Resources in Education ,2001 Race to the Bottom Michael V. McGill, 2015-04-03 How did the country that invented the modern public school end up embracing policies that weaken it What alternatives are there to current corporate reform policies How can we give America's children an education that will truly prepare them and our nation for the challenges of tomorrow In Race to the Bottom McGill successfully traces the emergence of corporate reform and describes how its tenets run counter to what he believes are the key elements of a high quality education McGill draws from a wealth of experience as a school superintendent for over 40 years including his tenure in Scarsdale during the 2001 district wide boycott of New York State standardized tests Showing how strong leaders working with teachers and the community have been able to strengthen schools the author offers a model of school reform that will prepare students for the 21st Century Resources in Education ,1982 Creating Strategic Partnerships Marilyn J. Amey, Pamela L. Eddy, 2023-07-03 What are the characteristics and conditions that lead to successful educational partnerships What can we learn from partnerships that fail cannot be sustained over time or cease to benefit their partners This book serves as a guide to the successful implementation of partnerships It provides the context and tools for readers who are responding to the increasing demands of policy makers funders and institutional leaders to use partnerships to address local state and federal issues achieve external mandates meet public or internal agendas or pursue international collaborations This guide provides an evidence based framework for institutional and organizational leaders to develop the vision shared values and norms to achieve the partnership capital that will sustain an enduring relationship It offers a three phase model of the development process of collaboration together with a tool box for those charged with partnering and leading organizational change and includes a template for both creating new partnerships and sustaining existing ones The authors start by differentiating between traditional often ad hoc partnerships and strategic partnerships that align organizational strategy with partnership actions and by identifying the importance of moving beyond incremental or surface first order change to develop deep second order change through which underlying structures and operations are questioned and new processes emerge due to the partnership They offer analyses and understandings of seven key components for success exploring motivations developing partner relationships communicating and framing purpose creating collaborative structures and resources leading various partnership stages generating partnership capital and implementing strategies for sustaining partnerships Each chapter concludes with a case study to provide more understanding of the ideas presented and for use in training or classes This guide is addressed to policy makers and educational leaders college administrators and their non profit and business partners to enable them to lead and create strategic partnerships and facilitate organizational change Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher
