Nice Passion Society Suffering California Anthropology:

Beyond Suffering and Reparation Timothy James Bowyer, 2018-11-01 This book presents the key issues debates concepts approaches and questions that together define the lives of rural people living in extreme poverty in the aftermath of political violence in a developing country context Divided into nine chapters the book addresses issues such as the complexities of human suffering losing trust psychic wounds dealing with post traumatic stress situations and disillusionment after change By building knowledge about human and social suffering in a post conflict environment the book counters the objectification of human and social suffering and the moral detachment with which it is associated In addition it presents practical ways to help make things better It discusses new methodological concepts based around empathy and participation to show how the subjective reality of human and social suffering matter Finally the book maps a burgeoning field of enquiry based around the need for linking psychosocial approaches with the actual lived experience of individuals and groups

The Moral Work of Anthropology Hanne Overgaard Mogensen, Birgitte Gorm Hansen, 2021-06-11 Looking at anthropologists at work this book investigates what kind of morality they perform in their occupations and what the impact of this morality is The book includes ethnographic studies in four professional arenas health care business management and interdisciplinary research The discussion is positioned at the intersection of applied or public anthropology and the anthropology of ethics and analyses the ways in which anthropologists can carry out moral work both inside and outside of academia

Where is the Good in the World? David Henig, Anna Strhan, Joel Robbins, 2022-07-08 Bringing together contributions from anthropology sociology religious studies and philosophy along with ethnographic case studies from diverse settings this volume explores how different disciplinary perspectives on the good might engage with and enrich each other The chapters examine how people realize the good in social life exploring how ethics and values relate to forms of suffering power and inequality and in doing so demonstrate how focusing on the good enhances social theory This is the first interdisciplinary engagement with what it means to study the good as a fundamental aspect of social life

Humanitarianism and Human Rights Michael N. Barnett, 2020-10-15 This book explores the fluctuating relationship between human rights and humanitarianism For most of their lives human rights and humanitarianism have been distant cousins Humanitarianism focused on situations in faraway places dealing with large scale loss of life that demanded urgent attention whilst human rights advanced the cause of individual liberty and equality at home However the twentieth century saw the two coming much more directly into dialogue particularly following the end of the Cold War as both began working in war zones and post conflict situations Leading scholars probe how the shifting meanings of human rights and humanitarianism converge and diverge from a variety of disciplinary perspectives ranging from philosophical inquiries that consider whether and how differences are constructed at the level of ethics obligations and duties to historical inquiries that attempt to locate core differences within and between historical periods and to practice oriented perspectives that suggest

how differences are created and recreated in response to concrete problems and through different kinds of organised activities with different goals and meanings

Painscapes EJ Gonzalez-Polledo, Jen Tarr, 2017-10-13 This book brings into dialogue approaches from anthropology sociology visual art theatre and literature to question what kinds of relations frames and politics constitute pain across disciplines and methodologies Each chapter offers a unique window onto the notoriously difficult problem of how pain is defined and communicated The contributors reimagine the value of images and photography poetry history drama stories and interviews not as better representations of the pain experience but as devices to navigate the complexity of pain across different physical social and intersubjective domains This innovative collection provides a new access point to the phenomenon of pain and the materialities affects structures and institutions that constitute it This book will appeal to readers seeking to better understand pain s complexity and the social and affective ecologies through which pain is known communicated and lived

A Passion for Society Iain Wilkinson, Arthur Kleinman, 2016-01-26 What does human suffering mean for society And how has this meaning changed from the past to the present In what ways does the problem of suffering serve to inspire us to care for others How does our response to suffering reveal our moral and social conditions In this trenchant work Arthur Kleinman a renowned figure in medical anthropology and Iain Wilkinson an award winning sociologist team up to offer some answers to these profound questions A Passion for Society investigates the historical development and current state of social science with a focus on how this development has been shaped in response to problems of social suffering Following a line of criticism offered by key social theorists and cultural commentators who themselves were unhappy with the professionalization of social science Wilkinson and Kleinman provide a critical commentary on how studies of society have moved from an original concern with social suffering and its amelioration to dispassionate inquiries The authors demonstrate how social action through caring for others is revitalizing and remaking the discipline of social science and they examine the potential for achieving greater understanding though a moral commitment to the practice of care for others In this deeply considered work Wilkinson and Kleinman argue for an engaged social science that connects critical thought with social action that seeks to learn through caregiving and that operates with a commitment to establish and sustain humane forms of society

