Mickalene Thomas Photographs:

Muse Jennifer Blessing, 2015 This volume is the first to gather together Mickalene Thomas's various approaches to photography including portraits collages Polaroids and other processes The book also includes a section entitled to the which features a curated selection of images by artists who she considers to be an artistic community of influence from Malick Sidib to more contemporary artists such as Zanele Muholi and LaToya Ruby Frazier Mickalene Thomas / Portrait of an Unlikely Space Keely Orgeman, 2023 A close look at a new installation by renowned contemporary artist Mickalene Thomas that marks the first time she has engaged with early American history Mickalene Thomas b 1971 has gained an international reputation for her dazzling portraits of Black women as well as her large scale installations that physically enfold viewers into lushly decorated 1970s inspired domestic interiors This volume offers a window into Thomas's unique multifaceted approach and introduces a new living room style installation by the artist in which she creates for the first time a homelike environment reminiscent of the pre abolition era In addition to period specific textile patterns and other decorative elements her installation incorporates a selection of small scale early American portraits of Black women men and children from miniatures and daguerreotypes to silhouettes on paper and engravings in books as well as a group of works by Thomas and other contemporary artists in a wide range of media The book's essays examine both how Thomas's engagement with early American history opens up previously unexplored and fertile ground for her artistic practice and how this project constructs evocative spaces both physically and textually in which the lives of early nineteenth century Black Americans can be recognized on their own terms With an artist's statement and extensive photography that captures details of the installation this presentation documents an exciting direction for one of today's most acclaimed artists Distributed for the Yale University Art Gallery Exhibition Schedule Yale University Art Gallery September 8 2023 January 7 2024 Mickalene Thomas Julie Crooks, Andrea Andersson, 2018 Mickalene Thomas's vivid paintings collages and photographs explode off the wall Their larger than life women stare back and down at the viewer confronting them head on Over the course of her prolific career Thomas has created a body of work that expands notions of beauty gender sexuality and race offering a complex vision of what it means to be a Black woman In Femmes Noires Thomas moves breezily between pop culture and the long history of Western and African art inserting images of Black women into iconic paintings At times she poses them nude at other times she draws on elements as diverse as 1970s black is beautiful images of women Edouard Manet's Odalisque figures the mise en scene studio portraiture of James Van Der Zee and Malick Sidib and her own collection of personal portraits and staged scenes Her ability to detect and contain contradictions and to wrestle with stereotypes translates into powerful self possessed depictions of Black women that confront and subvert stereotypes Femmes Noires is a bold examination of Thomas's work and her artistic practice at an important moment in history It blends writing from iconic Black writers and essayists Alice Walker Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Edwidge Danticat and Lorraine O Grady with 120

reproductions from Thomas's oeuvre collages paintings film stills and photographs Original essays by Andrea Andersson visual arts curator of the Contemporary Art Center of New Orleans Julie Crooks curator at the Art Gallery of Ontario and writer art critic Antwaun Sargent complete the book Mickalene Thomas Femmes Noires accompanies an international touring exhibition organized by the Art Gallery of Ontario and the Contemporary Art Centre in New Orleans It will open at the AGO in late November 2018 Black is Beautiful, 2018 Contains 14 reproductions of photographs by Mickalene Thomas Mickalene Thomas: All about Love Ed Schad, Renée Mussai, Rachael Thomas, 2024 Co organized by the Hayward Gallery London and The Broad Los Angeles and in partnership with the Barnes Foundation Philadelphia Mickalene Thomas All About Love will be the first major international tour of this pioneering artist's work Marking its debut at The Broad with over 80 works made by the artist over the last 20 years the exhibition highlights how Thomas has mastered and innovated within several disciplines from mixed media painting and collage to installation and photography The exhibition shares its title and several of its themes with the pivotal text by feminist author bell hooks in which love is an active process rooted in healing carving a path away from domination and towards collective liberation Exhibition website

