Transnational Feminist Itineraries Ashwini Tambe, Millie Thayer, 2021-07-06 Transnational Feminist Itineraries brings together scholars and activists from multiple continents to demonstrate the ongoing importance of transnational feminist theory in challenging neoliberal globalization and the rise of authoritarian nationalisms around the world The contributors illuminate transnational feminism's unique constellation of elements its specific mode of thinking across scales its historical understanding of identity categories and its expansive imagining of solidarity based on difference rather than similarity Contesting the idea that transnational feminism works in opposition to other approaches especially intersectional and decolonial feminisms this volume instead argues for their complementarity Throughout the contributors call for reaching across social ideological and geographical boundaries to better confront the growing reach of nationalism authoritarianism and religious and economic fundamentalism Contributors Mary Bernstein Isabel Maria Cortes o Casimiro Rafael de la Dehesa Carmen L Diaz Alba Inderpal Grewal Cricket Keating Amy Lind Laura L Lovett Kathryn Moeller Nancy A Naples Jennifer C Nash Amrita Pande Srila Roy Cara K Snyder Ashwini Tambe Millie Thayer Catarina Casimiro Trindade

Changing the Subject Srila Roy, 2022-08-29 In Changing the Subject Srila Roy maps the rapidly transforming terrain of gender and sexual politics in India under the conditions of global neoliberalism The consequences of India's liberalization were paradoxical the influx of global funds for social development and NGOs signaled the co-optation and depoliticization of struggles for women's rights even as they amplified the visibility and vitalization of queer activism Roy reveals the specificity of activist and NGO work around issues of gender and sexuality through a decade long ethnography of two West Bengal organizations one working on lesbian bisexual and transgender issues and the other on rural women's empowerment Tracing changes in feminist governmentality that were entangled in transnational neoliberalism Roy shows how historical and highly local feminist currents shaped contemporary queer and nonqueer neoliberal feminisms The interplay between historic techniques of activist governance and queer feminist governmentality's focus on changing the self offers a new way of knowing feminism both as always already co-opted and as a transformative force in the world

Intersectional (Feminist) Activisms Serena D'Agostino, Nadia E. Brown, 2024-08-16 This book includes essays that directly uncover how power asymmetries and related forms of marginalization and oppression function in the political and policy arenas with a special emphasis on the intersection of several systems of subordination This edited volume tackles two main questions first what are the main claims struggles and possibilities of contemporary intersectional feminisms and second how shall we as scholars address intersectional feminist activism in our research theoretically methodologically and empirically These issues are debated from several intersectional feminist perspectives locations and positionalities The globally oriented and empirically grounded scope of this volume is undeniable This book goes beyond the Western hegemony in intersectionality related research and knowledge production bringing in practices experiences and critical perspectives of intersectional feminist scholars and activists who are not necessarily located in the most privileged social political and financial milieus This book will be of interest to students and scholars from across the social sciences and humanities with an interest in intersectionality gender feminism racism LGBT and queer studies activism and social movement studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Women Politics and Policy

New Feminisms in South Asian Social Media, Film, and Literature Sonora Jha, Alka Kurian, 2017-10-18

This book is a study of the resurgence and re imagination of feminist discourse on gender and sexuality in South Asia as told through its cinematic literary and social media narratives It brings incisive and expert analyses of emerging disruptive articulations that represent an unprecedented surge of feminist response to the culture of sexual violence in South Asia Here scholars across disciplines and international borders chronicle the expressions of a disruptive feminist solidarity in contemporary South Asia They offer critical investigations of these newly complicated discourses across narrative forms hashtag activism on Facebook and Twitter the writings of diasporic writers such as Jhumpa Lahiri Bollywood films like Mardaani feminist Dalit narratives in the fiction of Bama Faustina social media activism against rape culture journalistic and cinematic articulations on queer rights state censorship of India's Daughter and feminist film activism in Bangladesh Kashmir Nepal and Sri Lanka

Digital Diasporas Radhika Gajjala, 2019-06-26

When we work or play through digital technologies we also live in them Communities form conversations and social movements emerge spontaneously and through careful offline planning While we have used disembodied communication and transportation technologies in the past and still do we have never before actually synchronously inhabited these communicative spaces routes and networks in quite the way we do now Digital Diasporas engages conversations across a selection of contemporary gendered Indian identified networks online Desis creating place through labour and affective network formation in secondlife Indian diasporic women engaged in digital domesticity to Indian digital feminists engaged in debate and dialogue through Twitter Through particular conversations and ethnographic journeys and linking back to personal and South Asian histories of Internet mediation Gajjala and her co authors reveal how affect and gendered digital labour combine in the formation of global socio economic environment

