Malinowski,Hiram H. Maxim,2023-09-12 This open access volume offers valuable new perspectives on the question of how mobility locatedness and immersion in the physical world can enhance second language teaching and learning It does so through a diverse array of empirical studies of language literacy and culture learning in the linguistic landscape of visible and audible public discourse Written from conceptually rich and disciplinarily varied perspectives its ten chapters address methodological and practical problems of relating language learning to the lived and rapidly changing places of the late modern world Whether it is within the four walls of a school in a nearby multilingual neighborhood in a virtual telecollaborative space or in any other location where languages may be learned this volume highlights different configurations of learning spaces the leveraging of real world places for critical learning and ways to productively dislocate language learners from preconceived notions and standardized experiences Together these elements create conditions for a language and literacy pedagogy that can be said to be robustly spatialized linguistically and culturally complex geographically situated historically informed dialogically realized and socially engaged The Routledge Handbook of Language and Superdiversity Angela Creese,Adrian Blackledge,2018-02-21 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Superdiversity provides an accessible and authoritative overview of this growing area the linguistic analysis of interaction in superdiverse cities Developed as a descriptive term to account for the increasingly stratified processes and effects of migration in Western Europe superdiversity has the potential to contribute to an enhanced understanding of mobility complexity and change with theoretical practical global and methodological reach With seven sections edited by leading names the handbook includes 35 state of the art chapters from international authorities The handbook adopts a truly interdisciplinary approach covering Cultural heritage Sport Law Education Business and entrepreneurship The result is a truly comprehensive account of how people live work and communicate in superdiverse spaces This volume is key reading for all those engaged in the study and research of Language and Superdiversity within Applied Linguistics Linguistic Anthropology and related areas Language Learning Environments Phil Benson,2021-06-04 This book is the first in depth examination of the application of theories of space to issues of second language learning The author introduces the work of key thinkers on the theory of space and place and the relevance of their ideas to second language acquisition SLA He also outlines a new conceptual framework and set of terms for researching SLA that centre on the idea of language learning environments The book considers the spatial contexts in which language learning takes place and investigates how these spatial contexts are transformed into individualised language learning environments as learners engage with a range of human and nonhuman and physical and nonphysical resources in their daily lives Revisiting linguistics and language learning theory from a spatial perspective the book demonstrates that the question of where people learn languages is equally as important as that of how they do so This work is essential reading for any researcher wishing to research the role of the environment as an active player in SLA

Language Teacher Education Beyond Borders Fernando Zolin Vesz, Darío Luis Banegas, Luciana C. de Oliveira, 2024-08-22 This volume looks at the preparation of future critical language teachers in the face of an increasingly multilingual and transcultural contemporary world This is seen through the lens of the collapse of Nation State borders that crumble in the face of migration and the intense flow of languages that comes with it It brings together international research that problematizes theorizes re positions and re conceptualizes myriad structural systemic ideological political and pedagogical issues that intersect with the possibilities and impossibilities of the development of language teachers agency The volume examines the needs of linguistically diverse student populations and considers the socio cultural and socio political barriers that interfere with the exercise of teacher agency for social justice in language classrooms It offers a theoretical and empirical overview of how language teacher education has addressed multilingualism and transculturalism in critical approaches in many complex countries in their diversity and or postcolonial history including Brazil Qazaqstan Scotland and Thailand

