Morocco, Tunisia, and Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs, Sylvia I. Bergh, 2024-03-19 This Open Access Pivot represents the first extensive exploration of social accountability within the Arab world following the 2011 Arab uprisings Drawing on insights from development studies comparative politics and Middle East studies the authors explore the evolution of accountability as a governance concept review theories on social accountability's role in improving public service delivery and categorize types of social accountability initiatives highlighting respective strengths and weaknesses Detailed country chapters provide a solid basis for the comparative approach which reveals major variations in meanings of accountability mobilization strategies and official responses rooted in the specific sociopolitical contexts of each country Moreover the book analyzes the influence of political and economic elites as well as the nature of popular mobilisation on accountability dynamics in the region The authors conclude by discerning differences and commonalities across cases and offer recommendations for policymakers donors and practitioners seeking to enhance the effectiveness of social accountability initiatives They address challenges such as the lack of enforcement mechanisms the difficulty of scaling up initiatives and the ambiguous effects of international interventions This pioneering Pivot fills a significant void in the study of social accountability in the MENA region and provides a compelling framework for future research and policy design making it an indispensable resource for experts and scholars

The Promise and Perils of Transnationalization Benjamin Stachursky, 2013 To date most constructivist international relations studies have characterized the influence of transnationalism on domestic forms of activism as uniformly positive In particular transnational interactions are viewed as positive factors for the development and daily impact of gender activism Benjamin Stachursky's book questions the unvarying positive view of transnationalism on domestic forms of activism arguing for a more nuanced analysis that permits an understanding of the enabling and restricting effects of transnationalism Stachursky also challenges the dominant view of civil society as normatively homogenous by illustrating the complex relationships and conflicts that exist between NGOs and other civil society representatives He grounds his theoretical arguments with a comparative case study on women's rights activism in Egypt and Iran which uses semi structured interviews with women's rights activists in the two countries and analysis of documentation by local political and societal actors Looking at the period from the mid 1980s up to present developments such as the Arab Spring Stachursky analyzes the emergence and development of NGO activism in Egypt and Iran the social political and legal context of NGO activism and key domestic debates on the impact and legitimacy of the actors operating in women's rights activism By closely examining the ambivalent relationship between transnationalism and human rights organizations Stachursky proves that transnationalization has both enabling and constraining effects on the domestic legitimacy of women's rights activists and on their ability to create meaningful social and political change

Handbook of Research on Civic Engagement and Social Change in Contemporary Society Chhabra, Susheel, 2018-02-23 Outreach and engagement initiatives are crucial in promoting community development and social change This can be achieved through a number of methods including public policy and urban development The Handbook of Research on Civic Engagement and Social Change in Contemporary Society is a critical scholarly resource that examines the unexplored field of applying social change to civic engagement in an effort to enlarge public welfare activities Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as civic education sustainable development and child labor this publication is geared towards academicians researchers and students seeking current research on civic engagement and public welfare Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in Arabic Abeer Abdulaziz AL-Sarrani, 2016-03-25 This book explores the challenges of cross cultural translation of American literary works into Arabic which I argue have prevented many nineteenth century literary works from being translated into Arabic I have used the Arabic translations of Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin and an abridged English text accompanying one of the translations as a case study Since most of the Arabic translations of English and especially American literary works are merely linguistic oriented ones I reinforce the importance of adopting a period specific cultural oriented approach that maintains the cultural context of American literary works including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements during the literary translation into the Arabic culture I start with discussing the internationalization of American works and the importance of a cultural reading of these works Reviewing many translations of English and American works in general I categorize the challenges of cross cultural literary translation from English into Arabic into the following cultural religious geopolitical and gender based ones While I am not calling for accurate cross cultural literary translations since it is impossible however I am advocating for faithful translations which maintain the literary text's cultural and historical contexts The accuracy of a literary translation depends on the amount of linguistic skill a translator has while the faithfulness of a literary translation is based upon the translator's sincere effort to include the literary text's entire cultural context including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements Using Uncle Tom's Cabin as a case study I discuss how the previous challenges had negatively affected the translation process of the work Despite the fact the work has been translated seven times into Arabic due to the linguistic oriented approach the historical and cultural significance of Stowe's novel has not yet been introduced to Arab readers through translation Due to the current era of globalization that demands individuals to have multicultural knowledge and understanding and due to the recent cultural and translation projects of literary works from English into Arabic this book reinforces the importance and possibility of addressing the cultural religious geopolitical and gender based challenges while using Uncle Tom's Cabin as an example

Gender and Diversity in the Middle East and North Africa Zahia Smail Salhi, 2013-09-13 The images of women in chadors or burqas as contrasted with images of belly dancers which circulate today as representations of Muslim Middle Eastern women do not fluctuate from the images propagated by Orientalist paintings and colonial photographs which also offer contrasting representations of the veiled thus secluded and the naked or semi naked thus eroticised Muslim Oriental woman

As well as challenging the prevailing stereotypes of the Middle Eastern and North African women the book aims to highlight the element of diversity which characterises the lives of these women and the regions to which they belong The sense that most of the Middle Eastern and North African countries are Muslim does confer a common identity a distinction from others that may serve to bridge wide social cultural and economic differences among them However it is also important to stress that significant elements other than Islam contribute to the making of MENA societies and women s cultural identities This book was published as a special issue of the British Journal of Middle Eastern Studies