Islamic Sisterhood Etsuko Maruoka-Donnelly, 2019-01-24

Muslims have been major targets of hate crimes and discrimination in the US since 9 11 Anti Muslim resentment increased again after Donald Trump won the U S presidency and revitalized far right politics In this hostile environment why do many young Muslim women choose to wear a headscarf and publicly display their Islamic identity This book unravels this puzzle by drawing on sociological insights and three years of ethnographic study with Muslim adolescents in New York during the post 9 11 backlash It finds that young American born Muslim women choose to cover their hair and bodies not simply out of spiritual devotion to Islamic fundamentalism but also and primarily to cope with social adversity rooted in sexism racism and patriarchy in both their ethnic community and the larger Western society This book will appeal to scholars students and other readers interested in the Muslim diaspora gender race and ethnicity youth immigration and social movements Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia Leela Fernandes, 2021-11-15 This new edition of the Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia provides a comprehensive overview of the study of gender in South Asia The Handbook covers the central contributions that have defined this area and captures innovative and emerging paradigms that are shaping the future of the field It offers a wide range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives spanning both the humanities and social sciences focusing on India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka This revised edition has been thoroughly updated and includes new chapters thus adding new areas of scholarship The Handbook is organized thematically into five major parts Historical formations and theoretical framings Law citizenship and the nation Representations of culture place identity Labor and the economy Inequality activism and the state The Handbook illustrates the ways in which scholarship on gender has contributed to a rethink of theoretical concepts and empirical understandings of contemporary South Asia Finally it focuses on new areas of inquiry that have been opened up through a focus on gender and the intersections between gender and categories such as caste ethnicity sexuality and religion This timely study is essential reading for scholars who research and teach on South Asia as well as for scholars in related interdisciplinary fields that focus on women and gender from comparative and transnational perspectives A Cartographic Journey of Race, Gender and Power Syrrina Ahsan Ali Haque, Sameer Afzal, 2021-05-14 This book locates spatial dimensions possible for a global identity while incorporating the presence of collaborative and contentious religious psycho social and physical borders It highlights the significance of space in the construction of racial gender religious cultural idiosyncrasies where private and public space projects the power mechanisms which allocate borders The literary narratives discussed in this collection project a trajectory of voices of the East and West male and female crossing boundaries between identity race gender and class The book proffers that spatial borders are social constructs to propagate the power mechanisms of hierarchical structures defying imbrications explored here which may be used to reflect diversity as a model for global space These explorations are journeys back and forth in time and space towards hierarchies formed through the imposition of borders defining race gender and power which may be considered post in the postmodern postcolonial post 9 11 post secular and postfeminist senses Governance Feminism Janet Halley, Prabha Kotiswaran, Rachel Rebouché, Hila Shamir, 2019-03-26 An interdisciplinary multifaceted look at feminist engagements with governance across the global North and global South Governance Feminism Notes from the Field brings together nineteen chapters from leading feminist scholars and activists to critically describe and assess contemporary feminist engagements with state and state like power Gathering examples from North America South America Europe Asia and the Middle East it complements and expands on the companion volume Governance Feminism An Introduction Its chapters argue that governance feminism GF is institutionally diverse and globally distributed emerging from traditional sites of state power as well as from various forms of governance and operating at the grassroots level in the private sector in civil society and in international relations The book begins by confronting the key role that crime and punishment play in GFeminist projects Here contributors explore the ideological and political conditions under which this branch of GF became so robust and rethink the carceral turn Other chapters speak to another face of GFeminism feminists finding in mundane and seemingly unspectacular bureaucratic tools leverage to bring about change in policy and governance practices Several contributions highlight the political strategic and ethical challenges that feminists and LGBT activists must negotiate to play on the governmental field The book concludes with a focus on feminist interventions in postcolonial legal and political orders looking at new policy spaces opened up by conflict postconflict and occupation Providing a clear cross cutting critical lens through which to map developments in feminist governance around the world Governance Feminism Notes from the Field makes sense of the costs and benefits of current feminist realities to reimagine feminist futures Contributors Libby Adler Northeastern U Aziza Ahmed Northeastern U Elizabeth Bernstein Barnard College Amy J Cohen Ohio State U Karen Engle U of Texas at Austin Jacob Gersen Harvard U Leigh Goodmark U of Maryland Aeyal Gross Tel Aviv U Aya Gruber U of Colorado Boulder Janet Halley Harvard U Rema Hammami Birzeit U Palestine Vanja Hamzi U of London Isabel Cristina Jaramillo Sierra Prabha Kotiswaran King s College London Maleiha Malik King s College London Vasuki Nesiah New York U Dianne Otto Melbourne Law School Helen Reece Darren Rosenblum Pace U Jeannie Suk Gersen Harvard U Mariana Valverde U of Toronto The Emerald Handbook of Appearance in the Workplace Adelina Broadbridge,2023-11-27 The first of its kind in addressing appearance and careers with varying approaches and across a diverse range of concepts this Handbook provides an essential overview of the unspoken impact that personal presentation and assumptions can have on how employees are perceived and ultimately progress in their careers