Self-Representation in an Expanded Field Ace Lehner, 2021-05-31 Defined as a self image made with a hand held mobile device and shared via social media platforms the selfie has facilitated self imaging becoming a ubiquitous part of globally networked contemporary life Beyond this selfies have facilitated a diversity of image making practices and enabled otherwise representationally marginalized constituencies to insert self representations into visual culture In the Western European and North American art historical context self portraiture has been somewhat rigidly albeit obliquely defined and selfies have facilitated a shift regarding who literally holds the power to self image Like self portraits not all selfies are inherently aesthetically or conceptually rigorous or avant guard But as this project aims to do address via a variety of interdisciplinary approaches selfies have irreversibly impacted visual culture contemporary art and portraiture in particular Selfies propose new modes of self imaging forward emerging aesthetics and challenge established methods they prove that as scholars and image makers it is necessary to adapt and innovate in order to contend with the most current form of self representation to date The essays gathered herein will reveal that in our current moment it is necessary and advantageous to consider the merits and interventions of selfies and self portraiture in an expanded field of self representations We invite authors to take interdisciplinary global perspectives to investigate various sub genres aesthetic practices and lineages in which selfies intervene to enrich the discourse on self representation in the expanded field today Black Matrilineage, Photography, and Representation Lesly Deschler Canossi, Zoraida Lopez-Diago, 2022-10-03 Black Matrilineage Photography and Representation Another Way of Knowing questions how the Black female body specifically the Black maternal body navigates interlocking structures that place a false narrative on her body and that of her maternal ancestors This volume which includes a curated selection of images addresses the complicated relationship between Blackness and photography and in particular its gendered dimension its relationship to health sexuality and digital culture primarily in the context of racialized heteronormativity With over forty contributors this volume draws on scholarly inquiry ranging from academic essays interviews poetry to documentary practice and on contemporary art Black Matrilineage Photography and Representation Another Way of Knowing thus offers a cross section of analysis on the topic of Black motherhood mothering and the participation of photography in the process This collection challenges racist images and discourses both historically and in its persistence in contemporary society while reclaiming the innate brilliance of Black women through personal narratives political acts connections to place moments of pleasure and communal celebration It serves as a reflection of the past a portal to the future and contributes to recent scholarship on the complexities of Black life and Black joy The Art Institute of Chicago Field Guide to Photography and Media Antawan I. Byrd, Elizabeth Siegel, 2023-01-01 A roster of prominent artists curators and scholars offers a new entirely contemporary approach to our understanding of photography and media Focusing on the Art Institute of Chicago s deep and varied collection of photographs books and other printed matter installation art photobooks albums and time based media this ambitious wide ranging volume features short essays by prominent artists curators university professors and independent scholars that explore topics essential to understanding photography and media today The essays organized around themes ranging from the expected to the esoteric are paired with key objects from the collection in order to address issues of aesthetics history philosophy power relations production and reception More than 400 high quality reproductions amplify the authors arguments and suggest additional dialogues across conventional divisions of chronology genre geography and technology An introductory essay by Matthew S Witkovsky traces the museum s history of acquisitions and how the evolution of the museum s collection reflects broader changes in the critical reception of the field of photography and media Distributed for the Art Institute of Chicago Read This if You Want to Take Great Photographs Henry Carroll, 2014-03-03 Photography is now more popular than ever thanks to the rapid development of digital cameras Read This If You Want to Take Great Photographs is ideal for this new wave of snapshooters using DSLR compact system and bridge cameras It contains no graphs no techie diagrams and no camera club jargon Instead it inspires readers through iconic images and playful copy packed with hands on tips Split into five sections the book covers composition exposure light lenses and the art of seeing Masterpieces by acclaimed photographers including Henri Cartier Bresson Sebastião Salgado Fay Godwin Nadav Kander Daido Moriyama and Martin Parr serve to illustrate points and encourage readers to try out new ideas Today s aspiring photographers want immediacy and see photography as an affordable way of expressing themselves quickly and creatively This handbook meets their needs teaching them how to take photographs using professional techniques

Photography - A Queer History Flora Dunster, Theo Gordon, 2024-02-29 Photography A Queer History examines how photography has been used by artists to capture create and expand the category Queer It bookmarks different thematic concerns central to queer photography forging unexpected connections to showcase the diverse ways the medium has been used to fashion queer identities and communities How has photography advanced fights against LGBTQ discrimination How have artists used photography to develop a queer aesthetic How has the production and circulation of photography served to satisfy the queer desire for images and created transnational solidarities Photography A Queer History includes the work of 84 artists It spans different historical and national contexts and through a mix of thematic essays and artist centred texts brings young photographers into conversation with canonical images Tate: Photography Decoded Susan Bright,Hedy Van Erp,2019-05-30 Is it real What do I remember How can you tell a story Can lying be OK What goes where Why is it famous What makes it problematic Who do you think you are Stealing or borrowing Public or private These ten questions launch a thought provoking investigation into what is really going on when you look at a photograph Peeling back the layers of everything from the earliest daguerreotypes to your latest selfie you will discover where to find meaning in an image and the ways in which the photographer our current culture and you yourself all collaborate in the creation of that meaning
