New Testament And Mission Historical And Hermeneutical Perspectives:

New Testament and Mission Johannes Nissen, 2002 Frankfurt M Berlin Bern Bruxelles New York Oxford Wien This book brings together insights from two fields of study biblical scholarship and missiology The Great Commission in Matthew's Gospel is often seen as the biblical foundation for mission The New Testament however reflects a variety of models for mission Each model is examined with regard to historical meaning as well as hermeneutical significance The final chapter focuses on three issues of great importance for the present situation unity and diversity in mission the gospel in relation to cultures and Bible and dialogue models Contents Mission as disciple making Matthew Crossing boundaries Mark The liberating ministry of Jesus Luke Mission and incarnation John Constrained by the love of God Paul Proclamation and confrontation Col and Ephes Hope and Mission 1 Peter and Rev Mission cultures and dialogue Missiological

Hermeneutics Shawn B. Redford, 2012-10-18 The first is a historical case considering the missional and theological hermeneutics employed when addressing African polygamy For the most part authors addressing polygamy have failed to consider God's missional response to polygamists in order to buttress their own convictions regarding African polygamy As such authors have not typically utilized a missional hermeneutic when trying to address polygamy Instead they have based their arguments on the false assumption that a given theological stance is the starting point for addressing the practice The second case study considers the role of mission praxis in an Islamic context related to missiological hermeneutics The case study demonstrates the impact of modern day mission practice especially when it correlates closely with the missionary dynamics in a given portion of Scripture The Gospel of John and the Religious Quest Johannes Nissen, 2013-09-24 The Gospel of John and the Religious Quest argues that at its origin the Fourth Gospel was part of a dialogue with various religious traditions and that to this day it is being used in active dialogue with those who live in traditions other than the Christian In the first part of the book Johannes Nissen analyzes a number of texts selected both for their central importance to John's theology and for their special relevance in today's religious quests and encounters These texts focus on John's images of Life water bread light way and tree but also treat concepts that are crucial to the Fourth Gospel Word Truth and Love In the second part Nissen focuses on significant issues for current readers of the Gospel the relation between incarnation and inculturation models for dialogue with other religions images of Christ truth and love as criteria for dialogue and the experience of faith in the light of the Fourth Gospel Paul's Understanding of the Church's Mission Robert L.

Plummer, 2006-06-01 Did Paul expect his churches to engage in evangelistic activity which mirrored his own Or have modern readers of the Bible wrongly projected Paul's apostolic passion upon the communities that he founded Such is the charge of several recent authors and if their thesis is correct nothing could have larger implications for how the modern church engages in mission In this book Robert L Plummer engages in a careful study of Paul's letters to determine if the apostle expected the communities to which he wrote to engage in outward directed missionary activity Plummer helpfully summarizes the discussion to date on the debated issue judiciously handles contested texts and provides a way forward in addressing this critical question While admitting that Paul rarely explicitly commands the communities he founded to evangelize Plummer amasses significant incidental data to provide a convincing case that Paul did indeed expect his churches to engage in outward directed missionary activity Throughout the study Plummer progressively builds a theological basis for the church's mission that is both compelling and distinctively Pauline

A Biblical Approach to Mission in Context Michael Ufok Udoekpo, 2022-12-19 A Biblical Approach to Mission in Context is an erudite collection of twenty essays with forewords and epilogue produced to honor Professor Teresa Okure's contribution to the study of biblical theology in context It also stands in its own right as a vade mecum of current trends in biblical scholarship gender and contextual hermeneutics Written by an international array of respected scholars Okure's colleagues former students siblings and fellow commentators this volume includes detailed exegetical studies discussion on theological methods and contextual approaches from a variety of standpoints and an effort to relate biblical exegesis theology and inculturation faith hermeneutics to the current interest in social contextual interpretation that reflects values beyond the African context In sum the breadth of interests and enthusiasm found in this volume is a testimony to the intellectual and pastoral vitalities and passion that Teresa Okure herself brought to the discipline of biblical studies The brief narrative of personal encounter written by Bernadette Okure SHCJ forewords by John Cardinal Onaiyekan and Bishop Camillus Raymond Umoh as well as an insightful epilogue by Fr Aniedi Okure OP provide additional insight into the historical and socio cultural contexts within which Okure's formation and contributions unfolded

Christian Mission Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2010-09-01 How did a first generation Jewish messianic movement develop the momentum to become a dominant religious force in the Western world The essays here first investigate the roots of God's mission and the mission of his people in the Old Testament and Second Temple Judaism specifically in the Psalms Isaiah and Daniel The contributions then discuss the mission of Jesus and how it continued into the mission of the Twelve other Jewish believers in the Gospels General Epistles and Revelation and finally into Paul's ministry to the Gentiles documented in the book of Acts and his epistles These essays reach backward into the background of what was to become the Christian mission and forward through the New Testament to the continuing Christian mission and missions today

Theology and Literature: Rethinking Reader Responsibility G. Ortiz, C. Joseph, 2006-05-12 By examining theological and literary narratives through an engagement with well known theorists of reading and religion this collection of essays international in perspective brings together varied refreshing and provocative responses to well established literary and critical theories

Paul and the Mission of the Church James P. Ware, 2011-07-01 Did Paul urge Christians to engage in mission What would that have meant in his setting What should the church be doing now This essential study examines Paul's letter to the Philippians in its ancient Jewish context making a convincing case that Paul expected churches to continue the work of spreading the gospel Published in hardcover by Brill it is now available as an affordable paperback      Transcending Mission Michael W. Stroope, 2017-02-28 Is the language of mission clearly evident across the broad reaches of time Or has the modern missionary enterprise distorted our view of the past Michael Stroope investigates how the modern church has come to understand speak of and engage in the global expansion of Christianity offering a hopeful way forward in this pressing conversation      The Real Church Harald Hegstad, 2013-06-27 What does it mean to believe in the church What is the relationship between the church we believe in and the church we experience Is there an invisible church that is different from the visible This book is an argument for an ecclesiology of the visible The only church the real church is a concrete reality made up of people just like any other fellowship What distinguishes it as church is the presence of the triune God among those who gather in the name of Jesus making it a sign and anticipation of the fellowship of the kingdom of God From this premise Dr Hegstad analyzes such issues as the relationship between church and world mission and diakoni church as fellowship and organization ministries in the church worship and the unity of the church as well as discussing the relationship between a sociological and a theological understanding of the church      Pursuing Excellence for the Glory of God Keith A. Currivean, 2022-01-13 What is education How and why do educators do what we do And in what way can and ought education be distinctively Christian These are a few of the probing questions for which this book seeks answers Among other contributions Currivean's book explores a biblical philosophy of Christian education with unprecedented breadth and depth To accomplish this objective it considers what education is chapter 1 what philosophy of education is chapter 2 and what the ultimate goal of education is chapter 3 Additionally this book provides a never before Christian overview of twelve philosophies of education chapters 4-15 Each of those chapters provides an introduction of a particular philosophy of education and some of that philosophy's exemplars Each of those chapters also contributes a constructive Christian critique Chapter 16 highlights a biblical philosophy of Christian education featuring some people some principles and some priorities for a biblical philosophy of Christian education viz pursuing excellence for the glory of God      The Mentoring Church Phil A. Newton, 2020-01-06 Ministry Book of the Year The Gospel Coalition 2017 Book Awards The critical missing element in Christian mentoring today the congregation Bringing up future leaders isn't just the job of the pastor but of the whole congregation This is an urgently needed book in churches today R Albert Mohler Jr president of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Young emerging leaders of the church many of whom have gone through leadership training and traditional mentorship programs still too often find themselves unprepared for the realities of ministry Many leave the ministry altogether overwhelmed Phil Newton reveals a critical gap single source mentorship is incomplete Mentoring must involve the congregation not just senior pastors in order to bring forth mature resilient leaders prepared for all that ministry entails The solid practical solutions in The Mentoring Church offer churches of any size both the vision for mentoring future leaders and a workable template to follow With insightful consideration of theological historical and contemporary training models for pastor church partnerships

