Crisis, Movement, Management: Globalising Dynamics James Goodman,Jonathan Marshall,2016-05-23 Globalised neo liberalism has produced multiple crises social ecological political In the past crises of global order have generated large scale social transformations and the current crises likewise hold a transformative promise Social movements become a crucial barometer in signalling both the demise and rise of political formations and programs Elite strategies framed as crisis management create their own disordering side effects Experiments in movement strategy gain greater significance as do contending elite efforts at repressing managing or displacing the fall out In this book we investigate both movements and management in the face of crisis taking crisis and unanticipated consequences as a normal state of play The book enquires into the winners and losers from crisis and investigates the movement management nexus as it unfolds in particular localities as well as in broader contexts The book deals with some of the most pressing conflicts of our time and produces a range of theoretical insights the ubiquity of crisis is seen as not only a hallmark of social life but a way into a different kind of social analysis This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations

Urban Comics Dominic Davies, 2019-02-21 Urban Comics Infrastructure and the Global City in Contemporary Graphic Narratives makes an important and timely contribution both to comics studies and urban studies offering a decolonisation and reconfiguration of both of these already interdisciplinary fields With chapter length discussions of comics from cities such as Cairo Cape Town New Orleans Delhi and Beirut this book shows how artistic collectives and urban social movements working across the global South are producing some of the most exciting and formally innovative graphic narratives of the contemporary moment Throughout the author reads an expansive range of graphic narratives through the vocabulary of urban studies to argue that these formal innovations should be thought of as a kind of infrastructure This infrastructural form allows urban comics to reveal that the built environments of our cities are not static banal or depoliticised but rather highly charged material spaces that allow some forms of social life to exist while also prohibiting others Built from a formal infrastructure of grids gutters and panels and capable of volumetric multi scalar perspectives this book shows how urban comics are able to represent repair and even rebuild contemporary global cities toward more socially just and sustainable ends Operating at the intersection of comics studies and urban studies and offering large global surveys alongside close textual and visual analyses this book explores and opens up the fascinating relationship between comics and graphic narratives on the one hand and cities and urban spaces on the other

Jazz Religion, the Second Line, and Black New Orleans Richard Brent Turner, 2016-10-17 This scholarly study demonstrates that while post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans is changing the vibrant traditions of jazz must continue Journal of African American History An examination of the musical religious and political landscape of black New Orleans before and after Hurricane Katrina this revised edition looks at how these factors play out in a new millennium of global apartheid Richard Brent Turner explores the history and contemporary significance of second lines the group of dancers who follow the first procession of church and club members brass bands and grand marshals in black New Orleans s jazz street parades Here music and religion interplay and Turner s study reveals how these identities and traditions from Haiti and West and Central Africa are reinterpreted He also describes how second line participants create their own social space and become proficient in the arts of political disguise resistance and performance

New Orleans Remix Jack Sullivan, 2017-10-05 Association of Recorded Sound Collections Awards for Excellence Best Historical Research in Recorded Jazz Certificate of Merit 2018 Since the 1990s New Orleans has been experiencing its greatest musical renaissance since Louis Armstrong Brass band funk hip hop Mardi Gras Indian zydeco and other styles are rocking the city in new neighborhood bars far from the Bourbon Street tourist scene Even neotraditional jazz players have emerged in startling numbers making the old sound new for a younger generation In this book Jack Sullivan shines the light on superb artists little known to the general public Leroy Jones Shamarr Allen Kermit Ruffins Topsy Chapman Aurora Nealand the Brass A Holics He introduces as well a surge of female Asian and other previously marginalized groups that are making the vibe more inclusive than ever New Orleans Remix covers artists who have broken into the national spotlight the Rebirth Brass Band Trombone Shorty Jon Batiste and many creators who are still little known Based on dozens of interviews and archival documents this book delivers their perspectives on how they view their present in relation to a vital past The city of New Orleans has always held fiercely to the old even as it invented the new a secret of its dynamic success Marching tunes mingled with jazz traditional jazz with bebop Mardi Gras Indian percussion with funk all producing wonderfully bewildering yet viable fusions This book identifies the unique catalytic power of the city itself Why did New Orleans spawn America's greatest vernacular music and why does its musical fire still burn so fiercely long after the great jazz eruptions in Chicago Kansas City and others declined How does a tradition remain intensely creative for generations How has the huge influx of immigrants to New Orleans especially since Hurricane Katrina contributed to the city's current musical harmony This book seeks answers through the ideas of working musicians who represent very different sensibilities in voices often as eloquent as their music

