Nice Migrants Political Participation Exclusionary Contexts:

Migrants' Participation in Exclusionary Contexts K. Pilati, 2016-04-30 This insightful book analyzes the political engagement and marginalization of three of Milan's migrant groups: Filipinos, Egyptians, and Ecuadorians. Bringing together data relating to the civic and political engagement of individual migrants and of migrant organizational networks, the result is an examination of the consequences of the political exclusion of migrants, exploring the different ways in which they cope with this predicament. Such exclusion, the author argues, has three major impacts. It can transform migrant groups into political subcultures and engender externally driven participation, but it can also lead to radicalization. Networks

Governance, Partnership Management and Coalitions Federation Christophe Assens, Aline Courie Lemeur, 2016-05-12 This book explores the governance of networks. A network's governance mechanisms are based on trust and confidence, which go beyond a simple economic logic. As the network's boundaries expand to include clusters of businesses and stakeholders and the emergence of coalitions of all kinds, the trust will gradually dilute and the network's unifying role will be lost. The organization then evolves into the form of a network of networks, where the challenge is to bring together coalitions. Using examples from the European Union and the Regional Health Federation of Networks, this book explores the political and socio-economic challenges, including the decision-making and division of tasks faced by network organizations, which move to a federation model of governance. Zombie Talk John Edgar Browning, David Castillo, David Schmid, David A. Reilly, 2016-04-30

Zombie Talk offers a concise interdisciplinary introduction and a deep analytical set of theoretical approaches to help readers understand the phenomenon of zombies in contemporary and modern culture. With essays that combine Humanities and Social Science methodologies, the authors examine the zombie through an array of cultural products from different periods and geographical locations: films ranging from White Zombie (1932) to the pioneering films of George Romero; television shows like AMC's The Walking Dead; to literary offerings such as Richard Matheson's I am Legend (1954) and Seth Grahame-Smith's Pride Prejudice and Zombies (2009) among others. Alien Audiences M. Barker, K. Egan, S. Ralph, T. Phillips, 2016-04-29

Released in 1979, Ridley Scott's Alien has come to be regarded as a classic film and has been widely written about. But how have audiences engaged with it? This book presents the sometimes very surprising results of a major audience research project exploring how people remember and continue to engage with the film. Governing Religious Diversity in Cities Julia Martínez-Ariño, 2020-05-21

Governing Religious Diversity in Cities provides original insights into the governance of religious diversity in urban contexts from a variety of theoretical perspectives and drawing on a wide range of empirical examples in Europe and Canada. Religious diversity is increasingly present and visible in cities across the world. Drawing on a wide selection of cases in Europe and Canada, this volume examines how this diversity is governed. While focusing on the urban dimension of governance, the chapters do not examine cities in isolation but take into account the interconnections between urban contexts and other scales, both within and beyond the borders of the nation-state. The contributors discuss a variety of empirical examples ranging from the controversies around the celebration of the International Yoga Day in Vancouver the mosque not built in Munich and the governance of Islam in cities in France Germany Italy Quebec and Spain Adopting a critical perspective they shed light on the factors shaping different governance patterns and on their implications for various religious groups Ultimately this book shows that governing religious diversity is not a matter of black and white Contributing to a growing field of academic research that focuses on the governance of religion in urban contexts and providing lines for future research Governing Religious Diversity in Cities will be of great interest to scholars in the sociology of religion religious studies and urban studies The chapters were originally published as a special issue of Religion State Society Handbook of Citizenship and Migration Marco Giugni, Maria

Grasso, 2021-06-25 Taking an integrated approach this unique Handbook places the terms citizenship and migration on an equal footing examining how they are related to each other both conceptually and empirically Beyond Turkey's Borders

