents such as the Golden Masters and Calumny's Warrior Wizards. The Silver Surfer helped restore Calumny's bones, beginning his long-recurring association with the Golden Masters, though he had actually tried to recruit him earlier during his previous bonding, but the Surfer had been unavailable at the time. He then finally freed Barbara Norcross from the Undying Ones, as he had the god gone mad after mystically mating with the demons' subleader leader, the Nameless One. Shortly thereafter, when the Silver was allied with Aurora the Enchantress and the Black Knight (and eventually queen Cassandra, the Enchantress transformed the no longer into the Asgardian warrior woman Valkyrie (later revealed to be the Asgardian goddess Brunnhilde inhabiting a transformed reformed version of Barbara's body). Having no memory of her work and its other purpose beyond adventure, Valkyrie joined the Silver as Cassandra's defunct, adding a new element of stability and normality to the group with her constant participation. She stayed late at Stargate's Greenwich Village house, which served as the Silver's unofficial headquarters for years.

teaming with Namor's cousin Namorita to deactivate a revived Zephyr and losing minor mystic Cyrus Black, the Defenders saved Atuma and the Red Ghost with the aid of a new recruit, returning archer Hawkeye. The heroes next embarked on a quest to save the Black Knight, whom Atuma had capriciously turned to stone. Thanks to the manipulations of the villains Dormammu and Loki, he just brought the Defenders into conflict with their more official counterparts, the Avengers, but the two heroic groups soon joined forces to defeat the villains and save the world. The Black Knight, meanwhile, was taken into a new life in the 12th century Crusades, where the Defenders briefly aided his cause. Following the Avengers-Defenders War and the Knight's return, all of the active Defenders except Strange
