Preventing Crime and Disorder in Public Places Tim Prenzler, 2024-07-23 This accessible short book provides scientifically informed guidance on effective wholistic place management strategies for preventing crime. It integrates theoretical perspectives and practical examples of crime prevention methods that can be readily implemented by responsible stakeholders. It covers locations including town centers, shopping malls, parks, beaches, transit hubs, campuses, stadiums, and entertainment precincts where security programs sometimes attract criticism regarding the exclusion or persecution of marginalized groups. This book advocates for overlapping forms of crime prevention and social support that address the need to make large improvements in safety in public places while supporting marginalized and vulnerable groups. Readers are exposed to a wide range of successful case studies as well as the central role of a systematic problem-solving methodology. It speaks to crime prevention and social services professionals, academics, and students as well as interested members of the public.

Rethinking Knife Crime Elaine Williams, Peter Squires, 2021-10-01 This critical textbook looks beyond the immediate data on knife crime to try and make sense of what is a global phenomenon. Yet it especially explores why the UK in particular has become so preoccupied by this form of interpersonal, often youthful, violence. The book explores knife crime in its global and historical context and examines crime patterns, including the second wave of knife crime in Britain. It then incorporates new empirical data to explore key themes, including police responses, popular narratives, and the various interests benefiting from the knife crime industry. It captures the voices of those impacted by knife crime, including young people, community leaders, and youth work practitioners. Drawing on criminology, sociology, cultural studies, and history, the book argues that the problem is firmly located at the intersection of a series of concerns about class, race, gender, and generation that are a product of British history and its global past. It seeks to trace the several roots of the contemporary knife crime epidemic, ultimately to propose newer and alternative strategies for responding to it. It encourages a critical engagement with this subject, with the inclusion of some learning exercises for undergraduate students and above in the social sciences, whilst also speaking to researchers, policy makers, and practitioners.

Gold Medal Policing Judy M. McDonald, 2025-03-24 This straightforward, easy-to-understand textbook inspires tools for improving job performance, productivity, and morale in law enforcement. The groundbreaking first edition of Gold Medal Policing, inspired by work with Olympic athletes, confirmed the importance of mental readiness in frontline policing excellence. Partnerships with policing and related fields positioned Gold Medal Policing principles across recruitment, multilevel training, web-based learning, and field assessment. The second edition consolidates two decades of peer-reviewed research and training, reflecting new trends, lessons, contemporary issues, and proven tools. Drawing on insights from frontline officers recognized for their excellence, including coach officers, it introduces an Operational Readiness Framework rooted in scientific principles. This framework systematically assesses physical, technical, and mental readiness, creating a detailed police-specific profile. A comprehensive literature review informs current police preparedness practices. Mental readiness is upheld to strict measurable standards, akin to traditional physical and technical readiness. Best practices from exceptional officers are isolated and operational benchmarks and strategies are established The ultimate result is to empower officers to excel in the practice of their profession Gold Medal Policing is indispensable for law enforcement leaders scholars students and aspiring officers Questions about the research Contact the author Judy McDonald at judy.mcdonald@uottawa.ca
