All In My Head Lar Corbett, 2012-10-25 For Tipperary hurling defeat in the 2012 All Ireland semi final was heartbreaking For Lar Corbett it was devastating Then again it has never been a straight road for the three time All star and 2010 Player of the Year Deemed not good enough to play for Tipperary at minor level he was nineteen before his unique talent was identified by Nicky English who gave Lar his chance in the All Ireland winning squad of 2001 But this success was to be followed by years of despair as Tipperary hurling floundered managers came and went and a recurring hamstring condition left his career hanging in the balance The turning point came in 2007 with the arrival of the dream team of Liam Sheedy Eamon O Shea and Michael Ryan Encouraged to play more freely and to exploit his explosive pace Lar soon became one of the most lethal forwards in the game His three goal blitz against Kilkenny in the 2010 All Ireland final is the stuff of legend Following defeat in the 2011 All Ireland final Lar stepped away from the game in February 2012 but was ultimately persuaded to return for the championship Then came the disastrous semi final where tactical changes kept Lar largely out of the game and provoked unprecedented criticism from media and fans alike In All In My Head Lar offers a unique insight into what happened on that day and over the turbulent year leading up to it This honest and revealing autobiography is a must read for all fans of the sport of hurling confront us in the production of an adequate quantity of goods but also to solve the problems which have grown out of past injustices on the part of both leadership and labor It is pretty well conceded even by the most slow minded employer that the question of production cannot be settled until the question of the producer is settled The principal and controlling factor in all our difficulties is the human element Indeed all our difficulties of whatever nature are human difficulties they are the signs of humanity in trouble The American Way is constructive It grows out of ideas not out of violence It works by education not by disintegration Nothing permanent is accomplished by forces pulling apart because in this country everything that is accomplished comes by various opinions pulling together toward a desired end There is no difference of opinion in this country as to what we desire our common life to be All agree on the desired object The difference comes in the methods of attaining it But even this difference is educational Radical and conservative interest upon each other modify each other until presently they come together for united achievement That is the American Way and the results of it stand Henry Ford