Disability, Medicine, and Healing Discourse in Early Christianity Susan R. Holman, Chris L. de Wet, Jonathan L. Zecher, 2023-08-04 Using contemporary theories drawn from health humanities this volume analyses the nature and effects of disability medicine and health discourse in a variety of early Christian literature In recent years the medical turn in early Christian studies has developed a robust literature around health disability and medicine and the health humanities have made critical interventions in modern conversations around the aims of health and the nature of healthcare Considering these developments it has become clear that early Christian texts and ideas have much to offer modern conversations and that these texts are illuminated using theoretical lenses drawn from modern medicine and public health The chapters in this book explore different facets of early Christian engagement with medicine either in itself or as metaphor and material for theological reflections on human impairment restoration and flourishing Through its focus on late antique religious texts the book raises questions around the social rather than biological aspects of illness and diminishment as a human experience as well as the strategies by which that experience is navigated The result is an innovative and timely intervention in the study of health and healthcare that bridges current divides between historical studies and contemporary issues Taken together the book offers a prismatic conversation of perspectives on aspects of care at the heart of societal and individual wellness today inviting readers to meet or revisit patristic texts as tracings across a map of embodied identity dissonance and corporal care It is a fascinating resource for anyone working on ancient medicine and health or the social worlds of early Christianity Crafting Peace Through Autoethnography Susan Mossman

Riva,2025-06-20 In Crafting Peace Through Autoethnography Dr Riva shares her autoethnographic method that employs a transformational pedagogy for conflict resolution and peace studies She provides peace study scholar practitioners with a model that can be applied to traditional higher education classrooms as well as online learning platforms Cancer

Entangled Rikke Sand Andersen,Marie Louise Tørring,2023-04-14 Cancer Entangled explores the shifts that took place in Denmark around the millennium when health promoters set out to minimize delays in cancer diagnoses in hope of improving cancer survival The authors suggest a temporal reframing of cancer control that emphasizes the importance of focusing on how people potential patients as well as health care professionals experience and anticipate cancer before a diagnosis or a prediction has been made This argument compellingly challenges and augments anthropological work on cancer control that has privileged attention to the productive role of science and technology and to life with cancer or cancer risk By offering rich ethnographic insights into the introduction of the first cancer vaccine cancer signs and symptoms public discourses on delays social class and care seeking cancer suspicion in the clinic as well as the work on fast track referral the book convincingly situates cancer control in an ethical registrar involving attention to acceleration and time showing how cancer waiting times become an index of the state of the nation Unfinished João Biehl,Peter Locke,2017-11-16 This original field changing collection explores the plasticity and unfinishedness of human subjects and lifeworlds advancing the conceptual terrain of an anthropology of becoming People s becomings trouble and exceed ways of knowing and acting producing new possibilities for research methodology and writing The contributors creatively bridge ethnography and critical theory in a range of worlds on the edge from war and its aftermath economic transformation racial inequality and gun violence to religiosity therapeutic markets animal rights activism and abrupt environmental change Defying totalizing analytical schemes these visionary essays articulate a human science of the uncertain and unknown and restore a sense of movement and possibility to ethics and political practice Unfinished invites readers to consider the array of affects ideas forces and objects that shape contemporary modes of existence and future horizons opening new channels for critical thought and creative expression Contributors Lucas Bessire Jo o Biehl Naisargi N Dave Elizabeth A Davis Michael M J

