Raising Passionate Jesus Followers Phil Comer, Diane Comer, 2018-03-06 Hope and practical help for parents whose greatest longing is to shepherd their children into a vibrant faith in God For Christian parents there is no greater joy than seeing their children learn to walk with the Lord And there is no greater fear than that their children will walk away from God After serving together in pastoral ministry and raising their now grown children Phil and Diane Comer know those hopes and fears well Like all new parents they were intimidated and unsure about how to take on the task of spiritually training their young children But now with all four of their children grown and establishing their own households of faith Phil and Diane have embarked on a quest to help the next generation of parents raise passionate Jesus followers Drawing on years of pastoral counseling teaching leading and decades of watching families from the perspective of pastors and leaders in ministry Phil and Diane instruct guide encourage and offer hope and practical help to Christian parents Raising Passionate Jesus Followers is a manual full of practical biblically based and time tested guidelines that parents will be able to turn to again and again through every stage of their children's development including Formulating a plan Laying the foundation ages 0 5 Doing the framing ages 6 12 Installing the functional systems ages 13 17 Completing the finish work ages 18 22 And keeping the front door open for your grown children Online Conference of Education Research International (OCERI 2023) Muhammad Kristiawan, Neta Dian Lestari, Dian Samitra, Zico Fakhrur Rozi, Muhammad Nikman Naser, Reva Maria Valianti, Muthmainnah Muthmainnah, Badeni Badeni, Fitri April Yanti, Dina Apryani, Okky Leo Agusta, Jumiati Siska, Elsa Viona, Elce Purwandari, Reny Dwi Riastuti, 2023-10-29 This is an open access book Online Conference of Education Research International Batch 1 is an annual international seminar organized by Doctor of Education Study Program the Faculty of Teacher Training and Education Universitas Bengkulu which aims to explore new direction of interdisciplinary knowledge and technology to the most influential ideas and innovations in education and research This is an open access book

Kinesis Edith Foster, Christina Clark, Judith P. Hallett, 2015-08-20 Donald Lateiner in his groundbreaking work The Sardonic Smile presented the first thorough study of nonverbal behavior in Homeric epics drawing a significant distinction between ancient and modern gesture and demonstrating the intrinsic relevance of this silent language to psychological social and anthropological studies of the ancient world Using Lateiner's work as a touchstone the scholars in Kinesis analyze the depiction of emotions gestures and other nonverbal cues in ancient Greek and Roman texts and consider the precise language used to depict them Individual contributors examine genres ranging from historiography and epic to tragedy philosophy and vase decoration They explore evidence as disparate as Pliny's depiction of animal emotions Plato's presentation of Aristophanes hiccups and Thucydides use of verb tenses Sophocles deployment of silence is considered as are Lucan's depiction of death and the speaking objects of the medieval Alexander Romance This collection will be valuable to scholars studying Greek and Roman society and literature as well as to those who study the imitation of ancient literature in later societies Jargon is avoided and all passages in ancient languages are translated making this volume accessible to advanced undergraduates Contributors in addition to the volume editors include Jeffrey Rusten Rosaria Vignolo Munson Hans Peter Stahl Carolyn Dewald Rachel Kitzinger Deborah Boedeker Daniel P Tompkins John Marincola Carolin Hahnemann Ellen Finkelpearl Hanna M Roisman Eliot Wirshbo James V Morrison Bruce Heiden Daniel B Levine and Brad L Cook

Learning to Love Sonya E Pritzker,2024-07-10 Learning to Love offers a range of perspectives on the embodied relational affective and sociopolitical project of learning to love at the New Life Center for Holistic Growth a popular mind body spirit bookstore and practice space in northeast China in the early part of the 21st century This intimate form of self care exists alongside the fast moving growing capitalist society of contemporary China and has emerged as an understandable response to the pressures of Chinese industrialized life in the early 21st century Opening with an investigation of the complex ways newcomers to the center suffered a sense of being off both in and with the world at multiple scales Learning to Love then examines how new horizons of possibility are opened as people interact with one another as well as with a range of aesthetic objects at New Life Author Sonya Pritzker draws upon the core concepts of scalar intimacy a participatory discursive process in which people position themselves in relation to others as well as dominant ideologies concepts and ideals and scalar inquiry the process through which speakers interrogate these forms their relationship with them and their participation in reproducing them In demonstrating the collaborative interrogation of culture history and memory she examines how these exercises in physical mental and spiritual self care allow participants to grapple with past social harms and forms of injustice how historical systems of power including both patriarchal and governance structures continue in the present and how they might be transformed in the future By examining the interactions and relational experiences from New Life Learning to Love offers a range of novel theoretical interventions into political subjectivity temporality and intergenerational trauma healing

The Fight for Privacy: Protecting Dignity, Identity, and Love in the Digital Age Danielle Keats Citron, 2022-09-13

