Online Capitalist Unconscious Marx Lacan:

The Capitalist Unconscious Samo Tomšič, 2016-02-16 A major systematic study of the connection between Marx and Lacan's work. Finalist for the American Board and Academy of Psychoanalysis Book Prize. Despite a resurgence of interest in Lacanian psychoanalysis particularly in terms of the light it casts on capitalist ideology as witnessed by the work of Slavoj Žižek, there remain remarkably few systematic accounts of the role of Marx in Lacan's work. A major comprehensive study of the connection between their work, The Capitalist Unconscious resituates Marx in the broader context of Lacan's teaching and insists on the capacity of psychoanalysis to reaffirm dialectical and materialist thought. Lacan's unorthodox reading of Marx refigured such crucial concepts as alienation, jouissance, and the Freudian labour theory of the unconscious. Tracing these developments, Tomšič maintains that psychoanalysis, structuralism, and the critique of political economy participate in the same movement of thought; his book shows how to follow this movement through to some of its most important conclusions.

Epistemontology in Spinoza-Marx-Freud-Lacan A. Kiarina Kordela, 2017-10-06 A. Kiarina Kordela steps beyond extant commentaries on Marx's theory of commodity fetishism from A. Sohn-Rethel to L. Althusser, Balibar, Slavoj Žižek, and others to show that in capitalism value is the manifestation of the homology between thought and being, while their other aspect, power, is foreclosed and becomes the object of biopower. Using monistic Marxian Lacanian structuralism as an alternative to dominant models from Plato and Kant to phenomenological accounts, deconstruction, and other contemporary approaches, Kordela expertly argues that Marx's theory of commodity fetishism is a reformulation of the Spinozian thesis that thought, mind, and things, bodies or extension, are manifestations of one and the same being or substance. Kordela's link between Spinoza and Marx shows that being consists of two aspects: value and power, the former leading to structuralist thought, the latter becoming the object of contemporary biopower. Epistemontology in Spinoza-Marx-Freud-Lacan intervenes between two dominant lines of thought in the reception of Marx today: on the one hand, an approach that relates Marxian thought to psychoanalysis from a Hegelian dialectical perspective, and on the other hand, an approach that links Marxism to Spinozian monism at the total exclusion of psychoanalysis. This book will interest scholars and researchers who study Marxism, post-structuralism, psychoanalysis, critical theory, ontology, epistemology, and theories of representation, theoreticians of cultural studies, and comparative literature, aesthetic theory, including the relation of art to economy and politics, and biopolitics.