Health Richard Parker, Jonathan García, 2018-12-07 In the early twenty first century key public health issues and challenges have taken centre stage on the global scene and health has been placed at the heart of our collective aspirations for human development and well being But significant debate exists not only about the causes but also about the possible solutions for nearly all of the most important global health challenges Competing visions of the values and perspectives that should underlie global health policies have emerged ranging from an emphasis on cost effectiveness and resource constraints on one extreme to new calls for health and human rights and renewed calls for health and social justice on the other The role of different intergovernmental agencies bilateral or unilateral donors public or private institutions and initiatives has increasingly been called into question whilst the spread of neoliberal policies and programmes and existing international trade regimes and intellectual property rights are deeply implicated in relation to global health responses This volume critically evaluates how the global health industry has evolved and how the interests of diverse political and economic stakeholders are shaping the context of a rapidly changing institutional landscape Bringing together leading authors from across the world the Handbook's eight sections explore Critical perspectives on global health Globalisation neoliberalism and health systems The changing shape of global health governance Development assistance and the politics of global health Scale up scale down and the sustainability of global health programmes Intellectual property rights trade relations and global health Humanitarian emergencies and global health politics Human rights social justice and global health The Routledge Handbook on the Politics of Global Health addresses both the emerging issues and conceptualisations of the political strategies policy making processes and global governance of global health along with expanding upon and highlighting the critical priorities in this rapidly evolving field It provides an authoritative overview for students practitioners researchers and policymakers working in or concerned with the politics of public health around the globe A Garland of Bones Jonah Steinberg, 2019-01-01 An intimate portrait of India's child runaways and the sociopolitical forces shaping their lives This intimate portrait examines the tracks journeys and experiences of child runaways in northern India Jonah Steinberg situates children's decisions to leave home and flee for the city in their larger cultural social and historical contexts and considers histories of landlessness and debt servitude in narratives of child dislocation The resulting work is an original perspective on the sociological trends in postcolonial India and a unique treatment of a population of individuals who live on the margin of society

Soul Woundedness Paul Houston Blankenship-Lai, 2024-11-05 A profound exploration into the spiritual beliefs and practices of Seattle's unhoused youth Soul Woundedness is an intimate piercing book about everyday life for young adults living on the streets of Seattle Based on over five years of research and as a participant observer Paul Houston Blankenship-Lai presents the personal experiences of street kids highlighting how their spiritual beliefs and practices offer them comfort a sense of community and a feeling of belonging amidst their struggles They also demonstrate how spirituality on the streets can alienate people from themselves and the world The stories Blankenship-Lai tells here are about how social wounds go soul deep and how seemingly antireligious spiritual practices fashioned in an almost unlivable local world help people create a life still worth living By paying deep sustained attention to what spirituality is like on the streets and what difference it makes Blankenship Lai uncovers an important overlooked dimension in the experience and study of homelessness They invite us to enter these stories and to question how our own spiritual and otherwise practices can help create a more loving love Aimed at a diverse audience Soul Woundedness is a book not merely to educate but to transform It is particularly relevant for those interested in spirituality s role in addressing social inequities and underscores the importance of spiritual practices in overcoming adversity and promoting social change making a compelling case for a world where everyone has a place to call home

Beyond Description Paolo Heywood, Matei Candea, 2023-12-15 Beyond Description brings anthropologists and other social scientists together to examine the problem of explanation What is an explanation What can it add What makes it authoritative clarifying or misleading Whom does it serve and how is it produced These questions lie at the heart of recent public crises of confidence in expertise political representation and classic liberal visions of whom we can rely on for true and trustworthy accounts In a world beset by events and processes that seem to defy expert predictions of their impossibility and in which post hoc accounts can often feel more like rationalizations than explanations competing voices vie for public presence and seek to silence one another Anthropology and the social sciences face such questions too making contemporary explanatory practice both an empirical and a reflexive challenge By combining ethnographic studies of practices of explanation in a range of contemporary political medical artistic religious and bureaucratic settings the essays in Beyond Description offer critical examinations of changing norms and forms of explanation in the world and within anthropology itself

Pursuits of Happiness Gordon Mathews, Carolina Izquierdo, 2009 Anthropology has long shied away from examining how human beings may lead happy and fulfilling lives This book however shows that the ethnographic examination of well being defined as the optimal state for an individual a community and a society and the comparison of well being within and across societies is a new and important area for anthropological inquiry Distinctly different in different places but also reflecting our common humanity well being is intimately linked to the idea of happiness and its pursuits Noted anthropological researchers have come together in this volume to examine well being in a range of diverse ways and to investigate it in a range of settings from the Peruvian Amazon the Australian outback and the Canadian north to India China Indonesia Japan and the United States
