Non Merito Tuo Amore Italian:

Preaching and Inquisition in Renaissance Italy Giorgio Caravale, 2016-11-01 As has been well documented the printed word was an essential vehicle for the transmission of reformed theology and one that has left a tangible record for historians to explore Yet as contemporaries well recognized books were only a part of the process It was the spoken word and especially preaching that created the demand for printed works Sermons were the plough that prepared the ground for Lutheran literature to flourish In order to better understand the relationship between oral sermons and the spread of protestant ideas Preaching and Inquisition in Renaissance Italy draws upon the records of the Roman Inquisition to see how that institution confronted the challenges of reform on the Italian peninsula in the sixteenth century At the heart of its subject matter is the increasingly sophisticated rhetorical skill of heterodox preachers at the time who achieved their ends by silence and omission rather than positive affirmations of Lutheran tenets Italian Literature: Il tristano panciatichiano

Gloria Allaire, 2002 This is the first critical edition with English translation of the prose compilation Tristano panciatichiano preserved in a unique manuscript in the Biblioteca Nazionale of Florence MS Panc 33 it is the first time the Italian text has been published in its entirety in any form Assembled by the mid fourteenth century the manuscript is an original compilation in Italian based on several French models the Queste del San Graal Joseph d Arimathie the Mort Artu and notably the Roman de Tristan en prose While the edition itself will be of great interest the translation into English is a major opportunity for Arthurians and other medievalists and furnishes important new evidence for the study of Arthurian material in Italy Apparatus includes a finding list of Arthurian manuscripts produced owned or read by Italians a select bibliography and an index of proper names found in the narrative
