New Self, New World Philip Shepherd, 2011-05-31 In the tradition of Quantum Healing and Guns Germs and Steel Philip Shepherd's New Self New World makes an intellectual inquiry into how we might restore freedom creativity and a sense of presence in the moment by rejecting several fundamental myths about being human New Self New World challenges the primary story of what it means to be human the random and materialistic lifestyle that author Philip Shepherd calls our shattered reality This reality encourages us to live in our heads self absorbed in our own anxieties Drawing on diverse sources and inspiration New Self New World reveals that our state of head consciousness falsely teaches us to see the body as something we possess and to try to take care of it without ever really learning how to inhabit it Shepherd articulates his vision of a world in which each of us enjoys a direct unmediated experience of being alive He petitions against the futile pursuit of the known self and instead reveals the simple grace of just being present In compelling prose Shepherd asks us to surrender to the reality of what is that enables us to reunite with our own being Each chapter is accompanied by exercises meant to bring Shepherd's vision into daily life what the author calls a practice that facilitates the voluntary sabotage of long standing patterns New Self New World is at once a philosophical primer a spiritual handbook and a roaming inquiry into human history

Rewriting the Self Roy Porter, 2002-09-09 Rewriting the Self is an exploration of ideas of the self in the western cultural tradition from the Renaissance to the Present The contributors analyse differing religious philosophical psychological political psychoanalytical and literary models of personal identity They examine these models from a number of viewpoints including the history of ideas contemporary gender politics and post modernist literary theory Rewriting the Self offers a challenge to the received version of the ascent of western man Lively and controversial the book broaches big questions in an accessible way Rewriting the Self arises from a seminar series held at the Institute of Contemporary Arts in London The contributors include prominent academics from a range of disciplines

Diversity and Self-Determination in International Law Karen Knop, 2002-04-18 The emergence of new states and independence movements after the Cold War has intensified the long standing disagreement among international lawyers over the right of self determination especially the right of secession Knop shifts the discussion from the articulation of the right to its interpretation She argues that the practice of interpretation involves and illuminates a problem of diversity raised by the exclusion of many of the groups that self determination most affects Distinguishing different types of exclusion and the relationships between them reveals the deep structures biases and stakes in the decisions and scholarship on self determination Knop's analysis also reveals that the leading cases have grappled with these embedded inequalities Challenges by colonies ethnic nations indigenous peoples women and others to the gender and cultural biases of international law emerge as integral to the interpretation of self determination historically as do attempts by judges and other institutional interpreters to meet these challenges

Mobilizing Regions, Mobilizing Europe Sebastian M. Buettner, 2013-10-23 Regional development strategies are becoming more similar all around Europe even though regional differences are more pronounced than ever and many European regions have become more autonomous actors This thesis of a peculiar standardized diversification of sub national space in the modern European Union is the point of departure of this book Based upon the analytical premises of Stanford School Sociological Institutionalism Sebastian M B ttner studies regional mobilization in contemporary Europe from a new and innovative perspective He highlights the importance of scientific expertise and global scientific models in contemporary regional development practice and exemplifies their significance with the example of region building in Poland in the course of EU integration This new wave of regional mobilization is not just conceived as an effect of local national or European politics but as an expression of a larger conceptual shift in governing society and space This well researched and clearly argued book not only provides fresh insights into region building and regionalization in contemporary European space but also contributes to the new sociology of Europeanization It will be an illuminating read for scholars and students in Sociology European and EU studies International Relations Cultural Studies Geography Regional Science Polish Studies and related subject areas

