

Grade 6: Biography Rubric - Written Report

Criteria	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
The biography identifies why this person is important.	The writing shows clear and thorough insight into the person's character (motivations, opinions, personality traits, achievements and obstacles) and supports the writer's choice of outstanding leader.	Information about the person's character is evident which clearly support the writer's choice of outstanding leader.	Information about the person's character is provided which loosely connect to the writer's choice of outstanding leader.	Limited information about the person's character is provided which may not clearly connect, or only superficially connects, to the writer's choice of outstanding leader.
The biography follows relevant and accurate events in chronological order.	Strong and insightful descriptions of accurate and relevant key facts, events and examples are given in logical order, which reveal the subject's character.	Accurate and relevant key facts, events and/or examples are given in logical order, which reveal the subject's character.	Key facts, events and/or examples are simplistic and loosely connected the subject's character. A logical order is somewhat maintained.	Facts, events and/or examples are limited and may not connect to the subject's character. Events are difficult to follow as a logical order has not been maintained.
The tone of the text is engaging and descriptive.	The tone of the text is thoughtful and clearly supports the writer's purpose. The writer effectively maintains an engaging voice and provides a vivid portrait into the subject.	The tone of the text supports the writer's purpose. Primarily an engaging voice is used that provides an overall positive image of the subject.	The tone of the text is recognizable but lacks the depth that is necessary to support the writer's purpose.	The tone of the text is lacking and may not support the writer's purpose.
Grade-appropriate writing conventions are followed. (This will be assessed prior to teacher editing.)	Spelling is generally correct, even on more difficult words and punctuation is accurate. A thorough understanding and consistent application of capitalization skills are present. Grammar is correct and contributes to clarity and style. The biography is very close to being ready to publish.	Spelling is usually correct, but more difficult words are problematic. End punctuation is usually correct; internal punctuation is sometimes missing/wrong. Most words are capitalized correctly. Problems with grammar are not serious enough to confuse meaning. Moderate editing is required by the teacher to polish the text for publication.	Spelling errors are somewhat apparent. Punctuation is sometimes missing or incorrect. Capitalization errors are somewhat apparent. Several errors in grammar are evident but do not usually affect meaning. Some editing is required by the teacher to polish the text for publication.	Spelling errors are frequent, even on high frequency words. Punctuation is often missing or incorrect. Capitalization is random. Errors in grammar are very noticeable, frequent, and affect meaning. Extensive editing is required by the teacher to polish the text for publication.

Robert Anthony Wright

Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography:

Virtual Sovereignty Robert Anthony Wright, 2004 September 11th resurrected an historic sovereignty debate one that burst into full flame when Canadians led by Prime Minister Jean Chrétien made the unprecedented decision not to fight alongside their American allies in Iraq This book explores the relationship between modern Canadian nationalism cultural policy popular discourse and the lives of ordinary Canadians Dr Robert Wright argues that Canadians understanding of art culture unity identity and sovereignty are formed by conflicting forces out of conditions of contradiction paradox and irony Canadians have developed remarkably sophisticated cultural and political strategies for deriving pleasure prosperity and peace of mind Living with contradiction has always been a fact of Canadian life paradox of tolerance has been the critical framework that has made this living not only possible but the envy of the world Canadian Journal of African Studies

, 1998 Choice's Outstanding Academic Titles, 1998-2002 Rebecca Ann Bartlett, 2003 TESOL, the Times Literary

Supplement, 1974 Limelight Katja Lee, 2020-02-20 At the heart of fame is the tricky business of image management Over the last 115 years the celebrity autobiography has emerged as a popular and useful tool for that project In Limelight Katja Lee examines the memoirs of famous Canadian women like L M Montgomery Nellie McClung the Dionne Quintuplets Margaret Trudeau and Shania Twain to trace the rise of celebrity autobiography in Canada and the role gender has played in the rise to fame and in writing about that experience Arguing that the celebrity autobiography is always negotiating historically specific conditions Lee charts a history of celebrity in English Canada and the conditions that shape the way women access and experience fame These contexts shed light on the stories women tell about their lives and the public images they cultivate in their autobiographies As strategies of self representation change and the pressure to represent the private life escalates the celebrity autobiography undergoes distinct shifts in form function and content during the period examined in this study Limelight Canadian Women and the Rise of Celebrity Autobiography is the first book to explore the history and development of the celebrity autobiography and offers compelling evidence of the critical role of gender and nation in the way fame is experienced and represented A Peter Gzowski Reader Peter Gzowski, 2002 The man who affected the reading habits of millions of Canadians gives us the work of a lifetime Long before he became a radio voice Peter Gzowski was a writer This book is an anthology of his best writing over a career spanning more than 50 years starting with pieces from his time writing for The Varsity and his early days as a young reporter caught in a forest fire Each entry forms a new chapter and typically begins with an introduction from Peter Gzowski today setting it in context When he was a young writer at Maclean's in 1959 he did a piece on Gordie Howe which still stands up today In the same period he wrote articles on racism in Saskatchewan This Is Our Alabama and in 1961 a profile of an interesting young man named Trudeau Later we follow him into the world of his books with choice excerpts from his best work From his book on the Edmonton Oilers The Game of Our Lives for example there's his famous piece on skating and another much quoted passage on Wayne Gretzky

Look for choice pieces from The Morningside Papers 1984 95 and three pieces from his autobiography The Private Voice and many pieces from here and there including Song for Canada which he wrote with Ian Tyson Above all look for exciting new work never before collected in book form including a thrilling account of sailing in Antigua in seas so high that the boat is dismasted at the mercy of the waves And there is a lovely piece about his earliest boyhood days growing up in what was then Galt and by contrast a look at Canada today This is a cornucopia of Gzowski selected by Peter himself that is a tasty blend of the personal and the objective and always good reading From the Hardcover edition

Enjoying the Beat of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography

In a world taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony created by the published term often diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography Introduction

In this digital age, the convenience of accessing information at our fingertips has become a necessity. Whether its research papers, eBooks, or user manuals, PDF files have become the preferred format for sharing and reading documents. However, the cost associated with purchasing PDF files can sometimes be a barrier for many individuals and organizations. Thankfully, there are numerous websites and platforms that allow users to download free PDF files legally. In this article, we will explore some of the best platforms to download free PDFs. One of the most popular platforms to download free PDF files is Project Gutenberg. This online library offers over 60,000 free eBooks that are in the public domain. From classic literature to historical documents, Project Gutenberg provides a wide range of PDF files that can be downloaded and enjoyed on various devices. The website is user-friendly and allows users to search for specific titles or browse through different categories. Another reliable platform for downloading Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography free PDF files is Open Library. With its vast collection of over 1 million eBooks, Open Library has something for every reader. The website offers a seamless experience by providing options to borrow or download PDF files. Users simply need to create a free account to access this treasure trove of knowledge. Open Library also allows users to contribute by uploading and sharing their own PDF files, making it a collaborative platform for book enthusiasts. For those interested in academic resources, there are websites dedicated to providing free PDFs of research papers and scientific articles. One such website is Academia.edu, which allows researchers and scholars to share their work with a global audience. Users can download PDF files of research papers, theses, and dissertations covering a wide range of subjects. Academia.edu also provides a platform for discussions and networking within the academic community. When it comes to downloading Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography free PDF files of magazines, brochures, and catalogs, Issuu is a popular choice. This digital publishing platform hosts a vast collection of publications from around the world. Users can search for specific titles or explore various categories and genres. Issuu offers a seamless reading experience with its user-friendly interface and allows users to download PDF files for offline reading. Apart from dedicated platforms, search engines also play a crucial role in finding free PDF files. Google, for instance, has an advanced search feature that allows users to filter results by file type. By specifying the file type as "PDF," users can find websites that offer free PDF downloads on a specific topic. While downloading Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography free PDF files is convenient, it's important to note that copyright laws must be respected. Always ensure that the PDF files you download are legally available for free. Many authors and publishers voluntarily provide free PDF versions of their work, but it's essential to be cautious and verify the authenticity of the source before downloading Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography. In conclusion, the internet offers numerous platforms and websites that allow users to download free PDF files legally. Whether it's classic literature, research papers, or magazines, there is something for everyone. The platforms mentioned in this article, such as Project Gutenberg, Open Library, Academia.edu, and Issuu, provide access to a vast collection of PDF files. However, users should always be cautious and verify the legality of the source before downloading Ontario Writing Rubric Autobiography any PDF files. With these platforms, the world of PDF downloads is just a click away.
