Nice Book Sacraments Historical Foundations Liturgical Theology:

The Sacraments Kevin W. Irwin, 2016 Considers the history and theology of the sacraments in their intimate relationship to the liturgy

Context and Text Kevin W. Irwin, 2018-07-12 One of the most influential works in the debate over the concept and definitions of liturgical theology Context and Text by Monsignor Kevin W Irwin is now available in a completely rewritten new edition In light of the historical theological and pastoral mandates of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy Context and Text is both a proposal for and an example of an investigation of the Church's liturgical praxis from a liturgical theological perspective This second edition which includes an expanded introduction covers new liturgical and ecclesial contexts resulting from newly promulgated liturgies further research in method for liturgical studies consideration for changes in the cultural contexts in which people celebrate the liturgy Besides brand new chapters on time and sacramentality and additions to the chapter on the arts this edition also considers the ongoing texts and contexts of the liturgy as always a new event in the life and ongoing discussion of liturgical theology within Christianity

Ecology, Liturgy, and the Sacraments Irwin, Kevin W., 2023 This book is based on the principle that the liturgy is the enactment of the work of our redemption through the raising up acknowledging and revering elements of the cosmos the earth and our fellow creatures in our common home It is inspired by Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si' On Care for Our Common Home in its entirety not just the sections on the Eucharist and liturgy because it presents a world view and requires respecting and caring for all creatures who share this planet It is illuminated by research into the history of sacramental theologies and the contemporary context of concern for the environment In effect there is no such thing as one Roman Catholic theology of the sacraments and more often than not differing contexts in the life of the church and the world required differing contents for sacramental theology The author argues that concern for the environment is a traditional Catholic premise based on the goodness of creation and that God is creator of heaven and earth He also argues that an ecological approach to sacramental theology can help to understand underlying factors and principles in the enactment of the liturgy of the sacraments about how and where God is discovered in the world in general and in the liturgy and sacraments in an intense and focused way through engagement with all who dwell in our common home

Models of the Eucharist, Second Edition Irwin, Kevin W., 2020 In this book updated with the texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal Kevin Irwin reflects on the jewel in the crown of Catholicism the celebration of the Eucharist His book theological pastoral and contemporary is essentially concerned with issues about the Eucharist that face us today decades after the truly historic and unprecedented revisions that took after the Second Vatican Council Some of these concerns are the result of unforeseen developments about the Eucharist resulting from other factors for example the decline in numbers of clergy which has led in some places to Sunday celebrations without the Mass Other concerns arise from a lack of proper catechesis about the Mass and a keen desire to understand why and how the Eucharist is at the center of Catholic life In addition to being expressly theological this book is also expressly pastoral in that it is a reflection on the life lived by the church as it enacts the Eucharist and seeks to live out what the Eucharist celebrates The book is aimed at the audience of educated Catholics who seek a deeper appreciation of what the Eucharist is and who want to appropriate that understanding in the way they live their lives This book will be of particular interest to pastoral ministers both those present and those in training and the communities of faith whom they serve Guide for Celebrating the Pastoral Care of the Sick J. Philip Horrigan, 2019 A thorough and pastoral walk through

Pastoral Care of the Sick Rites of Anointing and Viaticum Sacramental Presence Ruthanna B. Hooke, 2023-05-22 Drawing on performance studies and sacramental and liturgical theology Ruthanna B Hooke develops a theology of proclamation grounded in the body's experience of preaching The author explores the claim that preaching is a sacramental event of communion with the triune God by comparing the steps involved in voice production with the fourfold shape of the Eucharist This comparison yields a description of preaching as an event of self offering that allows space for the humanity of the preacher and as an encounter with the Holy Spirit that is communal and prophetic Preaching draws participants into Christ's dying and rising and hence into a mode of power known in vulnerability Calling hearers into the eschatological event of the resurrection preaching inherently moves toward proclamation on political and ethical issues Hooke uses this theological framework to offer ways of preaching on environmental crisis and on racism The author calls preachers to embodied engagement with preaching and describes a way for preachers to bear witness to Jesus Christ not only in the content of their proclamation but in their way of being in the preaching event Liturgical Theology as a Research Program Joris Geldhof, 2020-06-02 This essay is centered around five questions i What is the proper place of liturgical theology ii Which evolutions have there been in the past and which current tendencies are there in the field of liturgical theology iii Which contents must liturgical theologians focus on iv How can liturgical theologians engage in research And v How can liturgical theology appropriately respond to what happens in Church and society Each question corresponds with one part The rationale behind ordering the content of this essay in this way is the following starting from a reflection about the non evident place of liturgical theology an attempt is made to give it a fitting profile again on the basis of its genealogy in the Liturgical Movement Correspondingly liturgical theology can be considered a full fledged research program which does not simply deal with Christian rituals festivals and sacraments but with the core of Christian faith Pastoral Foundations of the Sacraments Gregory L. Klein, Robert A. Wolfe, 1998 A logical presentation of the sacraments as the principle acts of worship in the Catholic church Synthesizes contemporary research on symbol ritual and sacramental liturgical and pastoral theology into a single readable resource Each chapter ends with questions for reflection and discussion Christian Healing , In Counterpoint Kristine Suna-Koro, 2017-05-01 What does postcoloniality have to do with sacramentality How do diasporic lives and imaginaries shape the course of postcolonial sacramental theology Neither postcolonial theorists nor sacramental theologians have hitherto sought to engage in a sustained dialogue with one another In this trailblazing volume

