Library, 1898 Wisdom Christology in the Gospel of John Dustin R. Smith, 2024-04-18 This volume contends that the Gospel of John presents the most thorough and robust Wisdom Christology of all the New Testament books Wisdom Christology the christological concept that applies the roles characteristics and functions of God's personified wisdom to the man Jesus Christ is displayed to be skillfully interwoven throughout all twenty-one chapters of the Fourth Gospel starting with the famous prologue In response to the prevailing tendency among interpreters to project postbiblical understandings of Jesus from the fourth and fifth century church councils back into the Gospel of John this volume shows that a more fitting context emerges from Jewish Wisdom literature By situating the Johannine Jesus in his first century Jewish context readers can appreciate John's commitment to monotheism and Jesus' role as the Father's highly empowered human agent fully embodying Lady Wisdom A Light to the Nations Stanley M. Burgess, Paul W. Lewis, 2017-03-02 The essays in this volume which are written by friends colleagues and former students are dedicated to Gary B McGee as a memorial to his life work and service As a professor with a clear calling to teach he modeled this passion at the Open Bible College Des Moines Iowa Central Bible College Springfield Missouri and the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary Springfield Missouri He exuded the understanding that quality teaching superior scholarship a genuine Pentecostal spirituality and an irenic spirit can and should go together Within the title of this volume A Light to the Nations two aspects become clear First each person is called to be a light to the nations as Gary McGee modeled Second and foundational to the first is the reality that Jesus Christ is the ultimate light and our energies study discussions and life in general should rely on this fact As a reflection of Gary McGee's life and ministry these two aspects are focused through three lenses which are the three sections of this volume Ecumenism Missions and Pentecostalism The essays represent a diversity of subjects and denote various explorations by colleagues and friends of Gary B McGee New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L. James, 2017-09-27 What will the final state of the redeemed look like Throughout the history of the church conceptions of the final state have tended to minimize the promise of the new heavens and new earth In contrast to the historical dominance of spiritual heavenly non-temporal conceptions of the final state the last two decades have witnessed a rise in conceptions that include the redemption of material earthly and temporal reality. These new creation conceptions have included proposals regarding the fulfillment of Old Testament land promises. In New Creation Eschatology and the Land, Steven L. James argues that in recent new creation conceptions of the final state there is a logical inconsistency between the use of Old Testament texts to inform a renewed earth and the exclusion of the territory of Israel from that renewed earth. By examining a select group of new creationists, James shows that the exclusion of the territorial restoration of Israel in a new creation conception fails to appreciate the role of the particular territory in Old Testament prophetic texts and results in an inconsistent new creationism. Trinitarian Self and Salvation Scott

Harrower, 2012-01-13 In 1967 Karl Rahner famously wrote 'The economic Trinity is the immanent Trinity and vice versa'. From that time onwards, Rahner's Rule has become the norm for conceiving the relationship between the Trinity in the economy of salvation and God's eternal inner life. Evangelical theologians currently employ Rahner's Rule in a variety of ways. One of the most popular is the Strict Realist Reading, whereby trinitarian relationships in salvation history are taken to mirror eternal relationships within God. This book brings this norm into conversation with the witness of Scripture in order to assess its viability. In doing so, it highlights troubling issues that arise from the application of the Strict Realist Reading of Rahner's Rule to the narrative of Luke Acts. This book suggests that the Strict Realist Reading can be shown to be a questionable basis for our doctrine of God's inner life. Biblical Theology of the New Testament Bernhard Weiss, 1893 The Story of Scripture Matthew Y. Emerson, 2017-11-15 The Story of Scripture provides practical, Christ-centered ways that we can read the Bible as one book. Reconsidering Creation Ex Nihilo in Genesis 1 Nathan J. Chambers, 2020-11-15 There is a broad consensus among biblical scholars that creation ex nihilo from nothing is a late Hellenistic concept with little inherent connection to Genesis 1 and other biblical creation texts. In this book, Nathan J. Chambers forces us to reconsider the question, arguing in favor of reading this chapter of the Bible in terms of ex nihilo creation and demonstrating that there is a sound basis for the early Christian development of the doctrine. Drawing on the theology of Augustine of Hippo and Thomas Aquinas, Chambers considers what the ex nihilo doctrine means and does in classical Christian dogma. He examines ancient Near Eastern cosmological texts that provide a potential context for reading Genesis 1. Recognizing the distance between the possible historical and theological frameworks for interpreting the text, he illuminates how this doctrine developed within early Christian thought as a consequence of the church's commitment to reading Genesis 1 as part of Christian Scripture. Through original close readings of the chapter that engage critically with the work of Jon Levenson, Hermann Gunkel, and Brevard Childs, Chambers demonstrates that far from precluding interpretive possibilities, reading Genesis 1 in terms of creation from nothing opens up a variety of interpretive avenues that have largely been overlooked in contemporary biblical scholarship. Timely and innovative, this book makes the case for a new or recovered framework for reading Genesis 1 that will appeal to biblical studies scholars and seminarians.