Newton is a reliable guide to developing a church culture that equips fully prepared leaders

God and the Human Environment Osunkwo Jude Thaddeus Ikenna, 2015-07-02 God and the Human Environment Catholic Principles of Environmental Stewardship as a Template for Action in Nigeria brings into conversation the Church's theological reflection on the mandate to care for God's creation and the circumstances of the environment in Nigeria. In vivid terms and with systemic thinking Fr. Jude Osunkwo, a theologian who specializes in Environmental Studies and Pastoral Catechesis, explores the biblical theological magisterial and doctrinal bases that underlie a faithful response to contemporary environmental challenges. After setting the stage with a summation of the issues and a survey of significant ecclesiastical statements on the topic of the environment, God and the Human Environment addresses Catholic theological principles of stewardship, Christian responsibility, and the ethics of development. Then the discussion turns to the environment of Nigeria, assessing its current state and reviewing the causes and consequences of environmental challenges before proposing pastoral responses for the Church. Finally, some chapters address likely developments in Nigeria and the Church. An extensive bibliography and several appendices provide additional support. God and the Human Environment is a rigorously researched and passionately presented exploration of the issues growing out of the environmental circumstances Nigerians currently face. Whether you live in Nigeria or count yourself as a member of the Catholic Church and live somewhere else, God and the Human Environment explores a topic that promises to make a difference in your life and to protect the part of the environment that God has created for you to tend.

Mission as Integrated Witness Jae-Suk Lee, 2021-05-25 This study aims to read Jesus's foot washing narrative missionally. John 13:1-38. A missional reading is identical to a missional hermeneutics based on the literary theological interpretation of the text. John uses sending language and formulae and the frame of "as so" throughout the whole Gospel, which clarifies Jesus's and his disciples' mission as integrated witness. In this literary context, the foot washing narrative signifies the integrated witness of Jesus and the disciples. The narrative consists of two parts: one, Jesus's symbolic action for his death, and the other, for its interpretation for the disciple community. Jesus's death as his unique mission results in purifying both his disciples and the world so that they might dwell in the holy union with the triune God. The disciples are sent into the world. Just as Jesus did so, must they proclaim Jesus and his teachings. Also, they should bear witness to him by living Jesus's life pattern of self-giving sacrificial love and humble service. Their verbal proclamation as evangelism and life witness cannot be separated to testify to Jesus and their identity. Finally, today's Christians, specifically Evangelicals, are invited to participate in the Johannine mission as the integrated witness of evangelism and life witness.

Paul and his Theology Stanley E. Porter, 2006-11-01 Does Paul have a theology? If so, what is it, or rather, what is it on various topics that he and the early Church confronted? This volume moves beyond the traditional discussion of whether Paul had a center to his theology to raise questions regarding his perspective on a number of important theological issues. These issues include his gentile mission, the concepts of faith, grace, and the law, reconciliation, the temple, eschatology, miracles, gender, and Paul's trinitarian tendencies This collection of essays addresses topics of current interest in the study of Paul's theology not to arrive at the center of his thought but to understand what factors helped to center his thinking on a variety of important theological concerns Romans and the Mission of God Mark J. Keown, 2021-12-23 Romans is a missional document Yet strangely while many recognize the missional aspects of Romans few monographs are totally devoted to unpacking Romans from a missional perspective Romans and the Mission of God does this very thing Part one explores the background of the letter with an eye to positioning Romans in the story of the mission of God the apostle the Roman world and the early church Part two considers how Romans is a contextually shaped presentation of the gospel A range of other aspects of the way in which Paul shapes his message for the Romans are explored including salvation history metaphors and rhetorical techniques and aspects of the letter including elements opposed to God salvation ideas human response ethics and Christian living and the eschaton Part three delves into issues that arise in Romans that are important for contemporary mission These include such things as the cosmic scope of the mission the gospel as the power of salvation who does evangelism the miraculous social justice ecology social transformation generosity and hospitality God's sovereignty and human volition prayer the State culture Israel apologetics and theological thinking This is a must read for those serious about Paul Romans and God's mission

