My Migrant Family Story

Lilia Garcia, 2013 Every spring Lilia Garcia had to leave school early to go north with her family to pick fruits and vegetables She was too young to work in the fields with the rest of the family so her mother and teenage brother would sign her up to attend the local school She was the only Spanish speaking child at Coloma Elementary and that combined with the fact that it was late in the school year made it difficult to make friends and keep up with the work In this bilingual collection of short vignettes Garcia remembers her family s life as migrant workers in the 1970s Every year they packed their red Ford pick up and left McAllen Texas The children s excitement soon waned during the long drive through Texas but grew as they passed the Gateway Arch in St Louis and skyscrapers in Chicago Finally they arrived at their destination the Ponderosa in Coloma Michigan The family worked year in and year out for the same patron who allowed them to live in a house they called the Ponderosa named for the big house in the TV show Bonanza It was surrounded by fields full of fruits an apple orchard lay to the east a peach orchard was on the other side There were strawberry patches cherry trees and a grape vineyard Garcia s family worked long back breaking hours for a pittance but they were together and their love for each other pulled them through Garcia was nine when her father found a full time job in McAllen and their migrant life came to an end We missed the adventure of travel and sightseeing but we didn't miss the hard back breaking work Staying in one place allowed the kids to focus on school ensuring that they never had to do that back breaking work again This is a heartfelt recollection of the life of migrant workers Relatos sobre la vida de un inmigrante Bong Myoung Sae,2014 Cuento Desde Chicago

Ricardo Ramirez,2019-09-18 En Cuento desde Chicago Ricardo Ramirez nos lleva por un viaje más que interesante y diverso de lo que es o puede ser la experiencia migrante Ricardo nos habla de amor fe sufrimiento desencuentros y alegrías pero sobre todo de nostalgias esas que nos hacen transportarnos con la imaginación a momentos tristes o felices gracias a sucesos sabores o sonidos que llegan de golpe a la mente y te dejan ajeno a tu entorno por más de un minuto Lo sé porque en más de una ocasión el lector debe hacer pausas para recordar procesar y en muchas ocasiones disfrutar el poder rememorar cosas que se creían ya en el olvido
