Designing Retail

Experience in the 21st Century D.J. Huppertz, 2025-04-03 Covering 2001 to today Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century presents readers with a critical cross disciplinary perspective on retail design bringing together scholarship from design architecture branding cultural studies and social studies Our retail experience has changed profoundly over the past two decades largely due to the impact of digital technologies While the rise of smartphones and online commerce threatened to displace bricks and mortar stores physical shopping has survived and in some cases thrived Today the most successful brands design experiences that engage customers both within the physical store and in the digital realm In this book D J Huppertz analyses how corporations design these experiences how we interact with them and how they align with broader social cultural and economic changes Eight case studies reveal how some of the largest global retail chains including Apple Amazon Nike Zara IKEA and LEGO and smaller chains such as Aesop and Gentle Monster utilize design to create engaging experiences Unlike in the past such corporations consider design in a continuum that extends from architecture and interiors to product and service design and from website and digital interactions to social media At the intersection of design and cultural studies this book provides a critical survey and understanding of design and retail experience in the 21st century

Communicating Fashion Myles Ethan Lascity, 2021-03-25 Winner of the John G Cawelti Award for Best Textbook
Primer How did you decide what to wear today Did you base your selection on comfort or style Did you want to blend in or stand out or was it just the cleanest outfit available We each make these decisions every day reflecting how we view ourselves and impacting how others see us Our choices matter not just to us personally but also to the magazine editors brand ambassadors and trend forecasters who make a living by selling to us Communicating Fashion introduces key concepts from the intersecting worlds of fashion and communication studies to connect how we all use clothing to express ourselves and how media systems support that process In doing so Myles Ethan Lascity explores social cultural and ethical issues through the work of fashion journalism brand promotions and the growing role of online influencers as well as the impact of film television and art on self image and expression Key topics Advertising Branding and Fashion Retail Clothing Art and Cultural Significance Clothing as Group and Cultural Norms Clothing Identity and Interpersonal Communication Fashion News and Tastemaking Fashion Social Media and Influencers Meaning within the Fashion System On screen Clothing An Actor's Guide—Making It in New York City, Second Edition Glenn Alterman, 2011-04-05 For any actor in or on the way to New York City this is the definitive source for advice winning strategies marketing techniques and invaluable insights to being a successful New York actor Aspiring and established professionals will find this thorough and up to the minute volume chock full of resources and advice about auditioning making professional connections promoting one's self seeking opportunities in nontraditional venues finding an apartment securing survival jobs understanding actor unions getting headshots and furthering one's actor training in New York This guide also details working as a film extra careers in print modeling scams and rip offs to avoid opportunities for actors with disabilities and using the Internet to the fullest advantage Included are in depth interviews with legendary show business figures such as actor Henry Winkler casting director Juliet Taylor and theater director Joseph Chaikin as well top talents from the fields of film television stage commercials and talent agencies Written by a professional New York actor with over thirty years of experience this meticulously researched guide will give actors the tools they need to survive and thrive in New York show business Allworth Press an imprint of Skyhorse Publishing publishes a broad range of books on the visual and performing arts with emphasis on the business of art Our titles cover subjects such as graphic design theater branding fine art photography interior design writing acting film how to start careers business and legal forms business practices and more While we don't aspire to publish a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are deeply committed to quality books that help creative professionals succeed and thrive We often publish in areas overlooked by other publishers and welcome the author whose expertise can help our audience of readers Médecins Sans Frontières, Evolution of an International Movement: Associative History 1971-2011 Laurence

Binet,Martin Saulnier,2019-06-04 When M decins Sans Fronti res MSF was founded in 1971 it was founded with both international and associative dimensions International because it wouldn t have made sense for MSF France on its own to aid threatened populations around the world and associative because civil law in France especially the 1901 law governing charitable bodies was perfectly suited to the MSF organisation s guiding precepts which are democratic and selfless in nature Yet MSF s development from a small purely French organisation to an international associative movement was never carefully planned or particularly smooth MSF s development was the result of various compromises between the movement s leaders with their individual agendas and the integration of fait accomplis when necessary The evolving modifications were debated at length to ensure that concerns raised were legitimate and that there was agreement for decisions made The nature and the validity of MSF s leadership were regularly challenged as was the question of how MSF should grow while remaining true to its humanitarian precepts This case study elaborates the history of the MSF movement from inception in 1971 through 2011 when MSF legitimised an international governance system and architecture The study is divided in two episodes Episode One reviews MSF s first three decades 1971 2000 Episode Two is about the challenges of the early 21st century from 2001 to 2011

Advertising and the Transformation of Screen Cultures Bo Florin, Patrick Vonderau, Yvonne Zimmermann, 2025-10-01 Advertising has played a central role in shaping the history of modern media While often identified with American consumerism and the rise of the Information Society motion picture advertising has been part of European visual culture since the late nineteenth century With the global spread of ad agencies moving image advertisements became a privileged cultural form to make people experience the qualities and uses of branded commodities to articulate visions of a good life and to incite social relationships Abandoning a conventional delineation of fields by medium country or period this book suggests a lateral view It charts the audiovisual history of advertising by focussing on objects products and services screens exhibition programming physical media practices production marketing and intermediaries ad agencies In this way the book develops new historical methodological and theoretical perspectives

The Last Days of the Schooner America David Gendell, 2024-08-06 2025 BREWINGTON BOOK PRIZE WINNER The schooner America was a technological marvel and a child star In the summer of 1851 just weeks after her launching at New York she crossed the Atlantic and sailed to an upset victory against a fleet of champions The silver cup she won that day is still coveted by sportsmen Almost immediately after that famous victory she began a decades long run of adventure neglect rehabilitations and hard sailing always surrounded by colorful passionate personalities America ran and enforced wartime blockades She carried spies across the ocean And she was on the scene as yachtsmen and business titans spent freely and competed fiercely for the cup she first won By the early twentieth century she was in desperate need of a thorough refit The old thoroughbred floated in brackish water at the United States Naval Academy stripped of her sails and rotting in the sun Refitting America would be a massive project expensive and potentially distracting for a nation struggling to emerge from the Great Depression and preparing for a world war But the project had a powerful sponsor On a windy evening in December 1940 the eighty nine year old America was hauled groaning and complaining up a marine railway at Annapolis the first physical step in a rehabilitation rumored to have been set in motion by President Franklin Roosevelt himself The haul out brought the famous schooner into the heart of the Annapolis Yacht Yard a privately owned company with a staff capable of completing such a project but with leadership determined to convert their facility into a modern warship production plant on behalf of the United States and its allies The Last Days of the Schooner America traces the history of the famous vessel from her design build and early racing career through her lesser known Civil War service and the never before told story of her final days and moments on the ground at Annapolis The schooner s story is set against a vivid picture of the entrepreneurial forces behind the fast focused rise of the Annapolis Yacht Yard as the United States prepares for and enters World War II As wooden warships are built around her America waits for a rehabilitation that would never happen To bring this unique story to life Annapolis sailor David Gendell delves into archival sources and oral histories and interviews some of the last living people who saw America at the Annapolis Yacht Yard New York 2015-2016
