Most Fruitful Yuki:

Juno Diablo Cody, 2007 The official screenplay book tie in to the highly acclaimed movie from Fox Searchlight Pictures written by Diablo Cody author of Candy Girl and directed by Jason Reitman Thank You for Smoking tells the story of a confidently frank teenage girl who calls the shots with a nonchalant cool and an effortless attitude as she journeys through an emotional nine month adventure into adulthood While most girls at Dancing Elk are updating their MySpace page or shopping at the mall Juno is a whip smart Minnesota teen living by her own rules A typically boring afternoon becomes anything but when Juno decides to have sex with the charmingly unassuming Bleeker Michael Cera Faced with an unplanned pregnancy she and best friend Leah Olivia Thirlby hatch a plan to find Juno's unborn baby the perfect set of parents courtesy of the local Penny Saver They set their sights on Mark and Vanessa Loring Jason Bateman and Jennifer Garner an affluent suburban couple who are longing to adopt their first child Luckily Juno has the support of her dad and stepmother J K Simmons and Allison Janney After the initial shock that their daughter has been sexually active with the unlikely virile Bleeker the family bands together to help Juno Dad Mac accompanies Juno to size up the prospective adoptive parents to make sure they are not a couple of wing nuts while stepmother Bren provides emotional support as Juno fights the prejudices of underage pregnancy As Juno moves closer and closer to her due date the veneer of Mark and Vanessa's idyllic life starts to show signs of cracking While fall becomes winter and winter turns to spring Juno's physical changes mirror her personal growth With a fearless intellect far removed from the usual teen angst Juno conquers her problems head on displaying a youthful exuberance both smart and unexpected In addition to the complete script this Newmarket Shooting Script book includes a foreword by director Jason Reitman an exclusive introduction by Diablo Cody a color photo section and the complete cast and crew credits Traffic and Granular Flow '01 Minoru Fukui, Yuki Sugiyama, Michael Schreckenberg, Dietrich E. Wolf, 2013-03-09 During the last decade physicists engineers and computer scientists have joined in an enormously fruitful dialogue about traffic and granular flow Cars and sand grains have in common that they interact irreversibly which is the reason for similar jamming phenomena The main difference is that car drivers choose their destination and route individually while grains follow external driving forces This book gives an overview about the progress in modelling computer simulation experiments and field observations which was reached within the last two years The contributions are based on the International Workshop Traffic and Granular Flow 01 which took place in Nagoya 15-17 October 2001 Topics include a critical classification of models for highway traffic new technological applications friction and arching phenomena in pedestrian traffic scale free networks and internet traffic instabilities and fluctuations in avalanches and granular pipe flow The China Christian Advocate, 1917 Ishimure Michiko's Writing in Ecocritical Perspective

Bruce Allen, Yuki Masami, 2015-11-19 This collection of ecocritical essays is focused on the work of Japan's foremost writer on environment and culture Ishimure Michiko Ishimure is known for her pioneering trilogy that exposed the Minamata Disease incident and the nature of modern industrial pollution She is also regarded by many critics as Japan's most original and important literary writer Ishimure has written over 50 volumes in a wide range of genres including novels Noh drama poetry children's stories essays and mixed genre writing This collection brings together the work of scholars from Japan the U S and Canada who are authorities on Ishimure's writing Contributors discuss Ishimure's writing in the context of the latest issues in ecocritical theory arguing for an expanded more than Western understanding of literature theory and environmental responsibility It will help to relate various environmental cultural and ecocritical issues ranging from the events at Minamata to those at Fukushima and consider how they point to future developments

Behaving as a Christ-Believer Rikard Roitto, 2021-12-02 This study contributes to the understanding of how first century Christ believers particularly those who shared the imagination of Ephesians experienced the relation between their social identity as Christ believers and behavior norms In order to understand this a number of theories from the cognitive sciences are used in combination with historical critical methods After a theoretical survey of relevant cognitive theories and discussions about the epistemological problems of using cognitive theories on historical texts the theories are used to understand a how Ephesians imagines the relation between identity and behavior norms and b the potential group dynamic effects of this imagination The result is a demonstration of how Ephesians is able to create a coherent narrative beginning with God's agency and ending with behavior norms and facilitating psychological and group dynamic effects such as intergroup distinction self esteem cognitive certainty and consensus among group members intragroup cooperation moral judgment and inclusion marginalization motivation to remain committed and last but not least a sense of capacity and obligation to act morally

The Muslim World, 1984 Mediating and Remediating Death Dorthe Refslund Christensen, Kjetil Sandvik, 2016-04-29 From the ritual object which functions as a substitute for the dead thus acting as a medium for communicating with the other world to the representation of death violence and suffering in media or the use of online social networks as spaces of commemoration media of various kinds are central to the communication and performance of death related socio cultural practices of individuals groups and societies This second volume of the Studies in Death Materiality and Time series explores the ways in which such practices are subject to re mediation that is to say processes by which well known practices are re presented in new ways through various media formats Presenting rich interdisciplinary new empirical case studies and fieldwork from the US and Europe Asia The Middle East Australasia and Africa Mediating and Remediating Death shows how different media forms contribute to the shaping and transformation of various forms of death and commemoration whether in terms of their range and distribution their relation to users or their roles in creating and maintaining communities With its broad and multi faceted focus on how uses of media can redraw the traditional boundaries of death related practices and create new cultural realities this book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences and humanities with interests in ritual and commemoration practices the sociology and anthropology of death and dying and cultural and media studies

