Espinola, 2013-01-31 Catherin Alexander Love on the Internet is about two romantically driven people that have been for the greatest part of their lives unlucky in love They see the romance in the rose opening its bloom for the world to see the beauty held within as well as in the ability for two people with romantic hearts to find each other enjoying the poetic beauty of the world around them However each feels disappointed in the fact that they have not found the person that brings love's star into focus Catherin a hopeful romantic is a woman that craves romance enjoys being a woman and loves being feminine She envisions herself in romantic scenarios with a man that can hold her heart in his hands capable of loving her for the rest of her life On the other hand Alexander is not only a man of action an individual that has always enjoyed adventure never missing an opportunity to feel the adrenaline run through his veins but also a true romantic and a Southern gentleman He believes strength is best found in the way in which a man loves the woman in his life and in the way he lives his life as an example for others to follow After experiencing another bad date he decides to follow the advice of a friend and join an Internet dating site Catherin experiencing a similar situation over six thousand miles away does the same allowing them both to find a love that bridges two completely different worlds uniting their hearts forever together Love and Intimacy in Online Cross-Cultural Relationships Wilasinee Pananakhonsab, 2016-11-16 This book challenges assumptions about the motivations that drive women from relatively poor developing countries to use intermarriage dating sites to find partners from relatively wealthy developed countries It is generally assumed that economic deprivation or economic opportunities are the main factors but this book instead focuses on the work of women's imagination in online cross cultural relationships including the role of desire love and intimacy The experiences of Thai women are used to explore how they initiate develop and maintain love and intimacy with Western men across distance and time The book shows that in the absence of opportunities to search and meet partners from geographically distant parts of the world the technology of the internet offers new ways of searching for and managing relationships and has significant consequences for local experiences and expectations of love and partnering The
