The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation

Atlas Qizhang Dong, 2012 A futuristic tale set in a long lost fictional city similar to post colonial Hong Kong follows the efforts of a team of archaeologists to reconstruct its metropolis through historical maps documents and artifacts that are translated through anecdotal experiences and social commentary

Atlas Kai-cheung Dung, 2012-07-17 Set in the long lost City of Victoria a fictional world similar to Hong Kong Atlas is written from the unified perspective of future archaeologists struggling to rebuild a thrilling metropolis Divided into four sections Theory The City Streets and Signs the novel reimagines Victoria through maps and other historical documents and artifacts mixing real world scenarios with purely imaginary people and events while incorporating anecdotes and actual and fictional social commentary and critique Much like the quasi fictional adventures in map reading and remapping explored by Paul Auster Jorge Luis Borges and Italo Calvino Dung Kai cheung s novel challenges the representation of place and history and the limits of technical and scientific media in reconstructing a history It best exemplifies the author s versatility and experimentation along with China s rapidly evolving literary culture by blending fiction nonfiction and poetry in a story about succeeding and failing to recapture the things we lose Playing with a variety of styles and subjects Dung Kai cheung inventively engages with the fate of Hong Kong since its British handover in 1997 which officially marked the end of colonial rule and the beginning of an uncharted future