Banu Senay, 2012-12-05 In an increasingly connected world the engagement of diasporic communities in transnationalism has become a potent force Instead of pointing to a post national era of globalised politics as one might expect Banu Senay argues that expanding global channels of communication have provided states with more scope to mobilise their nationals across borders Her case is built around the way in which the long reach of the proactive Turkish state maintains relations with its Australian diaspora to promote the official Kemalist ideology Activists invest themselves in the state to see both for and like the state and as such Turkish immigrants have been politicised and polarised along lines that reflect internal divisions and developments in Turkish politics This book explores the way in which the Turkish state injects its presence into everyday life through the work of its consular institutions its management of Turkish Islam and its sponsoring of national celebrations The result is a state engineered transnationalism that mobilises Turkish migrants and seeks to tie them to official discourse and policy Despite this individual Kemalist activists dissatisfied with the state's transnational work have appointed themselves as the true cultural attaches of the Turkish Republic It is the actions and discourses of these activists that give efficacy to trans Kemalism in the unique migratory context of Australian multiculturalism Vital to this engagement is its Australian backdrop where ethnic diversity policies facilitate the nationalising initiatives of the Turkish state as well as the bottom up activism of Ataturkists On the other hand it also complicates and challenges trans Kemalism by giving a platform to groups such as Kurds or Armenians whose identity politics clash with that of Turkish officialdom An original and insightful contribution on the scope of transnationalism and cross border mobilisation this book is a valuable resource for researchers of politics nationalism and international migration Sociopolitical Conditions and Migrant Integration in Western Europe Michael Neureiter, 2025-01-02 This book brings new insight from social psychology to explore migrant integration in Western Europe Through a series of survey studies it illustrates the importance of sociopolitical conditions such as political polarization and discriminatory climates for understanding cross national variation in migrant integration outcomes The author investigates how migrants integrate what factors facilitate or hinder successful integration and how successes and failures along the way affect subsequent integration outcomes An inspiring read for researchers and students alike interested in migration studies political behaviour social psychology and international policy this book aims to promote more effective migrant integration policies within the European Union and elsewhere Aspirations and Challenges for Undocumented Student Success Enrique G. Murillo, Jr., Sharon Velarde Pierce, 2024-11-29 Aspirations and Challenges for Undocumented Student Success offers a comprehensive review of rigorous innovative and critical scholarship profiling the scope and terrain on undocumented student success Compiling the most significant work in the field in terms of its contributions to research and professional practice the volume opens with an exploration the aspirations of undocumented students and the fight for equity followed by an examination of the impact and influence of parents and families on educational outcomes Finally it concludes with testimonios reflecting on the educational experiences of undocumented students in America Each section presents readings in chronological order demonstrating the progression around undocumented student success in the field over the past 20 years in respect to the intentionality about integrating undocumented student success throughout equity initiatives breaking down institutional silos fostering welcoming campus environments and advocating for solutions that allow undocumented students to achieve economic mobility in both policy and practice This text is a must have resource for graduate students and researchers in Educational Leadership and Policy Multicultural Education and Teacher Education It will also be important reading for educational leaders teachers counselors administrators and organizations that share a common interest in and commitment to the educational issues that impact undocumented students and their families The Challenge of Minority Integration Peter A. Kraus, Peter Kivisto, 2015-12-14 How is solidarity achieved in highly diverse societies particularly those that have been until recently characterized by rather homogeneous populations What are the implications of growing levels of diversity on existing social arrangements These two fundamental questions are explored in this edited collection which examines the challenges of minority integration in four Nordic countries Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden These nations represent paradigmatic examples of social democratic welfare states that place a premium on a robust package of social rights combined with policies aimed at reducing levels of class based inequality and promoting gender equity All four of these nations have witnessed growing levels of diversity due to immigration and three of them have been forced to rethink their policies concerning the indigenous Sami as well as old minority groups Two introductory chapters by Thomas Hylland Eriksen and Peter Kivisto serve as a conceptual framework for the seven case studies that follow and which from a variety of perspectives and with differing emphases analyze the evolving realities in these nations today Taken together they offer evidence of the critical issues surrounding attempts to achieve solidarity while valorizing diversity The Oxford Handbook of the Politics of International Migration Marc R. Rosenblum, Daniel J. Tichenor, 2012-06-28 Twenty nine specialists offer their perspectives on migration from a wide variety of fields political science sociology economics and anthropology      Inclusion through Exclusion Anja Schmidt-Kleinert, 2018-11-08 How do young people from immigrant families become engaged in politics Anja Schmidt Kleinert examines the case of young Israelis who are actively engaged with the nationalist Yisra el Beitenu party led by the Israeli minister of defence Avigdor Lieberman She explores how the activists present Israeli citizenship in a way that is exclusionary to non Jewish citizens and analyses their strategy to actively construct a sense of belonging to Israeli society or more precisely to the Jewish collective by re producing the ethno nationalist discourse      The Sage Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies Yen Le Espiritu, 2025-09-01 Refugees and displacement are defining issues of the 21st century with over 70 million asylum seekers refugees and stateless individuals forced from their homes as of 2020 Every two seconds one person is forcibly displaced due to climate change global epidemics and ongoing conflicts The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies edited by members of The Critical Refugee Studies Collective serves as a vital and comprehensive resource for understanding the historical political and cultural dimensions of displacement Featuring over 250 authoritative articles this landmark reference work is organized into three key themes law politics and policy humanitarianism and humanitarian organizations and media culture and storytelling Drawing from disciplines such as migration studies Indigenous studies critical race studies environmental studies sociology political science law anthropology and the arts this encyclopedia critically examines refugee issues in relation to imperialism racism patriarchy and militarism Beyond academic analysis The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies centers refugee voices through narratives first person accounts and visual storytelling highlighting the lived experiences communities and creative expressions of displaced individuals This essential resource is invaluable for scholars educators policymakers community based organizations and refugees themselves      The Governance of International Migration Aysen E. Üstübcü Önay, 2025-10-01 As concern about immigration has grown within Europe in recent years the European Union has brought pressure to bear on countries that are allegedly not sufficiently governing irregular migration with and within their borders This book looks at that issue in Turkey and Morocco showing how it affects migrants in these territories and how migrant illegality has been produced by law practiced and negotiated by the state other civil society actors and by migrants themselves Aysen Üstübcü focuses on a number of different aspects of migrant illegality such as experiences of deportation participation in economic life and access to health care and education in order to reveal migrants strategies and the various ways they seek to legitimise their stay      Transnational Families, Migration and Gender Elisabetta Zontini, 2010-02-01 By linking the experiences of immigrant families with the increased reliance on cheap and flexible workers for care and domestic work in Southern Europe this study documents the lived experiences of neglected actors of globalization migrant women as well as the transformations of Western families more generally However while describing in detail the structural and cultural contexts within which these women have to operate the book questions dominant paradigms about women as passive victims of patriarchal structures and brings out instead their agency and the creative ways in which they take control of their lives in often difficult circumstances Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork and interviews the author offers a valuable dual comparison between two Southern European countries on the one hand and between two migrant groups one Christian and one Muslim on the other thus bringing to light unique detailed data on migration decision making settlement and on the multiple ways in which different women cope with the consequences of their transnational lives

