New Museum Theory And Practice An Introduction:

New Museum Theory and Practice Janet Marstine, 2008-04-15 New Museum Theory and Practice is an original collection of essays with a unique focus on the contested politics and ideologies of museum exhibition. Contains 12 original essays that contribute to the field while creating a collective whole for course use. Discusses theory through vivid examples and historical overviews. Offers guidance on how to put theory into practice. Covers a range of museums around the world from art to history, anthropology to music, as well as historic houses, cultural centres, virtual sites and commercial displays that use the conventions of the museum. Authors come from the UK, Canada, the US and Australia and from a variety of fields that inform cultural studies.

New Museum Theory and Practice Janet Marstine, 2006

The Local Museum in the Global Village Insa Müller, 2020-10-06 In remote areas of Europe, local history museums struggle to connect with the rapidly changing and increasingly diverse communities around them. Insa Müller asks how these museums can recast themselves to strengthen the links to their communities. Combining theoretical deliberations, empirical investigations of the case of two Norwegian islands and a museum experiment, she offers starting points for rethinking the local history museum while at the same time providing suggestions for locally adapted museum practice.

Museum Practice Conal McCarthy, 2020-11-19

MUSEUM PRACTICE Edited by CONAL MCCARTHY. Museum Practice covers the professional work carried out in museums and art galleries of all types, including the core functions of management, collections, exhibitions and programs. Some forms of museum practice are familiar to visitors, yet within these diverse and complex institutions, many practices are hidden from view, such as creating marketing campaigns, curating and designing exhibitions, developing fundraising and sponsorship plans, crafting mission statements, handling repatriation claims, dealing with digital media and more. Focused on what actually occurs in everyday museum work, this volume offers contributions from experienced professionals and academics that cover a wide range of subjects, including policy frameworks, ethical guidelines, approaches to conservation, collection care and management, exhibition development and public programs. From internal processes such as leadership, governance and strategic planning to public-facing roles in interpretation, visitor research and community engagement, each essential component of contemporary museum practice is thoroughly discussed.

Keeping Their Marbles Tiffany Jenkins, 2018 The story of how the museums of the West acquired their fabulous collections, from the Benin Bronzes to Native American sacred objects, and why they should not be returned to the lands or the people from which they came.

Museum Theory Andrea Witcomb, Kylie Message, 2020-11-17

MUSEUM THEORY Edited by ANDREA WITCOMB AND KYLIE MESSAGE. Museum Theory offers critical perspectives drawn from a broad range of disciplinary and intellectual traditions. This volume describes and challenges previous ways of understanding museums and their relationship to society. Essays written by scholars from museology and other disciplines address theoretical reflexivity in the museum, exploring the contextual, theoretical and pragmatic ways museums work are understood and are experienced. Organized around three themes Thinking about Museums Disciplines and Politics and Theory from Practice Practicing Theory the text includes discussion and analysis of different kinds of museums from various primarily contemporary national and local contexts Essays consider subjects including the nature of museums as institutions and their role in the public sphere cutting edge museum practice and their connections with current global concerns and the links between museum studies and disciplines such as cultural studies anthropology and history

Heritage Tourism Hyung Yu Park, 2013-11-20 Heritage tourism has become an increasingly significant component of the global tourism industry particularly in countries striving to diversify away from sea sand and sun This growth has had profound influences on the presentation and representation of both tangible and intangible heritage within tourism context The concept of heritage continues to evolve with its fast changing political economic and socio cultural surroundings Therefore it is essential that heritage tourism engages with the new form of globalised communities and societies which have become more assimilated to each other but yet strive to sustain their own distinctive locality This book aims to offer a thorough critical examination and systematic evaluation of the unique dynamics of heritage and tourism development from both social sciences and management perspectives It incorporates both global and local perspectives in theorising and managing heritage tourism While focusing on reviewing and analysing key academic concepts and debates including authenticity commodification globalisation and heritage interpretation this book also discusses and evaluates topical issues such as sustainable development marketing strategies and digital technologies including social media It theoretically locates heritage discourses in the analysis of heritage tourism development and management drawing on various perspectives from tourism heritage studies sociology anthropology politics and geography to management and marketing studies Including case studies of topical concerns controversies and challenges it will encourage readers to develop a new and insightful understanding of the dialectical relationship between heritage and tourism development This book is essential reading for students studying tourism heritage studies cultural studies as well as related disciplines museum studies is a stable field of academic inquiry based on a set of familiar institutional forms and functions But as institutions museums have never been stable or singular and neither has the discipline of museum studies Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation

Researching Memory and Identity in Russia and Eastern Europe Jade McGlynn, Oliver T. Jones, 2022-10-06 This book offers a collection of innovative methodological approaches to Memory Studies in Russia and Eastern Europe Providing insights into the relationship between memory and identity the twelve chapters provide multidisciplinary analysis of how history is used to reinforce remould and reinvent national and group identities This analysis includes a strong emphasis on interrogating the role of the researcher and the impact of methodology exploring the field's most pressing challenges such as the subjectivity of remembrance reception versus production of discourse and the inclusion of marginal perspectives By focussing on countries in which the past is highly politicised including Serbia Ukraine Poland Russia and the Baltic States the volume also analyses the diverse and often conflicting ways in which historical narratives emerge from these states efforts to create new pasts that shape their respective visions of the future with pressing ramifications across this region and beyond

Museums in the New Mediascape Jenny Kidd, 2016-04-22 The museum today faces complex questions of definition representation ethics aspiration and economic survival Alongside this we see burgeoning use of an array of new media including increasingly dynamic web portals and content digital archives social networks blogs and online games At the heart of this are changes to the idea of visitor and audience and their participation and representation in the new cultural sphere This insightful book unpacks a number of contradictions that help to frame and articulate digital media work in the museum and questions what constitutes authentic participation Based on original empirical research and a range of case studies the author explores questions about the museum as media from a number of different disciplines and shows that across museums and the study of them the cultural logic is changing

Rethinking Research in the Art Museum Emily Pringle, 2019-07-16 Rethinking Research in the Art Museum presents an original and radical perspective on how research can function as an agent of change in art museums today The book analyses a range of art organisations and draws on numerous interviews with museum professionals to outline the limitations of existing models of museum research Arguing for a more democratic formulation in tune with the current needs and ambitions of the art institution Emily Pringle puts forward a framework for practitioner led co produced research that redefines how knowledge is created in the museum Recognising that museums today negotiate multiple agendas the book outlines the value of constructing the art museum professional as a practitioner researcher and their work as a mode of practice based research be they educators archivists curators or conservators Locating these arguments within the framework of new museology critical pedagogy professional and organisational studies and epistemology the book offers insights and guidance for those interested in how art museums function and the role research plays within these complex institutions Rethinking Research in the Art Museum provides a timely and important resource for museum professionals and scholars students artists and community members It should be of particular interest to those invested in exploring how art museums can continue to make the most of their unique resources whilst becoming more collaborative inclusive and relevant to the twenty first century

Museums as Assemblage Jasmin Pfefferkorn, 2023-07-31 Museums as Assemblage offers a new way of thinking about the dynamism of art museums Using the concept of assemblage this book unpacks relations between visitors artists museum staff and the museum's nonhuman components providing an analytical framework that celebrates the complexity of museums today It takes the Museum of Old and New Art Mona in Tasmania as its primary case study but situates it in global trends by drawing on a range of examples from art museums across Australia New Zealand Europe and East Asia It provides insight into how perceptions around engagement are enabled and constrained in the context of different museums and highlights the necessity of an analytical framework that accommodates the complexity and multiplicity of the contemporary museum landscape With an emphasis on visitor experience and curatorial strategy the book is valuable for students and researchers in museum studies art history curatorial studies and cultural studies The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Media and Communication Kirsten Drotner, Vince Dziekan, Ross Parry, Kim Christian Schröder, 2018-12-07 Museums today find themselves within a mediatised society where everyday life is conducted in a data full and technology rich context In fact museums are themselves mediatised they present a uniquely media centred environment in which communicative media is a constitutive property of their organisation and of the visitor experience The Routledge Handbook of Museums Media and Communication explores what it means to take mediated communication as a key concept for museum studies and as a sensitising lens for media related museum practice on the ground Including contributions from experts around the world this original and innovative Handbook shares a nuanced and precise understanding of media media concepts and media terminology rehearsing new locations for writing on museum media and giving voice to new subject alignments As a whole the volume breaks new ground by reframing mediated museum communication as a resource for an inclusive understanding of current museum developments The Routledge Handbook of Museums Media and Communication will appeal to both students and scholars as well as to practitioners involved in the visioning design and delivery of mediated communication in the museum It teaches us not just how to study museums but how to go about being a museum in today's world The book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative
