McGuire,2016-10-07 If natural law arguments struggle to gain traction in contemporary moral and political discourse could it be because we moderns do not share the understanding of nature on which that language was developed Building on the work of important thinkers of the last half century including Leo Strauss Eric Voegelin John Finnis and Bernard Lonergan the essays in Concepts of Nature compare and contrast classical medieval and modern conceptions of nature in order to better understand how and why the concept of nature no longer seems to provide a limit or standard for human action These essays also evaluate whether a rearticulation of pre modern ideas or perhaps a reconciliation or reconstitution on modern terms is desirable and or possible Edited by R J Snell and Steven F McGuire this book will be of interest to intellectual historians political theorists theologians and philosophers

The World and the Word: Making Sense of Social Science in an Age of Conflict, Opposition, and Grace Dr. Herbert L. Green Jr.,2017-08-24 Jesus very presence as the New Testament age unfolded 1st century A D engendered opposition created conflict while ushering in grace His ideas were considered radical Why is this so The NIV Archeological Study Bible 2005 NIV Student Bible et al and corroborating Extra Biblical evidence provide a context for the Word view about Jesus in Biblical history and supports aspects of the social and physical sciences in terms of cultural socio economic political historical archeological and philosophical apologetics evidence As the pages of this book unfold there is an internal consistency with social science and The Bible However where such consistency appeared to diverge this author attempts to filter out the noise by applying critical thinking criteria to a Worldview that may not be consistent with the Word view The goal of this book therefore is to provide some exposition Greek apologetics of the Word and see how the World fits Born again Christians can be credible scientists and not compromise Gods Word After thoughtful reading please send reflective comments to Dr Herb Green Jr at docgreen48 outlook com