Living to the Praise of God's Glory Mark A. Simon, 2021-05-24 The letter to the Ephesians is missional to its core It effectively exhorts its readers to understand support and participate in God's mission to rescue humanity and all creation from the damage and distortion of sin and so bring about a renewed creation filled with God's glorious fullness Working at the creative intersection of biblical studies and missiology this study adopts a missional hermeneutic to overcome the scholarly neglect of mission in Ephesians The book systematically explores each passage in Ephesians delving into the characterization of God and his mission allusions to Old Testament missional texts in Ephesians and the portrayal of the apostle Paul and believers as participants in God's mission A multi-faceted vision of mission emerges which encompasses God's actions in salvation history the church as mediator of God's glory reconciliation and grace to the nations prayer ethical witness and verbal proclamation of the gospel Reading Ephesians through this missional lens yields fresh insights into its purpose and context and the richness of its portrait of mission Theology and the Religions Viggo Mortensen, 2003 The academic study of religion is undergoing great changes in response to globalization Just as sociologists now find it necessary to think in terms of multiculturalism so religion scholars and theologians today must work in the context of multireligiosity Globalization is leading not only to multiethnic societies but also to plurality in religions and worldviews Theology and the Religions A Dialogue offers the first sustained analysis of the trend toward multireligiosity and its implications for the study of religion Drawing on the resources of cultural analysis religious studies and theology an international slate of scholars explores the relation of multiculturalism and multireligiosity the need for interreligious dialogue and the possibilities for a theology of religions This groundbreaking work is supported by case studies of various religious traditions in diverse cultures from around the world Special attention is paid to Christian theological reflection however since as a global religion Christianity is particularly challenged by multireligiosity Offering an engaging wide angle view of religion worldwide Theology and the Religions makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the forces shaping the future of religious and social life Contributors Kajsa Ahlstrand Theodor Ahrens Jan Martin Berentsen Ulrich Dehn Helene Egnell Marianne C Qvortrup Fibiger Patrik Friedlund Virginia Garrard Burnett Geomon K George Elisabeth Gerle Friedrich Wilhelm Graf Hans Hauge Ulf Hedetoft S Mark Heim Chris Hewer Klaus Hock Michael Ipgrave Andrew J Kirk Lene K hle Volker K ster Aasulv Lande Oddbjorn Leirvik Ole Skjerb k Madsen Hiromasa Mase Mogens S Mogensen Viggo Mortensen Johannes Nissen Klaus N rnberger Caleb Oladipo Tinu Ruparell Risto Saarinen Lamin Sanneh Olaf Schumann Notto R Thelle Joachim Track V tor Westhelle H S Wilson

A Light to the Nations Michael W. Goheen, 2011-04-01 There is a growing body of literature about the missional church but the word missional is often defined in competing ways with little attempt to ground it deeply in Scripture Michael Goheen a dynamic speaker and the coauthor of two popular texts on the biblical narrative unpacks the missional identity of the church by tracing the role God s people are called to play in the biblical story Goheen shows that the church s identity can be understood only when its role is articulated in the context of the whole biblical story not just the New Testament but the Old Testament as well He also explores practical outworkings and implications offering field tested suggestions for contemporary churches

The Mission of the Church: In Paul's Letter to the Philippians in the Context of Ancient Judaism J. Patrick Ware, 2005 Illumining the Jewish context of early Christian mission this study through close exegesis of Paul s letter to the Philippians reveals the crucial place of the mission of the church in Paul s thought
