The Music of Harry Potter and The Lord of the Rings Daniel White, 2024-05-20. The Music of Harry Potter and The Lord of the Rings provides an in-depth study of the music of two of the biggest fantasy franchises, focussing on music's worldbuilding roles within the film-watching experience and elsewhere in videogames, trailers, theme parks, and other attractions and the world of fandom. Daniel White takes a range of approaches and techniques of motivic and thematic musical analysis and pairs this with transformational harmonic analysis to theorise music's worldbuilding roles in film. Chapters focus in turn on the opening sequences of the case study franchise films, their closing sequences, and on their depiction of houses, homes, and homelands. Extra-filmic areas of these fantasy worlds are also explored, including theme parks and other tourist attractions of the Harry Potter franchise, videogames, and the immersive power of their music and the world of fandom, with a focus on soundtrack consumption and other musical fan practices. Through this multifaceted approach, readers gain a deeper understanding not only of the music of these franchises but also of music's power in the multimedia franchise, both within and without film, to build a home that attracts inhabitants. This book will be valuable for academics and students as well as fans of fantasy franchises.

Symbolism 21 Florian Klaeger, Klaus Stierstorfer, Marlena Tronicke, 2021-10-25. Special Focus Law and Literature. This special focus issue of Symbolism takes a look at the theoretical equation of law and literature and its inherent symbolic dimension. The authors all approach the subject from the perspective of literary and book studies, foregrounding literature's potential to act as supplementary to a very wide variety of laws spread over historical, geographical, cultural, and spatial grounds. The theoretical ground laid here thus posits both literature and law in the narrow sense. The articles gathered in this special issue analyse Anglophone literatures from the Renaissance to the present day and cover the three major genres: narrative, drama, and poetry. The contributions address questions of the law's psychoanalytic, subconscious, copyright, and censorship; literary negotiations of colonial and post-colonial territorial laws; the European refugee debate and migration narratives; fictional debates on climate change; contemporary feminist drama; and classic 19th-century legal narratives. This volume includes two insightful analyses of poetic texts with a special focus on the fact that poetry has often been neglected within the field of law and literature research. Special Focus editor Franziska Quabeck, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster, Germany.

Cowan, 2019-02-26 Magic Monsters and Make Believe Heroes looks at fantasy film television and participative culture as evidence of our ongoing need for a mythic vision for stories larger than ourselves into which we write ourselves and through which we can become the heroes of our own story Why do we tell and retell the same stories over and over when we know they can't possibly be true Contrary to popular belief it's not because pop culture has run out of good ideas Rather it is precisely because these stories are so fantastic some resonating so deeply that we elevate them to the status of religion Illuminating everything from Buffy the Vampire Slayer to Dungeons and Dragons and from Drunken Master to Mad Max Douglas E Cowan offers a modern manifesto for why and how mythology remains a vital force today The Ring of Words Peter Gilliver, Jeremy Marshall, Edmund Weiner, 2009-07-23 Examines the unique relationship between J R R Tolkien's early professional involvement in the compilation of the Oxford English Dictionary and the linguistic creativity that he demonstrated in his other writings The Second History of Man John Bershof, MD, 2024-05-16 In the spirit of medieval writer Chaucer all human activity lies within the artist's scope the History of Man Series uses medicine as a jumping off point to explore precisely that all history all science all human activity since the beginning of time The jumping off style of writing takes the reader the listener into worlds unknown always returning to base only to jump off again History of Man are stories and tales of nearly everything The Second History of Man focuses mostly on bacteria and bacterial infections as the foundation jumping off into Darwin and evolution gin tonics and the discovery of the first antibiotic to treat infection and it wasn't penicillin visiting with those clever chaps who cook up drugs in the lab We'll call upon poets poetry celebrities like Frank Sinatra the Rat Pack and Bobby Darin the classical music of Haydn Mozart and Beethoven the tragic story of World War II Anne Frank and the Holocaust tuberculosis and a few of the rich famous who suffered from TB travelling back in time to the Black Death which wiped out 25 percent of humans on Earth exploring the origins of a salon and a saloon Columbus and the Age of Discovery the lost generations of childhood ending with the invention of the Internet
