Seek My Face Dr. Arthur Green, 2011-06-29 The new Jewish spirituality lies somewhere between God's elusive presence in our world and our search for authentic language to describe it Personal journeys seldom have a clear beginning and they rarely have a definite end If there is an end to our journey surely it is one that leads to some measure of wisdom and thence back to its own beginning But somewhere along the way we come to realize that we must know where we have been going why we have been going Most of all we come to understand as best we can the One who sends us on our way from the Introduction Rabbi Arthur Green leads us on a journey of discovery to seek God the world and ourselves One of the most influential Jewish thinkers of our time Green has created a roadmap of meaning for our lives in the light of Jewish mysticism using the Hebrew letters that make up the divine name Yod Reality at the beginning God as the oneness of being at the outset before it unfolds into our universe Heh Creation and God's presence in the world A renewed faith in God as Creator has powerful implications for us today Vav Revelation the central faith claim of Judaism and the claim it makes on our lives Heh Redemption and our return to God through the life of Torah and by participating in the ongoing repair of the world A personal and honest framework of understanding for the seeker this revised and updated edition of a classic sheds new light on our search for the divine presence in our everyday lives

The Book of Words Rabbi Lawrence Kushner, 2011-04-01 According to the Hebrew Bible God made the world with words God just spoke and the world became reality The Aramaic for I create as I speak is avara k davara or in magician's language abracadabra This does not protect words from the numbing effects of overuse in any religious tradition We need to dust off the words shake away the accretions wonder again about what they originally might have meant and enable ourselves to live in the word from the Introduction With creativity and poetry and occasional heresy Kushner dusts off thirty classical Hebrew words shakes them free of the effects of generations of overuse re-translates them and liberates their ancient holy power The result is a contemporary spiritual guide for your personal religious life According to the Hebrew Bible God made the world with words God just spoke and the world came into being Words therefore are not merely sounds signifying something else they are instruments of creation primary reality itself They need only to be read spoken and interpreted And to know them is to know reality itself Kushner has designed the book himself seamlessly blending graphics and content In doing so he evokes the aesthetics of an ancient manuscript and a vision of our power to shape the future Each finely crafted chapter begins with a Hebrew word and Kushner's provocative English translation At the bottom of the page is a transliteration of the Hebrew along with its more customary English rendering In addition to his own intriguing definition he includes a biblical citation anchoring the word along with a more recent text showing the word's evolution Finally we are offered a personal meditative exercise designed to enable you to live in the word