A crucial book Safiya Noble author of Algorithms of Oppression The essential road map for understanding and defending your right to privacy in the twenty first century Privacy is disappearing From our sex lives to our workout routines the details of our lives once relegated to pen and paper have joined the slipstream of new technology As a MacArthur fellow and distinguished professor of law at the University of Virginia acclaimed civil rights advocate Danielle Citron has spent decades working with lawmakers and stakeholders across the globe to protect what she calls intimate privacy encompassing our bodies health gender and relationships When intimate privacy becomes data corporations know exactly when to flash that ad for a new drug or pregnancy test Social and political forces know how to manipulate what you think and who you trust leveraging sensitive secrets and deepfake videos to ruin or silence opponents And as new technologies invite new violations people have power over one another like never before from revenge porn to blackmail attaching life altering risks to growing up dating online or falling in love A masterful new look at privacy in the twenty first century The Fight for Privacy takes the focus off Silicon Valley moguls to investigate the price we pay as technology migrates deeper into every aspect of our lives entering our bedrooms and our bathrooms and our midnight texts our relationships with friends family lovers and kids and even our relationship with ourselves Drawing on in depth interviews with victims activists and advocates Citron brings this headline issue home for readers by weaving together visceral stories about the countless ways that corporate and individual violators exploit privacy loopholes Exploring why the law has struggled to keep up she reveals how our current system leaves victims particularly women LGBTQ people and marginalized groups shamed and powerless while perpetrators profit warping cultural norms around the world Yet there is a solution to our toxic relationship with technology and privacy fighting for intimate privacy as a civil right Collectively Citron argues citizens lawmakers and corporations have the power to create a new reality where privacy is valued and people are protected as they embrace what technology offers Introducing readers to the trailblazing work of advocates today Citron urges readers to join the fight Your intimate life shouldn t be traded for profit or wielded against you for power it belongs to you With Citron as our guide we can take back control of our data and build a better future for the next ever more digital generation Mathematics Teacher Educators' Intimate Scholarship Elizabeth Suazo-Flores, Signe E. displacement Covering a global range of women writers this book focuses on the psychoanalytic role of literature in helping recover the voices buried by intense pain and suffering and to help those voices be heard Literature brings the unconscious into being and focus reconfiguring life through narration These essays look at the relationship between traumatic experience Freedom to Learn Bruce Macfarlane, 2016-08-12 The freedom of students to learn at university is being eroded by a performative culture that fails to respect their rights to engage and develop as autonomous adults Instead students are being restricted in how they learn when they learn and what they learn by the so called student engagement movement Compulsory attendance registers class contribution grading group project work and reflective learning exercises based on expectations of self disclosure and confession take little account of the rights of students or individual differences between them This new hidden university curriculum is intolerant of students who may prefer to learn informally are reticent shy or simply value their privacy Three forms of student performativity have arisen bodily participative and emotional which threaten the freedom to learn Key themes include A re imagining of student academic freedom The democratic student experience Challenging assumptions of the student engagement movement An examination of university policies and practices Freedom to Learn offers a radically new perspective on academic freedom from a student rights standpoint It analyzes the effects of performative expectations on students drawing on the distinction between negative and positive rights to re frame student academic freedom It argues that students need to be thought of as scholars with rights and that the phrase student centred learning needs to be reclaimed to reflect its original intention to allow students to develop as persons Student rights to non indoctrination reticence in choosing how to learn and in being treated like an adult ought to be central to this process in fostering a democratic rather authoritarian culture of learning and teaching at university Written for an international readership this book will be of great interest to anyone involved in higher education policy and practice drawing on a wide range of historical and contemporary literature related to sociology philosophy and higher education The Contemplative Mind in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Patricia Owen-Smith, 2017-11-30 studies Cover THE CONTEMPLATIVE MIND IN THE SCHOLARSHIP OF TEACHING AND LEARNING Title Copyright Dedication Contents Acknowledgments Introduction Envisioning the Contemplative Commons 1 A Historical Review 2 Contemplative Practices in Higher Education 3 Challenges and Replies to Contemplative Methods 4 Contemplative Research 5 The Contemplative Mind A Vision of Higher Education for the Twenty First Century Coda References Index Digital Passages: Migrant Youth 2.0 Koen Leurs, 2025-10-01 Increasingly young people live online with the vast majority of their social and cultural interactions conducted through means other than face to face conversation How does this transition impact the ways in which young migrants understand negotiate and perform identity That's the question taken up by Digital Passages Migrant Youth 20 a ground breaking analysis of the ways that youth culture online interacts with issues of diaspora gender and belonging Drawing on surveys in depth interviews and ethnography Koen Leurs builds an interdisciplinary portrait of online youth culture and the spaces it opens up for migrant youth to negotiate power relations and to promote intercultural Transitioning Students into Higher Education Angela Jones, Anita Olds, Joanne G. understanding Lisciandro, 2019-12-05 Transitioning Students in Higher Education focuses on the relationship between philosophy pedagogy and practice when designing programs units or courses for transitioning students to new educational spaces in the university environment The term transition is used to describe the academic as well as social movement and acculturation of students into new higher educational spaces This book offers both theoretical perspectives and real world practical examples that reveal the successes and challenges of implementing philosophically driven pedagogies with diverse transitioning cohorts Drawing on examples from Australia New Zealand US and Canada it writes through the relationship between philosophy pedagogy and how it can effectively shape the practice of transition and develop the flourishing student This book is split into three main sub themes Flourishing in Transition Engaging Diverse Cohorts and Challenges for Educators and sits at the