Approaches to Reducing the Use of Forced or Child Labor

National Research Council,Policy and Global Affairs,2009-11-09 Globally child labor and forced labor are widespread and complex problems They are conceptually different phenomena requiring different policy responses though they may also overlap in practice The Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 TVPA was designed to reduce the use of child and forced labor in the production of goods consumed in the United States The Act was reauthorized in 2003 2005 and 2008 In response to provisions of TVPA the the Bureau of International Labor Affairs requested that the National Research Council organize a two day workshop The workshop summarized in this volume discusses methods for identifying and organizing a standard set of practices that will reduce the likelihood that persons will use forced labor or child labor to produce goods with a focus on business and governmental practices Mother Jones Magazine ,1999-01 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States.