Rethinking Migration and Return in Southeastern Europe Eda Gemi, Anna Triandafyllidou, 2021-05-27 This book provides an important new analytical framework for making sense of return remigration and circular mobility conceptualising them as different phases of a wider migration process Using an in depth case study of Albania and its two main destination countries Italy and Greece the book demonstrates that instead of being viewed as a linear path between origin and destination migration should be seen as a segmented or cyclical pattern that may involve several localities and more than two countries Characterised by important previous historical social economic and political linkages geographical proximity but also high migration volatility and sustained flows in either directions Albanian migration to Italy and Greece offers an optimal case study for analysing complex return reintegration and mobility processes While interesting as a unique regional migration system the lessons learned cast light on important migration and mobility dynamics that are relevant for labour migration in Europe also from other important migrant origin countries in the EU's neighbourhood such as for instance Morocco or the Ukraine This rich theoretical and empirical study will be of interest to researchers within European Studies and Migration Studies as well as providing a useful contribution to policy debates on how to govern return migration reintegration and circular migration The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429344343> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Making Refugees' Political Agency Visible Amelie Harbisch, 2025-01-21 This book centres refugees and asylum seekers as agents of global politics broadening our thinking about political agency beyond statism citizenship and organized political protest Arguing that to understand forced migration we must understand the construction of refugees as individual human subjects and how subconscious ideas about refugees influence daily practices and policies the author studies how refugees make meaning about themselves Forced migration is a key formative phenomenon of international politics but debates habitually discuss displacement only as an abstract number economic challenge or security issue This volume shifts attention to the individual human subjects as overlooked agents of international relations To this end the book rethinks individual subjects altogether and develops a comprehensive practice theoretical framework of subject construction Through extensive ethnographic data generated with refugees in Germany and Austria the author reveals how refugees are depoliticized and how they combat this using creativity humour and intercultural resources This volume highlights people's agency despite being subjected to powerful ideas and mechanisms It will appeal to scholars and students of International Relations Sociology Political Science and Migration Studies version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license. This book focuses on the political participation and grassroots mobilization of immigrants and racialized communities in the European context. Based on extensive data collected in Italy, it explores the role that alliances among pro-immigrant groups play in shaping political participation, asking why and how immigrant activists mobilize in hostile environments, why and how they create alliances with some white allies rather than others, and what might explain variations in forms of political participation and grassroots mobilization at the local level. Using social movement critical race and post-colonial theories, the author examines the ways in which both institutional and non-institutional actors, including immigrant activists, become involved and compete in the local arena over immigration and integration issues and assesses the mechanisms by which both conventional and non-conventional forms of participation are made possible or obstructed. By placing immigrant activists at the center of the analysis, the book offers a valuable and novel insider perspective on political activism and the claims-making of marginalized groups. It also demonstrates how pro-immigrant groups can play a role in racializing immigrant activists. A study of the effects on participation in social mobilization of coalitions, conflicts, and racialization processes among pro-immigrant groups and immigrant activists, this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology, political science, and political sociology with interests in migration, ethnic and racial relations, social movements, and local governance.

Au Pairs' Lives in Global Context R. Cox, 2014-11-27. Far from being the preserve of middle-class women from Northern Europe, au pairing is now booming worldwide. This collection, the first dedicated entirely to examining the lives of au pairs, traces their experiences across five continents, showing how this form of domestic labour and childcare is thriving in the twenty-first century.

Un-Settling Middle Eastern Refugees Marcia C. Inhorn, Lucia Volk, 2021-06-11. Since the Iraq war, the Middle East has been in continuous upheaval, resulting in the displacement of millions of people. Arriving from Afghanistan, Iraq, Palestine, and Syria, in other parts of the world, the refugees show remarkable resilience and creativity amidst profound adversity. Through careful ethnography, this book vividly illustrates how refugees navigate regimes of exclusion, including cumbersome bureaucracies, financial insecurities, medical challenges, vilifying stereotypes, and threats of violence. The collection bears witness to their struggles while also highlighting their aspirations for safety, settlement, and social inclusion in their host societies and new homes.