Magazine Movements Laurel Forster,2015-02-26 All women s magazines are not the same content outlook and format combine to shape publications quite distinctively While magazines in general have long been understood as a significant force in women s lives many critiques have limited themselves to discussions of mainstream printed publications that engage with narrowly stereotypical representations of femininity Looking at a range of women s magazines Cooperative Correspondence Club and Housewife and magazine programmes Woman s Hour and Houseparty Magazine Movements not only extends our definition of a magazine but most importantly unearths the connections between women s cultures specific magazines and the implied reader The author first outlines the existing field of magazine studies and analyzes the methodologies employed in accessing and assessing the cultural competence of magazines Each chapter then provides a case study of a different kind of magazine different in media form or style of presentation or audience connection or all three Forster not only extends our definition of a magazine but most importantly unearths the connections between women s cultures specific magazines and the implied reader In this way fresh insights are provided into the long standing importance of the magazine to the variety of feminisms on offer in Britain from the mid twentieth century to the present day The End of Religion Kathleen McPhillips,Naomi Goldenberg,2020-10-22 Feminist theory has enhanced and expanded the agency

influence status and contributions of women throughout the globe However feminist critical analysis has not yet examined how the assumption that religion is natural timeless universal and omnipresent supports sexist and race based oppression This book proposes radical new thinking about religion in order to better comprehend and confront the systematic disempowerment of women and marginalized groups Utilising feminist and post colonial analysis of access equity and violence contributors draw on recent critical theory to collapse accepted boundaries between religion and secularity with the aim of understanding that religion is a technology of governance in its function meaning and history The volume includes case studies focusing on how the category of religion is deployed to perpetuate male hegemony and racist inequities in Australia Mexico the United States Britain and Canada This trenchant feminist critique and academic analysis will be of key interest to scholars and students of Religion Sociology Political Science and Gender Studies

Contemporary Gender Formations in India Nandini Dhar,2024-02-27 The volume discusses critical issues surrounding the developments in gender movements in the last two decades in India following the Delhi rape case and the ensuing massive protests in December 2012 A critical documentation of some of the key moments surrounding the contemporary gendered formations and radicalisms in South Asia the chapters span questions of class caste sexuality digital feminisms and conflict zones The book looks at anger protest and imaginations of resistance It showcases the new visibility that digital spaces have opened up to lend voice to survivors who are let down by traditional justice mechanisms and raises questions regarding individualized modes of seeking justice as against traditional collective voices that have always been a hallmark of movements The volume analyses and criticizes the complicity of the state and the court as agents of reinforcing gender violence an issue that has not been theorized enough by activists and scholars of violence Further it also delves into the MeToo movement and the LoSHA as both have raised contentious controversial and often conflicting debates on the nature of addressing sexual harassment particularly at the workplace Calling for further debate and discussions of cyberspace gender justice sexual violence male entitlement and forms of neoliberal feminism this volume will be of immense interest to scholars and researchers in the areas of women and gender studies sociology and social theory gender politics political theory democracy protest movements politics media and the internet political advocacy and law and legal theory It will also be a compelling read for anyone interested in gender justice and equal rights

Gender, Sexuality, Decolonization Ahonaa Roy,2020-12-28 This book presents a new approach to the understanding of non normative sexuality and gender transgressive modes in South Asia and South Asian diaspora It reconceives sexual representation from the point of view of the theoretical political and empirical trajectories of decolonization provincialization and neoliberalism to look at the role of historical contingency postcolonial sexual politics and gender and sexual diversity The volume brings together anthropological historical material and political analyses around South Asian sexual politics by exploring a range of themes including culture class ethnicity identity intersectionality migration borders diaspora modernity and cosmopolitanism across various local regional and global contexts

By using southern non Western and subaltern theorizations of gender and sexuality the book discusses South Asian sexualities through issues such as the sexual politics of indeterminacy sexual subculture iconography and political decision making religious identity queer South Asian diaspora decolonizing the postcolonial body sexual politics gender and feminist debates discrimination and socio political violence the political economy of empowerment and critical appropriation of the 377 Indian Penal Code It also builds forms of dialogues to bridge the gap between academic and development practitioners With diverse case studies and a fresh theoretical framework this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of South Asian studies gender studies sexuality studies sociology and social anthropology political studies diaspora studies postcolonial and global south studies Online Philanthropy in the Global North and South Radhika

Gajjala,2017-12-20 Online Philanthropy in the Global North and South Connecting Microfinancing and Gaming for Change offers a critical examination how online philanthropy operates through digital connectivity affective networks of well meaning digital givers and the commodification of poverty through what is conceptualized as the digital subaltern Chapters examine a range of online philanthropy settings such as online microfinance platforms and games for change with case studies revealing unseen problems in how digital inclusion and financialization are attempted through the joint forces of NGOization and ITization
