The New Art Museum Library Amelia Nelson, Traci E. Timmons, 2021-04-15 The New Art Museum Library addresses the issues facing today's art museum libraries through a series of scholarly essays written by top librarians in the field In 2007 the publication Art Museum Libraries and Librarianship edited by Joan Benedetti was the first to solely focus on the field of art museum librarianship In the decade since then many changes have occurred in the field both technological and ideological prompting the need for a follow up publication In addition to representing current thinking and practice this new publication also addresses the need to clearly articulate and define the art museum library's value within its institution It documents the broad changes in the environment that art museum libraries now function within and to celebrate the many innovative initiatives that are flourishing in this new landscape Librarians working in art museum face unique challenges as museums redefine what object based visitor centric learning looks like in the 21st century These unique challenges mean that art museum libraries are developing new strategies and initiatives so that they can continue to thrive in this environment The unique nature of these initiatives mean that they will be useful to librarians working in a wide range of special libraries as well as more broadly in academic and public libraries The New Art Museum Library is uniquely positioned to present new strategies and initiatives including digital art history initiatives the new norms in art museum library staffing and the public programming priorities that are core to many art museum libraries today This book is an endorsed project of ARLIS NA

David Zwirner: 25 Years Richard Shiff, Robert Storr, 2018-10-23 Published on the occasion of the twenty five year anniversary of David Zwirner this book paints a picture of the gallery's growth and development through the lens of the artists that have shaped it Since its founding in 1993 David Zwirner has above all else been guided by its artist centric ethos Beginning with the gallery's early days on Greens Street in SoHo to its transition and expansion to Chelsea London the Upper East Side and Hong Kong this book captures David Zwirner's devotion to its inimitable roster of artists and estates The heart of the publication is a wide ranging dynamic selection of the gallery's standout exhibitions in many cases handpicked by David Zwirner himself. Many of these exhibitions highlight the countless works that ended up in major museum and private collections around the world. Also featured is an extensive gallery history that details all of the exhibitions by every artist and estate presented at David Zwirner accompanied by archival imagery. With contributions by Richard Schiff and Robert Storr as well as a foreword by David Zwirner, this publication offers rare insights into the growth of a commercial gallery through its long-term commitment to artists. The Handbook of Art and Design Librarianship Paul Glassman, Judy Dyki, 2017-10-24. The Handbook of Art and Design Librarianship integrates theory and practice to offer guidelines for information professionals working in art and design environments who need to support and anticipate the information needs of artists, designers, architects, and the historians who study those disciplines. Since the first edition of this title, the world of art and design libraries has been transformed by rapid advances in technology, an explosion in social media, and the release of new standards and guidelines. This new edition, offering mostly entirely new chapters, provides an accessible, fully updated guide to the world of academic art and design libraries from a range of international experts who reflect current practice at a global level. Coverage includes case studies and library profiles providing benchmarks for developing facilities, teaching and learning, including the ACRL Framework, teaching with special collections, meta-literacies, instructional design, and cultural differences. Developments in institutional repositories, digital humanities, and makerspaces, contemporary library design spaces for collaboration and sustainability. This book will be useful reading for students taking library and information science courses in art librarianship, special collections, and archives, as well as practising library and information professionals in art and design school libraries, art museum libraries, and public libraries. The JAB Anthology Johanna Drucker, Brad Freeman, 2023-10-17. This anthology of articles selected from JAB: The Journal of Artists' Books, 1994-2020, contains some of the best critical writing on artists' books produced in the last quarter of a century. Driven by the editorial vision of artist Brad Freeman, JAB began as a provocative pamphlet and expanded to become a significant journal documenting artists' books from multiple perspectives. With its range of participants and approaches, JAB provided a unique venue for sustained critical writing in the field and developed a broad subscriber base among institutional and private collectors and readers. It featured artists' profiles, book reviews, reports from book fairs and conferences, interviews with major figures, and much lively debate about how to engage critically with artists' books. More than two hundred writers and artists from nearly two dozen countries around the globe were published in its pages. Contributions came from authors in Australia, North America, Europe, the UK, and South America, and from literary studies, visual arts, photography, media theory, and book history, as well as other backgrounds. The original issues each had covers designed and often printed by individual book artists. Later issues contained artists' books produced exclusively for its subscribers. No other journal dedicated exclusively to artists' books had so long a run or such broad representation. As JAB's visibility increased, more artists and writers contributed to its ongoing exchanges. The essays in this collection are all exemplary works of critical writing that illuminate individual books artists or presses but also offer a diverse range of methodological approaches to interpreting these vibrant and compelling works of art Providing new access to these essays will hopefully inspire new work in creative and intellectual areas of the field and offer a resource to those responsible for teaching and collecting artists books

Anti-Book Nicholas Thoburn, 2016-12-15 No Anti Book is not a book about books Not exactly And yet it is a must for anyone interested in the future of the book Presenting what he terms a communism of textual matter Nicholas Thoburn explores the encounter between political thought and experimental writing and publishing shifting the politics of text from an exclusive concern with content and meaning to the media forms and social relations by which text is produced and consumed Taking a post digital approach in considering a wide array of textual media forms Thoburn invites us to challenge the commodity form of books to stop imagining books as transcendent intellectual moral and aesthetic goods unsullied by commerce His critique is instead one immersed in the many materialities of text Anti Book engages with an array of writing and publishing projects including Antonin Artaud s paper gris gris Valerie Solanas s SCUM Manifesto Guy Debord s sandpaper bound M moires the collective novelist Wu Ming and the digital print hybrid of Mute magazine Empirically grounded it is also a major achievement in expressing a political philosophy of writing and publishing where the materiality of text is interlaced with conceptual production Each chapter investigates a different form of textual media in concert with a particular concept the small press pamphlet as communist object the magazine as diagrammatic publishing political books in the modes of root and rhizome the multiple single of anonymous authorship and myth as unidentified narrative object An absorbingly written contribution to contemporary media theory in all its manifestations Anti Book will enrich current debates about radical publishing artists books and other new genre and media forms in alternative media art publishing media studies cultural studies critical theory and social and political theory