Global Best Practices for CSO, NGO, and Other Nonprofit Boards BoardSource,2018-03-28 An ideal resource for boards everywhere There are at least 10 million Civil Society Organizations CSO s in the world each of them with a board composed of individuals doing their best to govern well and wisely There is no single model of governance to emulate but are there universal principles and practices that can help boards everywhere perform at the highest level This book takes us for a trip around the world to look at what is working for boards Its discoveries will help not only boards but also nonprofit staff leaders seeking to assist their boards to optimal performance and capacity builders looking to strengthen their civil society sector Even if your organizational concerns extend no further than city boundaries this book is for you One of the greatest governance challenges today is a lack of diversity on the board This can seriously hamper an organization s ability to realize mission and to understand and serve its community Reading this book will provide a greater understanding of how the cultural context affects governance and will sensitize the reader to different ways of thinking about governance Global Best Practices For CSO NGO and Other Nonprofit Boards presents case studies from different parts of the world that illustrate effective practice identifies and discusses interesting and significant differences and explores global governance trends with implications for us all Tests for universal truths about roles responsibilities and practices using criteria established by BoardSource the premier voice on nonprofit governance Provides information that builds exceptional nonprofit boards Discusses cultural differences in governance that will help all boards to better function in increasingly diverse environments Offers inspiration to NGO boards in any part of civil society Reflects on the future of governance worldwide If you re a capacity builder a board member or an executive leader looking for guidance on governance this is the book you ll want to have on hand

Interpreting the Middle East David Sorenson,2018-04-19 Contemporary approaches to comparative studies of the Middle East increasingly recognize how globalization and regional mass communication have blurred differences across countries Populations travel across national borders and compare narratives about political change economic futures and the role of the outside world in shaping their lives Organized by five principal themes of a regional overview politics economic development social context and international issues Interpreting the Middle East provides a vibrant introduction to the Middle East that is compatible with this regionalist perspective Invited authorities contribute insightful and accessible original discussions of central headline fresh issues such as the aftermath of the Iraq war Iran s regional ambitions developments in the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the global politics of Middle East oil gender and religion Section introductions by the editor integrate the contributions and suggested readings a glossary and a biographical list of key persons provide helpful guidance for readers The Politics of Art Hanan Toukan,2021-06-08 Over the last three decades a new generation of conceptual artists has come to the fore in the Arab Middle East As wars peace treaties sanctions and large scale economic developments have reshaped the region this cohort of cultural producers has also found themselves at the center of intergenerational debates on the role of art in society Central to these cultural debates is a steady stream of support from North American and European funding organizations resources that only increased with the start of the Arab uprisings in the early 2010s The Politics of Art offers an unprecedented look into the entanglement of art and international politics in Beirut Ramallah and Amman to understand the aesthetics of material production within liberal economies Hanan Toukan outlines the political and social functions of transnationally connected and internationally funded arts organizations and initiatives and reveals how the production of art within global frameworks can contribute to hegemonic structures even as it is critiquing them or how it can be counterhegemonic even when it first appears not to be In so doing Toukan proposes not only a new way of reading contemporary art practices as they situate themselves globally but also a new way of reading the domestic politics of the region from the vantage point of art Routledge Handbook of NGOs and International Relations Thomas Davies,2019-04-09 Offering insights from pioneering new perspectives in addition to well established traditions of research this Handbook considers the activities not only of advocacy groups in the environmental feminist human rights humanitarian and peace sectors but also the array of religious professional and business associations that make up the wider non governmental organization NGO community Including perspectives from multiple world regions the book takes account of institutions in the Global South alongside better known structures of the Global North International contributors from a range of disciplines cover all the major aspects of research into NGOs in International Relations to present a comprehensive overview of the historical evolution of NGOs the range of structural forms and international networks coverage of major theoretical perspectives illustrations of how NGOs are influential in every prominent issue area of contemporary International Relations evaluation of the significant regional variations among NGOs and how regional contexts influence the nature and impact of NGOs analysis of the ways NGOs address authoritarianism terrorism and challenges to democracy and how NGOs handle concerns surrounding their own legitimacy and accountability Exploring contrasting theories regional dimensions and a wide range of contemporary challenges facing NGOs this Handbook will be essential reading for students scholars and practitioners alike Democratic Peace Across the Middle East Yakub Halabi,2016-05-24 From Tunisia to Egypt and from Israel to Iran the debates surrounding the concept of democracy in the Middle East are never straightforward This has been particularly evident since the events of 2009 in Iran and the uprisings across the Arab world in late 2010 and 2011 Against this backdrop Democratic Peace across the Middle East critically analyses the prospects for democracy throughout the region specifically asking whether political and social modernisation are absolute preconditions for democratic peace to take hold in the region or whether democracy without modernisation might be enough It explores the dynamics between neo patriarchy and Islam on the one hand and democratisation and modernisation on the other and also considers the prospect of the political accommodation of opposition groups Incorporating an analysis of a variety of key dynamics which affect each Middle Eastern country in turn such as tribal and sectarian identity Islamism and the structure of political party systems this book will appeal to those researching the Middle East and its patterns of rule     A Global Idea

Mayssoun Sukarieh, 2023-08-15 A Global Idea outlines how youth as shown by the Arab Spring uprisings and subsequent state responses became a prominent social and political category during the first two decades of the twenty first century in the Middle East Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interview data and textual analysis Mayssoun Sukarieh explains that the spread of youth as an important category is linked to the operation of a global youth development complex a diverse transnational network of state private sector civil society and international development aid organizations that worked through key urban areas such as Washington DC Amman and Dubai In its analysis of the arrival extension and embedding of the youth development complex in the Middle East during this period A Global Idea addresses a broader question that is of global and not just regional concern How are certain ideas that are central to the working and reproduction of global capitalism able to travel the world so that they are found virtually everywhere