Raising Resilient Children with a Borderline or Narcissistic Parent Margalis Fjelstad,Jean McBride,2020-11-03 Being partnered with a narcissist or borderline personality can be hard enough but learning how to shield children from the fallout is paramount Here the authors show readers how to manage parenting when a narcissistic or borderline partner is part of the equation Life in a narcissistic family system is at best challenging and too often filled with chaos isolation emotional outbursts and rigid controlling behaviors It is too often devoid of peace and emotional safety In the worst outcomes children in these families grow up with low self worth issues with trust and belonging and a lack of self compassion They are at significant risk of carrying the cycle forward and having poor adult relationships This book offers a way to intervene and disrupt the cycle of negative outcomes for children Written by two family therapists who bring a combined total of sixty years of clinical practice with individuals and families the book pulls no punches giving clear headed advice easy to follow actions to help children and an abundance of teaching examples Instead of the doom and gloom scenarios often presented about life with a narcissist or borderline this book provides a much more positive outlook and most importantly it offers hope and a path to an entirely different outcome for the family members Supported by current research in neuroscience mindfulness and parenting information the book focuses on teaching resilience and self compassion to raise emotionally healthy children even in a narcissistic family system It starts by helping parents get a clear understanding of what they face with a narcissistic or borderline partner There is no room here for denial but there are also many options to explore It explains how and why the narcissistic family system functions so poorly for raising healthy children and pinpoints the deficits while providing information on how to intervene more effectively for the benefit of the children Using their years of experience the authors present ideas for staying together as well as knowing when to leave the relationship and how best to do that Emphasis throughout the book is on supporting and strengthening the reader with encouragement concrete ideas skills and compassionate understanding      The Desiring Self Walter E. Conn, Integrates psychology and theology in self transcendence thus establishing a foundation for pastoral counseling and spiritual direction in a distinctive dynamic understanding of the self      Self Help, Inc. Micki McGee, 2005-09-08 Why doesn't self help help Cultural critic Micki McGee puts forward this paradoxical question as she looks at a world where the market for self improvement products is exploding and there seems to be no end in sight Rather than seeing narcissism at the root of the self help craze McGee shows a nation relying on self help culture for advice on how to cope in an increasingly volatile and competitive work world Self Help Inc reveals how makeover culture traps Americans in endless cycles of self invention and overwork as they struggle to stay ahead of a rapidly restructuring economic order      The Torch George Edward Woodberry, 1905      The Signifying Self Melanie Henry, 2013 The Signifying Self Cervantine Drama as Counter Perspective Aesthetic offers a comprehensive analysis of all eight of Cervantes's Ocho comedias published 1615 moving beyond conventional anti Lope approaches to Cervantine dramatic practise in order to identify what indeed his theatre promotes Considered on its own aesthetic terms but also taking into account ontological and socio cultural concerns this study compels a re assessment of Cervantes's drama and conflates any monolithic interpretations which do not allow for the textual interplay of contradictory and conflicting discourses which inform it Cervantes's complex and polyvalent representation of freedom underpins such an approach a concept which is considered to be a leitmotif of Cervantes's work but which has received scant attention with regards to his theatre Investigation of this topic reveals not only Cervantes's rejection of established theatrical convention but his preoccupation with the difficult relationship between the individual and the early modern Spanish world Cervantes's comedias emerge as a counter perspective to dominant contemporary Spanish ideologies and more orthodox artistic imaginings Ultimately The Signifying Self seeks to recuperate the Ocho comedias as a significant part of the Cervantine and Golden Age canon and will be of interest and benefit to those scholars who work on Cervantes and indeed on early modern Spanish theatre in general

The One Year Life Recovery Prayer Devotional Stephen Arterburn M. ED., Nick Harrison, 2021-12 Daily Hope and Inspiration from the Bible for Recovery from Addictions Compulsions and Persistent Hang Ups Life Recovery is not just a way of life it's the path to the richest life possible We are all fellow strugglers together as we battle addictions dependencies anxieties depression or difficult relationships that need healing Each one of us faces our own unique battle God's vision for your life is far more profound than you can ever imagine Spending as little as one minute a day praying meditating and being in God's presence can recapture that vision and equip you to live into it The One Year Life Recovery Prayer Devotional is a resource that can help you do that By spending time each day with the living God you can grow in biblical wisdom and spiritual depth in order to overcome what seeks to control you Be free from what imprisons you Each day this devotional will prompt you to look to God for strength when you are weak for hope when everything appears hopeless      Modernism and the Aristocracy Adam Parkes, 2023 The early twentieth century saw a radical redrawing of Britain's social and political map