Educational Programs

Kate Theimer, 2015-05-07 Educational Programs Innovative Practices for Archives and Special Collections explores how archivists and special collections librarians in organizations of different sizes and types have approached the challenges in creating effective educational programs to prepare the next generation of researchers and advocates for archives The case studies featured are Tablet and Codex Side by Side Pairing Rare Books and E Books in the Special Collections Classroom Fells Fans and Fame Acquiring a Collection of Personal Papers with the Goal of Engaging Primary School Children Student Curators in the Archives Class Curated Exhibits in Academic Special Collections A Win for All Cultural Organizations Working With Colleges of Education The Archive as Theory and Reality Engaging with Students in Cultural and Critical Studies Make Way for Learning Using Literary Papers to Engage Elementary School Students Archivists Teaching Teachers The Archives Education Institute and K 12 Outreach Animating Archives Embedding Archival Materials and Archivists into Digital History Projects A Certain Kind of Seduction Integrating Archival Research into a First Year Writing Curriculum Not Just for Students An Archives Workshop for Faculty Web Archiving as Gateway Teaching K 12 Students about Archival Concepts Evocative Objects Inspiring Art Students with Archives Documenting and Sharing Instruction Practices The story of TeachArchives.org These case studies show a range of audiences and strategies but all were selected because they demonstrate ideas that could be transferred into many other settings They can serve as models sources of inspiration or starting points for new discussions This volume will be useful to those working in archives and special collections as well as other cultural heritage organizations and provides ideas ranging from those that require long term planning and coordination to ones that could be more quickly implemented The chapters also provide students and educators in archives library and public history graduate programs a resource for understanding the varieties of issues related to creating and implementing educational programs and how they can be addressed

New International Yearbook, 1918 The Japanese Cinema Book Hideaki Fujiki, Alastair Phillips, 2020-04-02 The Japanese Cinema Book provides a new and comprehensive survey of one of the world's most fascinating and widely admired filmmaking regions In terms of its historical coverage broad thematic approach and the significant international range of its authors it is the largest and most wide ranging publication of its kind to date Ranging from renowned directors such as Akira Kurosawa to neglected popular genres such as the film musical and encompassing topics such as ecology spectatorship home movies colonial history and relations with Hollywood and Europe The Japanese Cinema Book presents a set of new and often surprising perspectives on Japanese film With its plural range of interdisciplinary perspectives based on the expertise of established and emerging scholars and critics The Japanese Cinema Book provides a groundbreaking picture of the different ways in which Japanese cinema may be understood as a local regional national transnational and global phenomenon The book s innovative structure combines general surveys of a particular historical topic or critical approach with various micro level case studies It argues there is no single fixed Japanese cinema but instead a fluid and varied field of Japanese filmmaking cultures that continue to exist in a dynamic relationship with other cinemas media and regions The Japanese Cinema Book is divided into seven inter related sections Theories and Approaches Institutions and Industry Film Style Genre Times and Spaces of Representation Social Contexts Flows and Interactions Yenping, 1924-1941 Sandra L. Minor, 2007 You're my Favourite Memory MEHAK SETHI, This book is a romantic suspense depicting the rare kind of love that shines through challenges proving that true connections are felt not just remembered The whole book revolves around the memories and true connections giving us a gentle reminder that love is not just about memories but a feeling that transcends time and space A story where a teenage couple is so eager to get married but their destinies have much more unpacked for them after the wedding The closest months of the year yet so far January and December unaware of the endings and start It s like the nearest stars different galaxies The world s greatest love stories are truly tragedies But is this love story a tragedy To explore what happens next keep the book handy with you

Music in the Making of Modern Japan Kei Hibino, Barnaby Ralph, Henry Johnson, 2021-07-29 This volume explores the notion of affective media within and across different arts in Japan with a primary focus on music whether as standalone product or connected to other genres such as theatre and photography The volume explores the Japanese reception of this affective media its transformation and subsequent cultural flow Moving from a discussion of early encounters with the West through Jesuits and others the contributors primarily consider the role of music in the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries With ten original chapters the volume covers a wealth of themes from education koto music guitar making avant garde recorder works musicals and rock photography to interviews with contemporary performers in jazz modern rock and J pop Innovative and fascinating the book provides rich new insights and material to all those interested in Japanese musical culture A Sociology of Japanese Youth Roger Goodman, Yuki Imoto, Tuukka Hannu Ilmari Toivonen, 2012 Over the past thirty years whilst Japan has produced a diverse set of youth cultures which have had a major impact on popular culture across the globe it has also developed a succession of youth problems which have led to major concerns within the country itself Drawing on detailed empirical fieldwork the authors of this volume set these issues in a clearly articulated social constructionist framework and put forth a sociology of Japanese youth problems which argues that there is a certain predictability about the way in which these problems are discovered defined and dealt with The chapters include case studies covering issues such as Returnee children kikokushijo Compensated dating enjo k sai Corporal punishment taibatsu Bullying ijime Child abuse jid gyakutai The withdrawn youth hikikomori and NEETs not in education employment or training By examining these various social problems collectively A Sociology of Japanese Youth explains why particular youth problems appeared when they did and what lessons they can provide for the study of youth problems in other societies This book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Japanese society and culture the sociology of Japan Japanese anthropology and the comparative sociology of youth studies
