Modern American Poetry and the Architectural Imagination Jo Gill, 2023 Modern American Poetry and the Architectural Imagination: The Harmony of Forms assesses the relationship between architectural and poetic innovation in the United States across the twentieth century Taking the work of five key poets as case studies and drawing on the work of a rich range of other writers architects artists and commentators this study proposes that by examining the sustained and productive if hitherto overlooked engagement between the two disciplines we enrich our understanding of the complexity and interrelationship of both The book begins by tracing the rise of what was conceived of as modern and often international style architecture and by showing how poetry and architecture in the early decades of the century developed in dialogue and within a shared and often transnational context It then moves on to examine the material aesthetic and social conditions that helped shape both disciplines offering new readings of familiar poems and bringing other pertinent resources to light It considers the uses to which poets of the period put the insights of architecture and vice versa In closing Gill turns to modern and contemporary architects written accounts of their own practice in memoirs and other commentaries and examines how they have assimilated or resisted the practice and vision of poetry

McNamara, 2021-08-05 The city's Americanness has been disputed throughout US history Pronounced dead in the late twentieth century cities have enjoyed a renaissance in the twenty-first Engaging the history of urban promise and struggle as represented in literature film and visual arts and drawing on work in the social sciences The City in American Literature and Culture examines the large and local forces that shape urban space and city life and the street-level activity that remakes culture and identities as it contests injustice and separation The first two sections examine a range of city spaces and lives the final section brings the city into conversation with Marxist geography critical race studies trauma theory slow systemic violence security theory posthumanism and critical regionalism with a coda on city literature and democracy Comics and Modernism Jonathan Najarian, 2024-01-18 Contributions by David M Ball Scott Bukatman

Hillary Chute Jean Lee Cole Louise Kane Matthew Levay Andrei Molotiu Jonathan Najarian Katherine Roeder Noa Saunders Clémentine Sfadj Nick Sturm Glenn Willmott and Daniel Worden Since the early 1990s cartoonist Art Spiegelman has made the case that comics are the natural inheritor of the aesthetic tradition associated with the modernist movement of the early twentieth century In recent years scholars have begun to place greater import on the shared historical circumstances of early comics and literary and artistic modernism Comics and Modernism History Form and Culture is an interdisciplinary consideration of myriad social cultural and aesthetic connections Filling a gap in current scholarship an impressively diverse group of scholars approaches the topic from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds and methodologies Drawing on work in literary studies art history film studies philosophy and material culture studies contributors attend to the dynamic relationship between avant-garde art literature and comics Essays by both established and emerging voices examine topics as divergent as early twentieth-century film museum exhibitions newspaper journalism magazine illustration and transnational literary circulation In presenting varied critical approaches this book highlights important interpretive questions for the field Contributors sometimes arrive at thoughtful consensus and at other times settle on productive

disagreements Ultimately this collection aims to extend traditional lines of inquiry in both comics studies and modernist studies and to reveal overlaps between ostensibly disparate artistic practices and movements

A Day Like Any Other Nathan Kernan, 2025-08-05 The long awaited biography of the mercurial troubled brilliant poet James Schuyler the Pulitzer Prize winner who helped shape the New York School of poetry in the 1960s Nathan Kernan's A Day Like Any Other The Life of James Schuyler is the definitive biography of the great American poet who along with Frank O Hara Barbara Guest John Ashbery and Kenneth Koch was an original member of the so called New York School of poetry Opening with Schuyler's legendary first public reading in 1988 Kernan goes back to trace the tumultuous arc of the poet's life and work Born in Chicago in 1923 James Schuyler grew up in Washington DC and upstate New York before moving to New York City in 1944 where he fell into the social orbit of the poet W H Auden After two years in Italy he returned to New York in 1949 and began to publish his first poems There he met fellow poets O Hara Ashbery Guest and Koch For many years he lived outside the city in Southampton Long Island in a close relationship with the painter Fairfield Porter and his family and spent his summers in Maine Schuyler's subsequent years in New York City were marked by poverty and mental illness yet it was during this time that he wrote some of his greatest poems After his move to the Chelsea Hotel in 1979 the poet's circumstances began to turn around and when he died much too soon at sixty seven his life was stable and fulfilled In praise of Schuyler s poetry John Ashbery wrote To reread him is to live as though life were an experience one had just forgotten and been newly awakened to Schuyler s work embodies the quiet beauties of the natural world and the mundane stuff of everyday existence even as his own life was often messy and troubled A Day Like Any Other Kernan s absorbing biographical study explores this and other paradoxes of Schuyler s singular life within the vibrant milieu of mid century New York s poets and painters Die New York Poets und die Bildende Kunst Barbara Honrath,1994 Imagine! ,2007 Artists and Poets of the New York School ,2011 The Writers Directory ,1990 A Poem for Record Keepers Ali Power,2016 Poetry Ali Power s A POEM FOR RECORD KEEPERS is a long poem made of short poems that comes on like a deadpan phalanx system unlearning itself while crashing resignation into the boards and pulling the rug out from under certainty line by line But certainty is not simply replaced by uncertainty an angular witty openness accumulates across Power s poem making it excellent company That openness also lends itself to the poem s capacity to build the kind of necessarily enigmatic space love requires to fend off the grinding mob vacuum that is contemporary American life these days Anselm Berrigan You could compare the way A POEM FOR RECORD KEEPERS works to the ways other things work locked groove records Lorine Niedecker s calendar poems waves but never for too long As much as Ali Power s poetry delights in forward motion and real speaking it also teaches you how to remain still and listen This is an ingenious biting elegant book To enter it is to feel squeezed by time and even if you want to as I did by hope Everything is just beginning It is and it does Then everything begins again right here Mark Bibbins The poet as one who maintains a history of one s activities The poem as record as in ledger one entry per every other line record as something we replay when it s a favorite These lines now live in my head They are strange enough to keep me on my toes familiar enough to seem like they are talking about me and everyone I know In fact I do want to hang out with this new book and its author Stacy Szymaszek