Lacan the Charlatan Peter D. Mathews, 2020-06-01 This book sets out to determine the validity of an accusation made against Jacques Lacan by Noam Chomsky in an interview in 1989. He stated that Lacan was a charlatan, not that his ideas were flawed or wrong, but that his entire discourse was fraudulent, an accusation that has since been repeated by many other critics. Examining the arguments of key anti-Lacanian critics, Mathews weighs and contextualizes the legitimacy of Lacan's engagements with structural linguistics, mathematical formalization, science, ethics, Hegelian dialectics, and psychoanalysis. The guiding thread is Lacan's own recurrent interrogation of authority, which inhabits an ambiguous zone between mastery fundamental rethinking of postcoloniality through what he calls the politics of ontological discordance The Anthropocene Unconscious Mark Bould, 2021-11-02 From Ducks Newburyport to zombie movies and the Fast and Furious franchise how climate anxiety permeates our culture The art and literature of our time is pregnant with catastrophe with weather and water wildness and weirdness The Anthropocene the term given to this geological epoch in which humans anthropos are wreaking havoc on the earth is to be found bubbling away everywhere in contemporary cultural production Typically discussions of how culture registers figures and mediates climate change focus on climate fiction or cli fi but The Anthropocene Unconscious is more interested in how the Anthropocene and especially anthropogenic climate destabilisation manifests in texts that are not overtly about climate change that is unconsciously The Anthropocene Mark Bould argues constitutes the unconscious of the art and literature of our time Tracing the outlines of the Anthropocene unconscious in a range of film television and literature across a range of genres and with utter disregard for high low culture distinctions this playful and riveting book draws out some of the things that are repressed and obscured by the term the Anthropocene including capital class imperialism inequality alienation violence commodification patriarchy and racial formations The Anthropocene Unconscious is about a kind of rewriting It asks what happens when we stop assuming that the text is not about the anthropogenic biosphere crises engulfing us What if all the stories we tell are stories about the Anthropocene About climate change Incontinence of the Void Slavoj Žižek, 2019-02-26 The formidably brilliant Žižek considers sexuality ontology subjectivity and Marxian critiques of political economy by way of Lacanian psychoanalysis If the most interesting theoretical interventions emerge today from the interspaces between fields then the foremost interspaceman is Slavoj Žižek In Incontinence of the Void the title is inspired by a sentence in Samuel Beckett's late masterpiece Ill Seen Ill Said Žižek explores the empty spaces between philosophy psychoanalysis and the critique of political economy He proceeds from the universal dimension of philosophy to the particular dimension of sexuality to the singular dimension of the critique of political economy The passage from one dimension to another is immanent the ontological void is accessible only through the impasses of sexualisation and the ongoing prospect of the abolition of sexuality which is itself opened up by the technoscientific progress of global capitalism in turn leading to the critique of political economy Responding to his colleague and fellow Short Circuits author Alenka Župan's What Is Sex Žižek examines the notion of an excessive element in ontology that gives body to radical negativity which becomes the antagonism of sexual difference From the economico philosophical perspective Žižek extrapolates from ontological excess to Marxian surplus value to Lacan's surplus enjoyment In true Žižekian fashion Incontinence of the Void focuses on eternal topics while detouring freely into contemporary issues from the Internet of Things to Danish TV series Borders, Bodies and Narratives of Crisis in Europe Thanasis Lagios, Vasia Lekka, Grigoris Panoutsopoulos, 2018-04-25 This book addresses two interrelated discourses of crisis in contemporary Europe the migrant crisis vs the economic crisis The chapters shed light on the thread that links these two issues by first examining immigration and the transformations regarding its control and administration via border technologies as well as on the centrality of the body as a means and carrier of border within contemporary biopolitical societies In a second step the authors proceed to a genealogy of the current discourses regarding the financial and political crisis through a Foucauldian and Lacanian perspective focusing on the co articulation of scientific knowledge and biopolitical power in Western societies Contested Knowledges Esha Shah,Rutgerd Boelens,Bert Bruins,2019-05-20 Water acquisition storage allocation and distribution are intensely contested in our society whether for instance such issues pertain to a conflict between upstream and downstream farmers located on a small stream or to a large dam located on the border of two nations Water conflicts are mostly studied as disputes around access to water resources or the formulation of water laws and governance rules However explicitly or not water conflicts nearly always also involve disputes among different philosophical views The contributions to this edited volume have looked at the politics of contested knowledge as manifested in the conceptualisation design development implementation and governance of large dams and mega hydraulic infrastructure projects in various parts of the world The special issue has explored the following core questions Which philosophies and claims on mega hydraulic projects are encountered and how are they shaped validated negotiated and contested in concrete contexts Whose knowledge counts and whose knowledge is downplayed in water development conflict situations and how have different epistemic communities and cultural political identities shaped practices of design planning and construction of dams and mega hydraulic projects The contributions have also scrutinised how these epistemic communities interactively shape norms rules beliefs and values about water problems and solutions including notions of justice citizenship and progress that are subsequently to become embedded in material artefacts Unworkable Fabio Vighi,2022-03-01 Unworkable discusses the ongoing implosion of our globalized world from three distinct angles the capitalist elimination of labor through technological automation the dissolution of our shared social narratives and the subtle imposition of an increasingly pervasive ideological order Aiming to root out the lost cause of this implosion Fabio Vighi returns to Marx by way of Hegel Lacan Gorz Baudrillard and other thinkers who in different ways have reflected on the complex dialectical structure of modernity and its hidden conditions of possibility Capitalism Vighi argues fundamentally redefined the meaning of work and prevented the emergence of alternative forms of life In our own time the delusions of work and the values that propel life under capitalism have become in Vighi s analysis unworkable And yet even as we become an increasingly workless society we continue to abide by the same laws of productivity and profit Universal Prostitution and Modernist Abstraction Jaleh Mansoor,2025-04-18 In Universal Prostitution and Modernist Abstraction Jaleh Mansoor provides a counternarrative of modernism and abstraction and a reexamination of Marxist aesthetics Mansoor draws on Marx s concept of prostitution a conceptual device through which Marx allegorized modern labor to think about the confluences of generalized and gendered labor in modern art Analyzing works ranging from douard Manet s Olympia and Georges Seurat s The Models to contemporary work by Hito Steyerl and

Hannah Black she shows how avant garde artists can detect changing modes of production and capitalist and biopolitical processes of abstraction that assign identities to subjects in the interest of value s impersonal circulation She demonstrates that art and abstraction resist modes of production and subjugation at the level of process and form rather than through referential representation By studying gendered and generalized labor abstraction automation and the worker Mansoor shifts focus away from ideology superstructure and culture toward the ways art indexes crisis and transformation in the political economic base Ultimately she traces the outlines of a counterpraxis to capital while demonstrating how artworks give us a way to see through the abstractions of everyday life

Capital and Ressentiment Joseph Vogl, 2022-10-27 The proliferation of social media has provided ideal conditions in which feelings of anger and frustration can be expressed and shared forming a deep pool of resentment that is being drawn upon and exploited by populist and authoritarian leaders In his new book Joseph Vogl shows how this dynamic is rooted in the fusing of finance capital and information in a new form of information capitalism that is reshaping the affective economy of our societies The capital accumulation strategies of powerful new platforms and social media are pushing people into fragmented opposing and conflictual communities where resentment is nurtured and grows The feelings of grievance and rejection generated by capitalism are redirected into attacks on migrants foreigners and others thereby deflecting their critical potential and bolstering the system that is their source It is the cunning of resentment that provides the key to understanding why despite the profusion of communication in our social media age global finance and information capital can be neither understood nor attacked as a totalizing power This brilliant analysis of the ways in which information capitalism is transforming the affective economy of our societies will be of great interest to anyone concerned with the forces that are shaping our societies today
