Handbook of Research on Special Education Teacher Preparation Paul T. Sindelar, Erica D. McCray, Mary T. Brownell, Benjamin Lignugaris/Kraft, 2014-03-05 Compilations of research on teacher preparation often include no more than a cursory mention of the specific roles and needs of special education teachers Although the work that special education teachers perform does indeed differ from the work of classroom teachers teacher preparation in the two fields has much in common The purpose of this seven part handbook is to expand our knowledge of teacher education broadly by providing an in depth look at the most up to date research on special education teacher preparation Opening chapters ground the collection in political and economic context while subsequent sections delve deeply into issues related to the current state of our special education workforce and offer insights into how to best prepare and sustain that workforce Ultimately by illuminating the particularities of special education teacher preparation this landmark handbook addresses the state of current research in the field and sets an agenda for future scholarship

Touch Screen Tablets Touching Children's Lives Joanne Tarasuik,Gabrielle Strouse,Jordy Kaufman,2018-02-28

Touch screen tablets have greatly expanded the technology accessible to preschoolers toddlers and even infants given that they do not require the fine motor skills required for using traditional computers Many parents and educators wish to make evidence based decisions regarding young children's technology use yet technological advancements continue to occur faster than researchers can keep up with Accordingly despite touch screen tablets entering society more than 5 years ago we are in the infancy of research concerning interactive media and children The topic has gained traction in the past couple of years For example theoretical papers have discussed how interactive media activities differ from physical toys and passive media Christakis 2014 and how educational apps development should utilise the four pillars of learning Hirsh Pasek et al 2015 Yet there has been little experimental research published on young children and touch screen use Resources in Education