The Inevitable City Scott Cowen, Betsy Seifter, 2014-06-10 After seven years of service as the president of Tulane University Scott Cowen watched the devastation of his beloved New Orleans at the hands of Hurricane Katrina When federal state and city officials couldn't find their way to decisive action Cowen known for his gutsy leadership quickly partnered with a coalition of civic business and nonprofit leaders looking to work around the old institutions to revitalize and transform New Orleans This team led the charge to restore equilibrium and eventually to rebuild For the past nine years Cowen has continued this work helping to bring the city of New Orleans back from the brink The Inevitable City presents 10 principles that changed the game for this city and if adopted can alter the curve for any business endeavor community and perhaps even a nation This is the story of the resurgence and reinvention of one of America's greatest cities Ordinary citizens empowered to actively rescue their own city after politicians and government officials failed them have succeeded in rebuilding their world Cowen was at the leading edge of those who articulated shaped and implemented a vision of transformative change that has yielded surprising social progress and economic growth a drowned city identified with the shocking images of devastation and breakdown has transformed itself into a mecca of growth opportunity and hope Sacral Grooves, Limbo Gateways Keith Cartwright, 2013 We're seeing people that we didn't know exist the director of FEMA acknowledged in the wake of Hurricane Katrina Sacral Grooves Limbo Gateways offers a corrective to some of America's institutionalized invisibilities by delving into the submerged networks of ritual performance writing intercultural history and migration that have linked the coastal U.S. South with the Caribbean and the wider Atlantic world This interdisciplinary study slips beneath the bar of rigid national and literary periods embarking upon deeper more rhythmic and embodied signatures of time It swings low through ecologies and symbolic orders of creolized space And it reappraises pluralistic modes of knowledge kinship and authority that have sustained vital forms of agency such as jazz amid abysses of racialized trauma Drawing from Haitian Vodou and New Orleanian Voudou and from Cuban and South Floridian Santería as well as from Afro Baptist Caribbean Geechee and Bahamian models of encounters with otherness this book reemplaces deep southern texts within the counterclockwise ring stepping of a long Afro Atlantic modernity Turning to an orphan girl's West African initiation tale to follow a remarkably traveled body of feminine rites and writing in works by Paule Marshall Zora Neale Hurston Lydia Cabrera William Faulkner James Weldon Johnson and LeAnne Howe among others Cartwright argues that only in holistic form emergent from gulfs of cross cultural witness can literary and humanistic authority find legitimacy Without such grounding he contends our educational institutions blind and even poison students bringing them to swallow lye like the grandson of Phoenix Jackson in Eudora Welty's A Worn Path Here literary study may open pathways to alternative medicines fetched by tenacious avatars like Phoenix or an orphan Kumba or a shell shaking Turtle to remedy the lies our partial histories have made us swallow Anthropology Newsletter, 1995 Hope in Troubled Times Bob Goudzwaard, Mark Vander Vennen, David Van Heemst, 2007-05-01 We want to have it all financial strength secure homes clean air and water for our children With the latest technological advances available we deserve to have every dilemma resolved Isn't that the way it's supposed to work Hope in Troubled Times dares to say no Poverty terrorism and overtaxed land are planetary problems that make even believers despair But the authors point to Christ as the source of hope Our choice is obvious We work together learning to live unselfishly or we watch civilization sink further into the abyss With a foreword by renowned human rights activist Archbishop Desmond Tutu Hope in Troubled Times provides real world solutions to life threatening problems The authors show that with God's guidance we can knock down the idols that stunt clear thinking Black Women and Energies of Resistance in Nineteenth-Century Haitian and American Literature Mary Grace Albanese, 2023-11-23 Black Women and Energies of Resistance in Nineteenth Century Haitian and American Literature intervenes in traditional narratives of 19th century American modernity by situating Black women at the center of an increasingly connected world While traditional accounts of modernity have emphasized advancements in communication technologies animal and fossil fuel extraction and the rise of urban centers Mary Grace Albanese proposes that women of African descent combated these often violent regimes through diasporic spiritual beliefs and practices including spiritual possession rootwork midwifery mesmerism prophecy and wandering It shows how these energetic acts of resistance were carried out on scales large and small from the constrained corners of the garden plot to the expansive circuits of global migration By examining the concept of energy from narratives of technological progress capital accrual and global expansion this book uncovers new stories that center Black women at the heart of a pulsating revolutionary world There is No Such Thing as a Natural Disaster Gregory Squires, Chester Hartman, 2013-01-11 There is No Such Thing as a Natural Disaster is the first comprehensive critical book on the catastrophic impact of Hurricane Katrina on New Orleans The disaster will go down on record as one of the worst in American history not least because of the government's inept and cavalier response But it is also a huge story for other reasons the impact of the hurricane was uneven and race and class were deeply implicated in the unevenness Hartman and Squires assemble two dozen critical scholars and activists who present a multifaceted portrait of the social implications of the disaster The book covers the response to the disaster and the roles that race and class played its impact on housing and redevelopment the historical context of urban disasters in America and the future of economic development in the region It offers strategic guidance for key actors government agencies financial institutions neighbourhood organizations in efforts to rebuild shattered communities Grove's Dictionary of Music and Musicians John Alexander Fuller-Maitland, 1920 American Music and Musicians Waldo Selden Pratt, 1920 Grove's Dictionary of Music and Musicians George Grove, 1920
