based instruction Beyond the Textbook Using Trade Books and Databases to Teach Our Nation's History Grades 7-12 will fill the gap in today's middle and high school classrooms to simultaneously engage students in effective literacy skill exercises and teach our nation's history. Authored by three experienced former public school teachers, these ready-made lesson plans for classroom teachers and school librarians make planning easy for implementation in a social studies, history, or English classroom. The book covers topics from Native Americans to the Louisiana Purchase, offering evidence-based reading strategies throughout that can hold adolescents' attention and develop their vocabulary and comprehension. Each chapter will include bibliographic information, suggested grade-level Information Literacy and National Social Studies Standards, before, during, and after reading strategies, database integration for classroom use, and suggested read-alikes. Users will find the standards and evidenced-based research perfectly applicable in today's classrooms.

Standards-based Activities with Scoring Rubrics: Performance-based projects, 2002 Teaching Historical Fiction with Ready-Made Literature Circles for Secondary Readers Carianne Bernadowski, Kelly Morgano, 2011-10-24 This comprehensive step-by-step guide provides practical guidance to implement literature circles in any social studies or language arts classroom. This book provides a how-to guide for a novice or veteran teacher or library media specialist who is interested in implementing literature circles with high-interest texts. After an introduction that covers the research findings on literature circles and supplies a framework for implementation of literature circles in the classroom and library, Teaching Historical Fiction with Ready-Made Literature Circles for Secondary Readers presents 14 selected historical fiction titles for grades 7 through 12 that lend themselves perfectly to interdisciplinary teaching. Each selection is accompanied by bibliographic information, an annotation, vocabulary words, discussion questions, and guided reading questions, as well as lessons for before, during, and after reading. The titles included cover many historical time periods and topics that can easily align with state and national standards. Just as importantly, these are texts that a history teacher or literature instructor would find beneficial to use with students.

How to Teach Balanced Reading and Writing Bonnie Burns, 2006-05-16 Any teacher can use this book regardless of the reading program a district may be using. It brings the various practices of reading and writing together in a practical and useful way. Betty Ann Collinge, Kindergarten/First Grade Teacher, Green Acres Elementary School, North Haven, CT.