Language and Neoliberal Governmentality Luisa Martín Rojo, Alfonso Del Percio, 2019-06-26 Against a background of the ongoing crisis of global capitalism and the fracturing of the neoliberal project this book provides a detailed account of the ways in which language is profoundly imbricated in the neoliberalising of the fabric of social life With chapters from a cast list of international scholars covering topics such as the commodification of education and language unemployment and the governmentality of the self and discussion chapters from Monica Heller and Jackie Urla bringing the various strands together the book ultimately helps us to understand how language is part of political economy and the everyday making and remaking of society and individuals It provides both a theoretical framework and a significant methodological tool box to critically detect understand and resist the impact of neoliberalism on everyday social spheres particularly in relation to language Presenting richly empirical studies that expand our understanding of how neoliberalism as a regime of truth and as a practice of governance performs within the terrain of language this book is an essential resource for researchers and graduate students in English language sociolinguistics applied linguistics linguistic anthropology and related areas Language Communities in Japan John C. Maher, 2022-01-21 This book offers a comprehensive sociolinguistic overview of the linguistic situation in Japan Contemporary Japan displays rich linguistic diversity particularly in urban areas but the true extent of this diversity has often been overlooked The contributors to this volume provide a new perspective with detailed accounts of the wide range of languages spoken in different contexts and by different communities across the Japanese archipelago Each chapter focuses on a specific language community and systematically explores the history of the variety in Japanese culture and the current sociolinguistic situation The first part explores the indigenous languages of Japan including the multiple dialects of Japanese itself and the lesser known Ryukyuan and Ainu languages Chapters in Part II look at community languages ranging from the historic minority languages such as Korean and Chinese to the languages spoken by more recent migrant communities such as Nepali Filipino and Persian The final part examines languages of culture politics and modernization from the use of English in international business and education contexts to the ongoing use of Latin and Sanskrit for religious purposes The volume sheds new light on Japan's position as an important multilingual and multicultural society and will be of interest to scholars and students not only of Japanese and sociolinguistics but of Asian studies and migration studies more widely

Responsibility and Language Practices in Place Laura Siragusa, Jenanne K. Ferguson, 2020-08-28 This volume includes chapters by junior and senior scholars hailing from Europe Asia North America and Oceania all of whom sought to understand the social and cultural implications surrounding how people take responsibility for the ways they speak or write in relation to a place whether it is one they have long resided in recently moved to or left a long time ago The contributors to the volume investigate responsibility in and through language practices as inspired by the roots of the English word itself the ability to respond or mount a response to a situation at hand It is thus a responsive kind of responsibility one that focuses not only on demonstrating responsibility for language but highlighting the various ways we respond to situations discursively and metalinguistically This sort of responsibility is both part of individual and collectively negotiated concerns that shift as people contend with processes related to globalization

Multimodality and Social Interaction in Online and Offline Shopping Gitte Rasmussen, Theo van Leeuwen, 2023-09-29 This collection brings together social semiotic ethnographic and conversation analytic approaches to multimodality in global studies of shopping drawing on the rich diversity of the latest multimodal methods to critically reflect on shopping as a cornerstone of contemporary social life The volume explores shopping as an area of study in its own right with the buying and selling of goods and services a fundamental part of the social and cultural life of human communities for centuries The book looks at both online and offline shopping examining it as both everyday multi sensorial practice and its translation into the interactive text and imagery that comprise the online shopping experience from London street markets to Japanese grocery shops to Danish supermarkets to worldwide online shopping sites Highlighting the diversity of modern multimodal approaches through contributions from established scholars the book critically surveys both the challenges and opportunities in the embodied interactions between buyers and sellers and how these points of connection have been translated and will continue to transform in the age of algorithms and emergent technologies This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in multimodality multimodal conversation analysis social semiotics social interaction and retail studies

Multilingualism, (Im)mobilities and Spaces of Belonging Kristine Horner, Jennifer Dailey-O'Cain, 2019-10-11 Certain forms of mobility and multilingualism tend to be portrayed as problematic in the public sphere while others are considered to be unremarkable Divided into three thematic sections this book explores the contestation of spaces and the notion of borders examines the ways in which heritage and authenticity are linked or challenged and interrogates the intersections between mobility and hierarchies and the ways that language can be linked to notions of belonging and aspirations for mobility Based on fieldwork in Africa Asia Australasia and Europe it explores how language functions as both site of struggle and as a means of overcoming struggle This volume will be of particular interest to scholars taking ethnographic and critical sociolinguistic approaches to the study of language and belonging in the context of globalisation

Multilingual Global Cities Peter Siemund, Jakob R.E. Leimgruber, 2020-11-29 This volume sets out to investigate the linguistic ecologies of Singapore Hong Kong and Dubai with chapters that combine empirical and theoretical approaches to the sociolinguistics of multilingualism One important feature of this publication is that the five parts of the collection deal with such key issues as the historical dimension language policies and language planning contemporary societal multilingualism multilingual language acquisition and the localized Englishes of global cities The first four sections of the volume provide a multi levelled and finely detailed description of multilingual diversity of three global cities while the final section discusses postcolonial Englishes in the context of multilingual language acquisition and language contact