Kristine Suna Koro brings postcolonialism diaspora discourse and Christian sacramental theology into a mutually critical and constructive transdisciplinary conversation Dialoguing with thinkers as diverse as Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak as well as Francis D Sa S J Martin Luther Mayra Rivera and John Chryssavgis the author offers a postcolonial retrieval of sacramentality through a robust theological engagement with the postcolonial notions of hybridity contrapuntality planetarity and Third Space While exploring the methodological potential of diasporic imaginary in theology this innovative book advances the notion of sacramental pluriverse and of Christ as its paradigmatic crescendo within the sacramental economy of creation and redemptive transformation In the context of ecological degradation In Counterpoint argues that it is vital for the postcolonial sacramental renewal to be rooted in ethics as a uniquely postcolonial fundamental theology

Touched by Christ: The Sacramental Economy Lawrence Feingold,2021-05-07 The sacramental economy was instituted by Christ and entrusted to His Church in order to build up the Body of Christ in a twofold communion binding the members together with God and one another Touched by Christ The Sacramental Economy is an introductory course on Sacramental Theology suitable for all who seek a deeper understanding of how the Church s sacraments constitute channels of grace nurture supernatural life and heal us from our sins Lawrence Feingold expertly describes the nature of the sacraments their purpose fittingness and relationship with Christ and the New Covenant their relationship with the Old Covenant rites that prefigured them the character and grace that they communicate and the nature of their causality Touched by Christ shows that the sacraments of the New Covenant should be understood as instruments of Christ s humanity that are used as words of power to communicate the sanctification that they signify infuse grace communicate the Holy Spirit and build up ecclesial communion in those who receive them with the right dispositions

On the Eighth Day Matt Hoven,J. J. Carney,Max T. Engel,2022-06-07 During a 1980s Edmonton Oilers game fans unveiled a banner claiming On the 8th day God created Gretzky Intersections between religious belief and sporting participation are nothing new where players coaches and fans are known to pray cross themselves and point to the heavens during a game But what should be the relationship between sports and religious faith On the Eighth Day introduces the theology of sport from a Catholic standpoint It wrestles with sport s universal appeal its rich symbolism and its spiritual and moral characteristics Sport is a place where embodied games can be sacramental where traditions of the past speak to contemporary peoples and where truth and justice are demanded in a world affected by sin The eighth day recalls the playful re creative work of God the Creator embodied in Christ s resurrection In this sense this book marks out a new day in Christian attitudes toward modern sport and the continuing call to redeem sport in service of human flourishing Comprehensive yet accessible the book will engage thoughtful lay sports fans and academic students alike

Liturgical Theology in Thomas Aquinas Franck Quoex,2023-10-20 In this volume Fr Franck Quo x responds to Joseph Ratzinger s call for a renewed appreciation of liturgical rite A student of Pierre Gy OP he brings to this study of Aquinas s liturgical theology a rare combination of expert knowledge of liturgical sources and history and the best of modern historical critical research guided by sound theological judgment Fr Quo x frames his study with an overview of the problem of rite in modern theological anthropological discourse before turning to Aquinas theory of worship in the treatise on the virtue of religion He then explores Aquinas doctrine on the cultic dimensions of the Eucharist and other sacraments in his sacramental theology more broadly finishing with a close study of the mass commentary of the Tertia Pars Although there has been increasing attention to Thomas s treatment of religion as a virtue none have approached him from an anthropological angle with a focus on the nature of liturgical rite or fully exploited the perspectives of liturgical scholarship to shed light on sacramental theology Quo x s work as the work of a Thomist liturgist and medievalist well versed in medieval liturgical development and in the genre of often allegorical liturgical commentary opens up this crucial but neglected facet of Aquinas theological synthesis Few books have been published on Aquinas s liturgical theology Now that interest in Aquinas s virtue theory and sacramental theology is growing rapidly Quo x s studies are an invitation to further reflection on the topic of Aquinas s liturgical theology with its manifold ramifications for and connections with other theological topics in his Summa including his theological anthropology his soteriology his treatment of the Old and New Laws and his account of the virtue of religion in connection with the other virtues

