Patrol is the most vital component of police work. It can contribute to each of the common goals of the police department, including preserving the peace, protecting the civil rights and liberties, enforcing the law, preventing the crime and providing services.

Police patrol as a unit, is created for the objective of attempting to eliminate the desire and opportunity to commit misconduct on the part of the individual. Patrol is an idea of mobilizing police personnel; placing them and arranging them in a systematic manner.

Deployment of personnel will commence after a due consideration by the administration on the needs of the community with regards to crime prevention, traffic supervision, crime prevention and public safety.

Evolution of the Police (Philippine Setting)

<https://prezi.com/f6ducle919qk/brief-history-of-philippine-policing-system/>

Ancient Roots

The forerunner of the contemporary police system was the practice of barangay officials to select able-bodied young men to protect their barangay during the night. Among the duties of those selected were to protect the properties of the people in the barangay and protect their crops and livestock from wild animals.
