Next Of Kin The Family In Chicano Cultural Politics:

Next of Kin Richard T. Rodríguez, 2009-06-16 A feminist analysis of the Chicano family that sees it as a site of political struggle with patriarchal masculinity nationalism and homophobia Autobiography in Black and Brown Michael Nieto Garcia, 2014-11-15 Richard Wright was the grandson of slaves Richard Rodriguez the son of immigrants One black the other brown each author prominently displays his race in the title of his autobiography Black Boy and Brown Wright was a radical left winger while Rodriguez is widely viewed as a reactionary Despite their differences Michael Nieto Garcia points out the two share a preoccupation with issues of agency class struggle ethnic identity the search for community and the quest for social justice Garcia's study the first to compare these two widely read writers argues that ethnic autobiography reflects the complexity of ethnic identity revealing a narrative self that is bound to a visible ethnicity yet is also protean and free These autobiographies according to Garcia exemplify the tensions and contradictions inherent in identity In their presentation of the self we see the rejection not only of essentialized notions of ethnic authenticity but also of any conception of an ethnic self that is not also communally derived The image reflected in the mirror of autobiography also reminds us that consciousness itself is altered by our reading and that the construction of modern ethnicity is shaped to a considerable extent by print culture

Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicanx family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book's discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicanx family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships

The Oxford Handbook of Latino Studies Ilan Stavans, 2020-03-03 At the beginning of the third decade of the 21st century the Latino minority the biggest and fastest growing in the United States is at a crossroads Is assimilation taking place in comparable ways to previous immigrant groups Are the links to the countries of origin being redefined in the age of contested globalism How are Latinos changing America and how is America changing Latinos The Oxford Handbook of Latino Studies reflects on these questions offering a sweeping exploration of Latinas and Latinos complex experiences in the United States Edited by leading expert Ilan Stavans the handbook traces the emergence of Latino studies as a vibrant and interdisciplinary field of research starting in the 1980s assessing the current state of the discipline while suggesting new paths for exploration With its twenty three essays and a conversation by established and emerging scholars the book discusses various aspects of Latino
