mounting concern that the continent's so called ungoverned spaces will provide safe havens for terrorists intent on destroying Western civilization The Review of African Political Economy has engaged extensively with issues of conflict and security both analysing on going conflicts and often challenging predominant modes of explanation and interpretation This Review of African Political Economy Reader provides a timely comprehensive and critical contribution to contemporary debates about conflict and security on the continent The first section covers some of the continent's main post Cold War conflicts and demonstrates their global connections The articles also discuss the so called resource curse as well as the global arms trade and reveal the complexities of the relationship between the economic and the political The second section focuses on security as part of post Cold War global governance and discusses the effects of liberal peace building as well as the link between development assistance and the war on terror The final section examines life as it continues in conditions of war and shows how insecurity reconfigures urban space transforms social order identities and authority Rita Abrahamsen is Professor in the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs University of Ottawa Canada Published in association with ROAPE ROAPE African Readers Series Editors Tunde Zack Williams Ray Bush
