Michaël Borremans Michaël Borremans, Jeffrey D. Grove, 2009 Text by Jeffrey Grove      Michaël Borremans Michaël Borremans, Massimiliano Gioni, Philippe-Alain Michaud, Delfim Sardo, 2008 Belgium based Michael Borremans creates absurd and sometimes ominous paintings Horse Hunting 2005 for example depicts in a muddy palette a pale and moody looking man in a suit jacket and crisp white shirt shoving two twigs up his nose He stares straight at us and the wall behind him is filled with his shadow Borremans has said of his paintings I use clichés and other elements that are part of a collective consciousness my work would be perfect on biscuit tins At the 2006 Berlin Biennale Borremans showed a film on a small LCD screen which he had framed like a painting The piece was based on a 2002 drawing of a girl which he reproduced in three dimensions so that the girl slowly spins around Whatever the medium Borremans work bears this trademark sense of absurdity verging on menace Weight is published concurrently with an exhibition at De Appel in Amsterdam      Michaël Borremans: Fire from the Sun Michael Borremans, 2018-05-22 The first in a series of small format publications devoted to single bodies of work Fire from the Sun highlights Michael Borremans's new work which features toddlers engaged in playful but mysterious acts with sinister overtones and insinuations of violence Known for his ability to recall classical painting both through technical mastery and subject matter Borremans's depiction of the uncanny the perhaps secret the bizarre often surprises sometimes disturbs the viewer In this series of work children are presented alone or in groups against a studio like backdrop that negates time and space while underlining the theatrical atmosphere and artifice that exists throughout Borremans's recent work Reminiscent of cherubs in Renaissance paintings the toddlers appear as allegories of the human condition their archetypal innocence contrasted with their suggested deviousness In his accompanying essay critic and curator Michael Bracewell takes an in depth look into specific paintings tackling both the highly charged subject matter and the masterly command of the medium He writes The art of Michael Borremans seems always to have been predicated on a confluence of enigma ambiguity and painterly poetics accosting beauty with strangeness making historic Romanticism subjugate to mysterious controlling forces that are neither crudely malevolent nor necessarily benign Published on the occasion of Borremans's eponymous exhibition at David Zwirner in Hong Kong this publication is available in both English only and bilingual English traditional Chinese editions      Michaël Borremans Jeffrey D. Grove, Michael Amy, Dallas Museum of Art, 2014 Since the late 1990s when he first began to produce drawings and paintings Michael Borremans has created an extraordinarily mature body of work that has captured international attention The disparate spaces he imagines in his paintings drawings sculptures and films are unified by an uncanny sense of dislocation and an often unsettling beauty Rendered in complex palettes and exquisite techniques Borremans works in all media embrace a rich legacy of artistic progenitors but remain firmly anchored in the present Presenting over 100 works created by the artist over a 14 year period in all media this publication includes many works not previously reproduced in books or catalogues offering the most complete overview of Borremans oeuvre to date Contributions include a concise and incisive overview of Borremans practice a revealing in depth interview between the main author of the book Jeffrey Grove and the artist addressing process influence and philosophical and critical issues as well as more than 50 individual entries and mini essays on individual works in the artist s oeuvre by notable writers curators filmmakers and musicians Described by the artist as the mother of all Borremans books Michaël Borremans As Sweet As It Gets is published on the occasion of a major mid career retrospective Initially trained in photography and graphic design the Belgian artist Michaël Borremans born 1963 turned to painting at the age of 30 Work by the artist is held in numerous public collections including The Art Institute of Chicago High Museum of Art Atlanta Georgia Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles Museum of Fine Arts Boston The Museum of Modern Art New York National Gallery of Canada Ottawa San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and the Walker Art Center Minneapolis Minnesota Borremans lives and works in Ghent The Performance, 2005* Michaël Borremans: The Acrobat Michael Borremans, Katya Tylevich, 2022-07-12 A breathtaking selection of Michaël Borremans s lustrous paintings this catalogue showcases his technical mastery and creative use of mise en scène Recalling classical painting both through technical mastery and subject matter Borremans s depiction of the surprising and the bizarre invites a second look Uncanny scenes of figures onlooking blurred acrobatic displays hooded subjects in Rembrandt lighting or solemn portraits of painted faces demonstrate Borremans s unique vision In this recent body of work Borremans continues to draw the viewer in closer with his small scale paintings of mysterious figures in peculiar arenas Michaël Borremans David Zwirner LTD., Michael Borremans, 2015 For nearly two decades Belgian artist Michaël Borremans has created an ambitious and mesmerizing oeuvre that continues to simultaneously fascinate and unsettle viewers As the art critic Laura Cumming writes in The Observer Borremans s gift is for snaring you enthraling you with all sorts of characters strange scenarios and possibilities His works display a concentrated dialogue with previous art historical epochs yet their unconventional compositions and curious narratives defy expectations and lend them an indefinable character Painting has remained central in his pursuit to construct a deceptively simple visual world where figures often seem to elude the passage of time Michaël Borremans Black Mould documents the artist s first exhibition at David Zwirner London in 2015 and his first solo presentation in the city in ten years This intimately scaled catalogue which has been designed by the artist in collaboration with Kim Beirnaert includes thirty two small and large scale paintings from his new series most of which feature anonymous black robed characters Alone or in groups they perform mysterious acts within monochromatic spaces reminiscent of an artist s barren studio Seemingly behaving according to a symbolic language of their own they pose alone or interact in communal dances with some figures holding torches and others exposed naked from the waist down Their facelessness opens up ambiguous narrative possibilities like empty canvases with which to construct meaning Like archetypes capable of embodying shifting meanings the blank figures become a mold for the human condition at once satirical tragic humorous and above all contradictory Michaël

Michaël Borremans, a Confrontation at the Zoo Ann Demeester, Suzanne Swarts, Katya Tylevich, 2024* Like bad news landing at a formal dinner the works by Michaël Borremans menace the expectations of a perfect setting His solo exhibition at Voorlinden A Confrontation at the Zoo composed of Borremans hand selected paintings from the last 20 years exemplifies the intuitive and poetic relationship between his different works Michaël Borremans is an artist fluent in centuries old technical skill yet his works speak their own contemporary language His oeuvre spans drawing sculpture film and photography but he is best known for his oil on canvas paintings which bristle with tension between historical medium and conceptual immediacy A trademark of Borremans's work is his deadpan penchant for the absurd and theatrical His subjects often appear in homemade costumes dressed as if for the stage or ritual Yet their expressions betray no irony or intent In his paintings the artist represses obvious displays of emotion whether surprise or distress in strange compositions deserving of them Borremans's reoccurring subject is the dark and darkly funny mess of human experience and possibility This mess unites with the clinical precision and elegance of the artist's craft fine tuned to the exhilarating mood of each painting Exhibition