intersections between philosophy and pedagogy in the practice of effectively engaging and transitioning different enabling groups This book will be of great interest to postgraduate students researchers and educators working in the areas of enabling or bridging education higher tertiary education distance learning and indigenous as well as culturally diverse Enterludes Nadine G., 2010-07-08 We should talk about love We should talk about lust We should talk about sex cohorts We should talk the aftermath We should talk about the spirit We can talk We must talk Lets converse Nadine G Enterludes is a collection of poetry that depicts a common human experience The reader takes a journey through love misdirection and finding self while exploring the entities one allows to enter ones life Chapter one Love explores the pitter patter we get in our hearts as children it explores the fantasies of love and begins to illustrate how these ideals often contradict the realities of love This section of the book discusses the feelings that love evokes which are often pleasant in nature However it also explores the concept of defining love and identifying whether or not one truly knows real love The ideals of love become more convoluted when lust enters the picture Chapter two Lust illustrates the temptation to move from that which is heart felt to that which is physically felt Lust is often described as a deadly sin Yet it is very alluring and promotes immediate gratification without any thought of consequence Lust is a powerful thought that often leads to actions Chapter three Sex acknowledges the feelings and emotions evoked when temptation wins and actions are taken It discusses a thirst quenched and the pleasures that arise from physical connection It also alludes to the dangers of acting with only the thought of immediate satisfaction without thought of long lasting consequence Chapter four The Aftermath becomes the voice of reason as one has to face the plethora of consequences that surround each decision IT explores the law of nature every action has a reaction Taking action of lust can cause consequences that can taint the beauty of love The dilemma then arises how does one know whether their actions are based on love or based on lust Chapter Five Spirit allows for the true definition of love to be explored by utilizing the lessons learned throughout the journey A higher level of consciousness is explored as both positive and negative repercussions are deconstructed Love begins to be redefined and no longer partialized Spirit teaches a simple lesson what one allows to enter into the home will dictate how one lives It sparks the questions What is important to you What will you continue to allow into your life Is it a spirit of love Is it a spirit of lust Is it a spirit of sex Is it a spirit of self Is it a spirit of God What are your Enterludes The author Nadine G states penetration is lasting and deep touching every corner of your soul The truth the physical affects the body mind and spirit She encourages the reader to converse embrace your own Enterludes as life lessons and be mindful of all that enters your life The purpose of the book is to spark dialogue about love lust sex the aftermath and the spirit In her words lets converse Speaking from the Body Angie Chabram, Adela de la Torre, 2008-11-20 In compelling first person accounts Latinas speak freely about dealing with serious health episodes as patients family caregivers or friends They show how the complex interweaving of gender class and race impacts the health status of Latinas and how family spirituality and culture affect the experience of illness Here are stories of Latinas living with conditions common to many hypertension breast cancer obesity diabetes depression osteoarthritis rheumatoid arthritis dementia Parkinson's lupus and hyper hypothyroidism By bringing these narratives out from the shadows of private lives they demonstrate how such ailments form part of the larger whole of Latina lives that encompasses family community the medical profession and society They show how personal identity and community intersect to affect the interpretation of illness compliance with treatment and the utilization of allopathic medicine alternative therapies and traditional healing practices The book also includes a retrospective analysis of the narratives and a discussion of Latina health issues and policy recommendations These Latina cultural narratives illustrate important aspects of the social contexts and real world family relationships crucial to understanding illness Speaking from the Body is a trailblazing collection of personal testimonies that integrates professional and personal perspectives and shows that our understanding of health remains incomplete if Latina cultural narratives are not included Deepening Community Paul Born, 2014-03-10 Community shapes our identity quenches our thirst for belonging and bolsters our physical mental emotional and economic health But in the chaos of modern life community ties have become unraveled leaving many feeling afraid or alone in the crowd grasping at shallow substitutes for true community In this thoughtful and moving book Paul Born describes the four pillars of deep community sharing our stories taking the time to enjoy one another taking care of one another and working together for a better world To show the role each of these plays he shares his own stories as a child of refugees and as a longtime community activist It s up to us to create community Born shows that the opportunity is right in front of us if we have the courage and conviction to Intimate Deception Dr. Sheri Keffer, 2018-03-20 Nothing destroys trust like sexual betrayal Beyond broken pursue it vows a woman who discovers that the man she loves has been viewing pornography or having an affair must deal with devastating blows to her self image and self worth She must grapple with the fact that the man she thought she knew has lied and deceived her She may even bear the brunt of shame and judgment when the people around her find out Drawing from her experience both as a marriage and family therapist and a woman who personally experienced the devastation of sexual betrayal Dr Sheri Keffer walks women impacted by betrayal through the pain and toward recovery She explains how the trauma of betrayal affects our minds bodies spirits and sexuality She offers practical tools for dealing with emotional triggers and helps women understand the realities of sexual addiction And she shows women how to practice self care develop healthy boundaries protect themselves from abuse or manipulation and find freedom from the burden of shame and guilt