as its hereditary aristocracy was pushed from the centre to the margins of the nation's affairs. This book traces the literary consequences of the modernist preoccupation with aristocracy that this social change inspired. Recovering My True Self Melissa Mayer DPT, 2021-04-29. This book tells the story of an ordinary girl from New Jersey and the subsequent transformational journey she took. This extraordinary journey and the story she recounts culminates with donating her kidney to her husband. It also tells of her struggles with adolescence with food and alcohol issues finding her way as a parent and creative recovery. Her recovery from surgery led to a more powerful and deeper spiritual connection that allowed for a better more fulfilled life all of which have led her ultimately to a truer self. Told in a relatable and honest way, Melissa's authenticity and devotion to self-discovery will inspire those looking to find meaning in their lives and empower them to transform everyday obstacles into miraculous opportunities. Self-Determination after Kosovo Annemarie Peen Rodt, Stefan Wolff, 2017-10-02. Kosovo embodies a key moment in the international practice of dealing with secessionist self-determination conflicts. For the first time outside of the colonial context and excepting Bangladesh in 1971, an entity's declaration of independence has been widely albeit not universally recognised. As such, the case of Kosovo has sharpened the focus and intensified the debate on the issue of self-determination conflicts and how they are managed by the international community. This volume contributes to this debate by examining Kosovo in historical and contemporary comparative perspective and by reflecting on the legal, ethical, and political implications of its successful declaration of independence. This book was originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies. The Aesthetics of Self-Harm Zoe Alderton, 2018-05-11. The Aesthetics of Self-Harm presents a new approach to understanding parasuicidal behaviour based upon an examination of online communities that promote performances of self-harm in the pursuit of an idealised beauty. The book considers how online communities provide a significant level of support for self-harmers and focuses on relevant case studies to establish a new model for the comprehension of the online supportive community. To do so, Alderton explores discussions of self-harm and disordered eating on social networks. She examines aesthetic trends that contextualise harmful behavior and help people to perform feelings of sadness and vulnerability online. Alderton argues that the traditional understanding of self-violence through medical discourse is important but that it misses vital elements of human group activity and the motivating forces of visual imagery. Covering psychiatry and psychology, rhetoric and sociology, this book provides essential reading for psychologists, sociologists, and anthropologists exploring group dynamics and ritual, and rhetoricians who are concerned with the communicative powers of images. It should also be of great interest to medical professionals dealing with self-harming patients. Self-control Mary Brunton, 1839. Self-Compassion for Parents Susan M. Pollak, 2019-07-30. I yelled at the kids again and feel so ashamed. I barely have time to shower let alone exercise, no wonder I'm so out of shape. I'm just not the dad I hoped I would be. Parenting is hard. That's why self-compassion is so important. In this empathic resource, mindfulness expert and psychologist Susan M. Pollak helps you let go of constant self-judgment and treat yourself with the same kindness and caring you strive to offer your kids Simple yet powerful guided meditation techniques most under three minutes long are easy to practice while doing the dishes driving to work or soothing a fussy baby Learn to respond to your own imperfections like a supportive friend not a harsh critic You will find yourself happier and more energized and will discover new reserves of patience and appreciation for your kids

A Peculiar Prophet William H. Willimon, William F. Malambri, 2004 In this book editors Michael A Turner and William F Malambri III make Willimon s role as a mentor to preachers more available than ever Both former students they provide detailed and practical tools for learning from this peculiar prophet They offer samples of Willimon s sermons and commentary on them by other leading preachers and homileticians such as Tom Long Marva Dawn Peter Gomes and Fleming Rutledge The point of this examination of Willimon s work is not to simply praise it but to assess both its strengths and its weaknesses and to help the reader learn in the process how Willimon can be a model of what to do and at times what not to do in the pulpit

BOOK JACKET A Brief History of Everything Ken Wilber, 2001-02-06 A clarion call for seeing the world as a whole this philosophical bestseller takes readers through history from the Big Bang through the 21st century now featuring an afterword with the writer director of the Matrix franchise San Francisco Chronicle Join one of the greatest contemporary philosophers on a breathtaking tour of time and the Cosmos from the Big Bang right up to the eve of the twenty first century This accessible and entertaining summary of Ken Wilber s great ideas has been expanding minds now for two decades providing a unified field theory of the universe Along the way Wilber talks on a host of issues related to that universe from gender roles to multiculturalism environmentalism and even the meaning of the Internet This special anniversary edition contains an afterword a dialogue between the author and Lana Wachowski the award winning writer director of the Matrix film trilogy in which we re offered an intimate glimpse into the evolution of Ken s thinking and where he stands today A Brief History of Everything may well be the best introduction to the thought of this man who has been called the Einstein of Consciousness

John White Learning from Burnout Tim Casserley, David Megginson, 2008-10-30 Burnout is a taboo subject Admitting you are burning out in your job is tantamount to career suicide for some employees for their organizations it is like raising a white flag in the war for talent But suppose that preventing burnout is the worst thing you can do Suppose for some people particularly high fliers it represents a call to deep and urgent learning about themselves and how they relate to the world Suppose that we need instead to learn to manage burnout and harness the powerful learning potential of the experience and in so doing build careers aligned with individual meaning and purpose sustainable in the long term What would organizations and their people need to do to achieve this This book Explains what burnout is how it is becoming the 21st century business equivalent of the black death and how it can derail your career Highlights the financial reputational and personal costs to organizations and people Details how burnout can deliver a killer punch to talent management and the development of the leaders of tomorrow and risk the retention growth and productivity of high fliers Explores why some of us develop a strong sense of our own personal identity at work while others find it more difficult

Presents a coaching process to manage burnout and harness its learning potential Provides a framework for individuals to build careers aligned with individual meaning and purpose      Counseling the Terminally Ill George S. Lair, 1996 Placing a focus on the spiritual needs of death and dying the theme of this book is that the focus of counselling with people who are dying should be on the psychospiritual aspects of death and dying It is based on two assumptions that death and anxiety not pain are the most critical issues for the dying and that the time of dying is an opportunity for growth and transformation The author believes that it is imperative for counselling professionals to realize that at this time understanding and caring are primary