Healing Touch and Saving Word Linda M. Malia, 2013-09-12 Is sacramental anointing the same as last rites Don t you have to have some kind of special gift to be part of the Church s healing ministry Why am I sick Is it God s punishment Ever since I became sick I don t feel like myself anymore If life is a journey what happens when our way is obstructed by sickness or failing health In Healing Touch and Saving Word Linda Malia draws upon the rich theology of the Anglican tradition personified in the Episcopal Church s sacramental liturgies of healing In easy to understand language Healing Touch examines the theological foundations of the Episcopal Church s healing liturgies from the first Book of Common Prayer to the most recent sacramental rites Probing the dynamics of symbol and ritual the complex relationship of sin and sickness and the spiritual and psychological impact of every serious illness the book explores the power of these graced encounters in enabling the faithful to draw new hope and renewed purpose out of the chaos and turmoil of illness and debility Individuals struggling with life changing illness and those who care for them clergy and laity alike are sure to find Healing Touch a helpful and thought provoking resource

A Commentary on Laudato Si Kevin W. Irwin, 2016

Faith and Culture Emmanuel Osigwe, 2022-12-05 The recognition of the intersection of faith and culture has become a significant trend in contemporary theology Cultures are locations of divine activity The Sacramental Theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu in Light of Vatican II and Its Application in African Context brings freshness to the dominant Catholic sacramental thinking by offering an African appropriation of the Christian faith through African cultures It demonstrates the historical interaction of the Christian faith with multiple anthropologies that resonates with different peoples to celebrate rituals that convey divine activity This work engages the theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu a recent African sacramental liturgical theologian whose work reflects the elements of sacramental and liturgical renewal of the Second Vatican Council especially in its openness to a plurality of cultures This book retrieves resources from the African universe to offer a contextual appropriation of the interface between faith and African cultures It highlights the African view of the body in its expressive worship and significance of relationality as an undergirding existential philosophy of life Consequently it offers a flexible theological methodology that avoids polarities It provides an additional resource to the philosophical and theological approach to the perennial problem of duality and theologies constructed on this template This study moves beyond monocultural sacramental expression to engage symbols and indigenous resources to articulate an African sacramental theology

The Mystery of Marriage: A Theology of the Body and the Sacrament Perry J. Cahall, 2014-12-01 This remarkable study offers a comprehensive explanation of the Catholic Church's teaching on the sacrament of marriage Incorporating the rich insights found in St John Paul II's Theology of the Body Dr Cahall presents a theology of marriage that incorporates the biblical systematic pastoral and historical traditions which have shaped our understanding of this sacrament

Engaging the Spirit Robert Boak Slocum, 2018-02-20 For too long the Holy Spirit has tended to be either disregarded or the object of fanatical exclamation in the life of the church especially in western Christianity writes general editor Robert Boak Slocum in his introduction to this stimulating collection of eighteen essays from a broad spectrum of noted authors The essays in this collection give attention to many ways of the Spirit's life and activity for salvation and healing for making Christ present in our lives and in the church for empowering our prayers and liturgies for our inspiration and gifting for transformation of the way we live for the redemption of the world and the ultimate coming of God's kingdom for the unity of our relationships with each other and God As we recognize the Spirit's activity in our traditions and doctrines our prayers and liturgies and in all aspects of the life we live we may be better attuned to the leading of the Spirit into the future of faith and our life in God Engaging the Spirit was first published as a special Summer 2001 edition of the Anglican Theological Review and is dedicated to the late Charles P Price theologian and professor at Virginia Seminary A posthumously published essay by Dr Price is a fitting and unique addition to the collection

The Living Church, 1942 Guide for Celebrating Infant Baptism, Second Edition Timothy A. Johnston (Liturgist), Paul Turner, Paul Radkowski, 2020-01-03 Celebrating Baptism well has the potential to evangelize and transform a parish community so that their faith will be stirred deepened and renewed This second edition provides pastoral guidance for preparing joyful and communal celebrations of infant Baptism within or outside Mass according to the newly translated Order of Baptism of Children It provides guidance for selecting Scripture readings prayer texts and music arranging the environment scheduling ministers and preparing liturgies that engage and evangelize
