'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P. Liao, 2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9/11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9/11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9/11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9/11 South Asian diasporic fictions

Contemporary Diasporic South Asian Women's Fiction Ruvani Ranasinha, 2016-05-28 This book is the first comparative analysis of a new generation of diasporic Anglophone South Asian women novelists including Kiran Desai Tahmima Anam Monica Ali Kamila Shamsie and Jhumpa Lahiri from a feminist perspective It charts the significant changes these writers have produced in postcolonial and contemporary women's fiction since the late 1990s Paying careful attention to the authors distinct subcontinental backgrounds of Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka as well as India this study destabilises the central place given to fiction focused on India It broadens the customary focus on diasporic writers metropolitan contexts illuminates how these transnational female authored literary texts challenge national assumptions and considers the ways in which this new configuration of transnational feminist writers produces a postcolonial feminist discourse which differs from Anglo American feminism

Flat Aesthetics Christian Moraru, 2022-12-15 Flat Aesthetics seeks to secure a more granular and ontologically demotic handle on the contemporary in American literature While contemporaneity can be viewed as our period Christian Moraru approaches the contemporary as some thing made by things themselves The making of the contemporary is variously restaged by the body of fictional prose under scrutiny here Thus this corpus itself participates in the making of contemporaneity In dialogue with object oriented ontology and various new materialisms Moraru contends that the contemporary does not preexist objects or the novels featuring them it is not their background but an outcome of things self presentation As objects beings or existents present themselves in the present in our now they foster thing configurations that together compose the form of and essentially make the contemporary the present s cultural material signature as Moraru calls it To decipher this signature Flat Aesthetics provides a cross sectional reading of postmillennial American fiction Discussed are solely post 2000 works by writers who have also established themselves over the past two decades or so from Nicole Krauss Michael Chabon and Ben Lerner to Colson Whitehead and Emily St John Mandel Their output Moraru claims bears witness to the onset of a flat aesthetics in American letters after September 11 2001 Organized into five parts the books canvases objectual constellations of contemporaneity shaped by material dynamics of language museality and display spatiality zombification and thing rhetoric and post anthropocentric kinship

The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context Laura Savu Walker,2015-11-19 The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context offers a timely contribution to the debates about the good life that surround us every day in the media politics the humanities and social sciences The authors examine the relationship between the good life and the greater good as represented across different genres media cultures and disciplines This enables them to develop a framework of values that transcends the overly rational and individualistic model of the good life advanced by neoliberalism and the happiness industry Thus over and against normative conceptualizations of the good life that reduce meaning to money creativity to consumption and compassion to self help the contributors propose an ethically charged philosophy of living that views the care for the self for the other and for the planet as the catalysts of true human flourishing In addition to recovering the original usage of the good life from classical thought especially the Aristotelian understanding of eudaimonia as living well and doing well the essays gathered here highlight its entanglement with distinctly modern ideas of happiness wellbeing flourishing progress revolution democracy the American Dream utopia and sustainability As such the essays capture the breadth and depth of the conversation about the good life that is of central importance to how we relate to the past engage the present and envision the future

Bookclub-in-a-Box Discusses The Reluctant Fundamentalist, by Mohsin Hamid

Marilyn Herbert, 2012-02-07 The Reluctant Fundamentalist is more than the usual immigrant book of adaptation struggle and identity. It is the gripping tale of a young man who comes to America from Pakistan just prior to 9/11. The protagonist Changez is a Harvard educated businessman who works for a high profile company that assesses the economic value of other companies. Changez is very successful in his chosen career but then September 11 happens and everything changes. The setting is Lahore, Pakistan, and the tale is told by one narrator, that of Changez, as he speaks to a nameless and faceless American tourist. The narration takes place in the span of a single evening, in fact during a single meal, and Hamid manages to swing the reader on a pendulum of conflicting emotions and thoughts. The Bookclub in a Box guide explores a number of important questions: who is this nameless American and why is he in Pakistan? How can one person have equal love for two countries that are at odds with each other in culture and outlook? How does such a person come to terms with his two worlds and what is the significance of the word 'reluctant' in the novel's title? The Reluctant Fundamentalist. Every Bookclub in a Box discussion guide also includes complete coverage of the themes and symbols, writing style, and interesting background information on the novel and the author. Granta 122

John Freeman, 2013-01-17 In a world of the future, people exist in a perpetual state of rehearsing evacuations, and one man's rehearsal involves leaving his parents behind. A fire spotter knows all too well that where there's smoke, there's fire, but fails to spot the blaze that consumes half her family. Then there's the Custer impersonator who takes his role in a re-enactment too literally and too far. And the massage therapist struggling to help a veteran whose biggest regret is tattooed across his back. With award-winning reportage, memoir, fiction, and photography, Granta has illuminated the most complex issues of modern life through the refractory light of literature. Feel the sting of betrayal via new writing by Ben Marcus, Janine Di Giovanni, Samantha Harvey, Colin Robinson, Jennifer Vanderbes, Callan Wink, John Burnside, Andre Aciman, and more. The 2010s. Emily Horton, Nick Bentley, Nick Hubble, Philip Tew, 2024-02-08 This volume relates the British fiction of the decade to the contexts in which it was written and received in order to examine and explain contemporary trends such as the rise of a new working class fiction, the ongoing development of separate national literatures of Scotland, Wales, and Ireland, and shifts in modes of attention and reading. From the aftermath of the 2008 global financial crash to the Covid-19 pandemic of 2020, the 2010s have been a decade of an ongoing crisis which has penetrated every area of everyday life. Internationally, there has been an ongoing shift of global power from the US to China, and events and developments such as the election of Donald Trump as US President, the emergence of the Black Lives Matter movement, the rise of the populist right across Europe, and very gradually the incipient effects variously of AI. Nationally, there has been a decade of austerity economics punctuated by divisive referendums on Scottish independence and whether Britain should leave or remain in the EU.
