

The background of the book cover features a pale, overcast sky with soft, wispy clouds. The sky is framed by several sharp, translucent fragments of broken glass or ice, which appear to be floating or falling from the edges of the frame. These fragments are dark and jagged, contrasting with the lighter, hazy sky.

Identity Complex Michael Roy Hames-Garcia, Rethinking ideas about identity politics and critical thought
Mysteries and Dreams: the French in Oceania Sylvie Largeaud-Ortega, Lorenz Gonschor, 2025-10-14
Oceania has been the source of mysteries and dreams from the first contact with Europe onwards both for Indigenous Oceanians and outsiders. Mysteries and Dreams: The French in Oceania is a collection of cross-disciplinary essays that explore the mysteries, allures and questionings raised by Indigenous Oceanians and French people about their mutually different worldviews as well as their dreams, aspirations or disillusiones as they navigate their relationships. With a strong focus on reciprocity, this original project analyzes diverse forms of French association with Oceania and the responses engendered by Indigenous communities, authors and artists as they reshape French narratives. Organized along three lines: history, literature and arts, this innovative lens offers unprecedented examinations of hitherto unexplored Oceanian and French figures involved in Oceania, bringing to the fore Marist missionary Xavier Montrouzier, influential politicians Charles de Varigny and Auguste Marques, playwrights and artists Pierre Gope and Greg Semu, and filmmakers Sima Urale and douard Deluc. It also offers fresh postcolonial approaches to better-known figures such as Paris Commune convicts Louis Michel and Henri Rochefort, prominent authors like Titaua, Peu Selina, Tusitala Marsh, Teresia Teaiwa, Vilsoni Hereniko, and douard Glissant, and widely discussed artists like Yuki Kihara. It also critically engages individuals representing the colonial gaze such as Pierre Loti, Allan Hughson and Paul Gauguin. Spanning across Oceania from the Solomon Islands to Rapa Nui, Hawaii to Aotearoa, New Zealand, Tahiti and Kanaky, New Caledonia, it shows the wide impacts of the French on this vast region. Bridging together Anglophone and Francophone Oceania, this volume is an authoritative and enlightening reference to scholars and students in postcolonial Pacific Island studies, to Indigenous and non-Indigenous Oceanians wishing to discover interactive processes of change in their region's past and present, and more generally to all outsiders who might some day have felt inclined to fall under the spell of an imaginary Oceania.

The Transformation of the Media Nicholas Stevenson, 2014-06-06
The changing pattern of contemporary media is one of the most striking and important transformations of our age. This major new work seeks to understand the implications of a series of mediated processes in relation to public cultures and modern identities. In The Transformation of the Media, the author leads the reader through a number of complex theoretical issues connecting the nature of modern communication to the affects this has on our common moral and ethical lives. Most significantly, he argues that a number of perspectives as diverse as Marxism, postmodernism, liberalism, communitarianism and technological determinism can all be found wanting in this regard. The Transformation of the Media attempts to situate the media and more theoretical concerns within a broad sociological framework. The volume adds to our shared understanding of the media's relation to contemporary cultural transformations, including globalisation.

the development of informational capitalism the changing nature of the public sphere and the impact of new social movements More specifically through a discussion of the new media order and the Rwandan genocide a critical prism is held up to existing debates concerning the globalisation of the media Key features an extremely topical and accessible analysis of the media s implications for contemporary cultural transformations combines a theoretical and empirical approach presents complex theoretical ideas in an accessible way This book will be essential reading for students studying globalisation the global media new media technology identity and cultural development in cultural studies media studies and sociology and politics courses

Media, Culture, and the Religious Right Linda Kintz,Julia Lesage,1998 As the religious right has increased in both power and visibility there has been a commensurate growth in the prominence of Christian media The contributors to this book provide a broad overview of the organizations history and media influences of the Christian right

Blue Extinction in Literature, Art, and Culture Vera Fibisan,Rachel Murray,2024-12-11 Blue Extinction in Literature Culture and Art examines literary and cultural representations of aquatic biodiversity loss bringing together critical perspectives from the blue humanities and extinction studies It demonstrates the affordances as well as the limitations of literary and artistic forms in exposing the plight of aquatic organisms drawing attention to the social political and economic structures that are contributing to their destruction Together the essays in this collection demonstrate how literature and art can challenge dominant cultural conceptions and lingering misconceptions surrounding aquatic biodiversity loss offering new ways of relating to species ranging from whales to oysters

Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice _ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

Literature and the Visual Media David Seed,English Association,2005 Essays on the links between film and fiction and their mutual influence Fiction and film interrelate closely to each other and the specially commissioned essays in this volume all consider different aspects of this relationship Beginning with discussions of Dickens and Victorian literature the contributors all leading scholars in this field demonstrate how visual devices like the magic lantern caught the interest of writers and affected their choice of subject and method The impact of the cinema on the British modernists is then discussed and the remaining essays provide detailed case studies on such subjects as Hemingway Updike and the depiction of women in contemporary fiction and film

Cinema Inferno Robert G. Weiner,John Cline,2010-07-17 Cinema Inferno Celluloid Explosions from the Cultural Margins addresses significant areas and eras of transgressive filmmaking including many subgenres and styles that have not yet received much critical attention This collection of essays covers both contemporary films and those produced in the last 50 years to provide a theoretical framework for looking at transgressive cinema and what that means This volume begins with a number of essays that examine the aesthetic of realism tracing it through the late Italian Neo Realism of Pasolini the early films of Melvin Van Peebles and Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin Another section focuses on 70s Italian horror and thrillers including a substantially different examination of filmmaker Dario Argento as well as essays on critically underrepresented directors Lucio Fulci and Sergio Martino A section on New York looks at both radical independents like Troma and Andy Milligan as well as the social context from which a view of the metropolis in decay emerged Sections also cover the experimental work of the Vienna Action Group and controversial filmmaker Michael Haneke as well as films and genres too idiosyncratic and disturbing to fit anywhere else including analyses of Nazi propaganda films fundamentalist Christian scare movies and postwar Japanese youth films The final essays try to come to terms with a mainstream flirtation with transgressive film and Grindhouse aesthetics

Media Culture Human Violence Complexity: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. The novel begins with Richard Pappen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
