Rodgers, Joyce Yee, 2023-07-31 This new edition of The Routledge Companion to Design Research offers an updated comprehensive examination of design research celebrating a plurality of voices and range of conceptual methodological technological and theoretical approaches evident in contemporary design research This volume comprises thirty eight original and high quality design research chapters from contributors around the world with offerings from the vast array of disciplines in and around modern design praxis including areas such as industrial and product design visual communication interaction design fashion design service design engineering and architecture The Companion is divided into four distinct sections with chapters that examine the nature and process of design research the purpose of design research and how one might embark on design research They also explore how leading design researchers conduct their design research through formulating and asking questions in novel ways and the creative methods and tools they use to collect and analyse data The Companion also includes a number of case studies that illustrate how one might best communicate and disseminate design research through contributions that offer techniques for writing and publicising research The Routledge Companion to Design Research has a wide appeal to researchers and educators in design and design related disciplines such as engineering business marketing and computing and will make an invaluable contribution to state of the art design research at postgraduate doctoral and post doctoral levels and teaching across a wide range of different disciplines

Design and the Social Imagination Matthew DelSesto, 2022-09-22 How can social theory help us all design solutions to address the social political and ecological challenges that confront us and build more sustainable communities Design professions have typically been associated with intervention and action while social science has long been associated with thought and reflection Design and social thought are too frequently considered distinct in terms of how theories can be applied in practice Design and the Social Imagination brings together the creative action oriented sensibility of design with the reflective analytical capacities of the social sciences to offer models ideas and strategies for shaping the future of the world we live in In a world of global economic inequality racism and environmental degradation designing with an understanding of our social reality is increasingly crucial to our survival Matthew DelSesto explores current practices and discourses in areas of urban design design for social innovation environmental design co design service design and more illustrating how thoughtful design can contribute in a more productive way Drawing on a range of theory and practice from radical social thinkers C Wright Mills Patrick Geddes Jane Addams and W E B Du Bois his book shows us how design and the social sciences can interact in order to intervene in the crises we face today

The Emerging Public Realm of the Greater Bay Area Miodrag Mitrašinić, Timothy Jachna, 2021-07-29 Through illustrated case studies and conceptual re framings this volume showcases ongoing transformations in public space and its relationship to the public realm more broadly in the world s most populous urban megaregion the Greater Bay Area of southeastern China projected to reach eighty million inhabitants by the year 2025 This book assembles diverse approaches to interrogating the forms of public space and the public realm that are emerging in the context of this region s rapid urban development in the last forty years bringing together authors from urbanism architecture planning sociology anthropology and politics to examine innovative ways of framing and conceptualizing public space in of the Greater Bay Area The blend of authors first hand practical experiences has created a unique cross disciplinary book that employs public space to frame issues of planning political control social inclusion participation learning education and appropriation in the production of everyday urbanism In the context of the Greater Bay Area such spaces and practices also present opportunities for reconfiguring design driven urban practice beyond traditional interventions manifested by the design of physical objects and public amenities to the design of new social protocols processes infrastructures and capabilities This is a captivating new dimension of urbanism and critical urban practice and will be of interest to academics students and practitioners interested in urbanization in China

Public Space Unbound Sabine Knierbein, Tihomir Viderman, 2018-03-15 Through an exploration of emancipation in recent processes of capitalist urbanization this book argues the political is enacted through the everyday practices of publics producing space This suggests democracy is a spatial practice rather than an abstract professional field organized by institutions politicians and movements Public Space Unbound brings together a cross disciplinary group of scholars to examine spaces conditions and circumstances in which emancipatory practices impact the everyday life of citizens We ask How do emancipatory practices relate with public space under post political conditions In a time when democracy solidarity and utopias are in crisis we argue that productive emancipatory claims already exist in the lived space of everyday life rather than in the expectation of urban revolution and future progress

Public Space Reader Miodrag Mitrašinić, Vikas Mehta, 2021-03-30 Recent global appropriations of public spaces through urban activism public uprising and political protest have brought back democratic values beliefs and practices that have been historically associated with cities Given the aggressive commodification of public resources public space is critically important due to its capacity to enable forms of public discourse and social practice which are fundamental for the well being of democratic societies Public Space Reader brings together public space scholarship by a cross disciplinary group of academics and specialists whose essays consider fundamental questions What is public space and how does it manifest larger cultural social and political processes How are public spaces designed socially and materially produced and managed How does this impact the nature and character of public experience What roles does it play in the struggles for the just city and the Right to The City What critical participatory approaches can be employed to create inclusive public spaces that respond to the diverse needs desires and aspirations of individuals and communities alike What are the critical global and comparative perspectives on public space that can enable further scholarly and professional work And what are the futures of public space in the face of global pandemics such as COVID 19 The readers of this volume will be rewarded with an impressive array of perspectives that are bound to expand critical understanding of public space

Architecture and the Public World Kenneth Frampton, 2024-01-25 This book brings together Kenneth Frampton's essays from the 1960s to today which epitomize his reflections on the historical theoretical entanglements of architecture with place the public realm cultural identity urban landscape and environment and the political question of the predicament of architecture in the new Millennium The essays explore Frampton's contention that architecture's imperative is to assume a significant responsibility for the edification and stewardship of the Arendtian public world One of the most theoretically sophisticated and politically committed architectural thinkers Frampton's work breaks emphatically with the limits and norms of much contemporary practice and restores a sense of richness and social consequence of architecture's unfinished project while offering abiding lessons not only for architecture but for social cultural and design criticism alike

Informality through Sustainability

Antonino Di Raimo, Steffen Lehmann, Alessandro Melis, 2020-12-30 Informality through Sustainability explores the phenomenon of informality within urban settlements and aims to unravel the subtle links between informal settlements and sustainability Penetrating its global profile and considering urban informality through an understanding of local implications the authors collectively reveal specific correlations between sites and their local inhabitants The book opposes simplistic calls to legalise informal settlements or to view them as problems to be solved It comes at a time when common notions of informality are being increasingly challenged In 25 chapters the book presents contributions from well known scholars and practitioners whose theoretical or practical work addresses informality and sustainability at various levels from city planning and urban design to public space and architectural education Whilst previous studies on informal settlements have mainly focused on cases in developing countries approaching the topic through social cultural and material dimensions the book explores the concept across a range of contexts including former Communist countries and those in the so called Global North

Contributions also explore understandings of informality at various scalar levels region precinct neighbourhood and individual building Thus this work helps reposition informality as a relational concept at various scales of urbanisation This book will be of great benefit to planners architects researchers and policymakers interested in the interplay between informality and sustainability

Living Politics in the City Marion Hohlfeldt, Carmen Popescu, 2023-03-15

Public space and performativity from the perspective of architecture In recent decades architecture has been seen as a field of practice that contributes greatly to the performativity of public space In spite of the explosion of virtual communities through social media and the limitations imposed by pandemics architecture today still holds an active role in literally building our societies Bearing in mind its acute politicisation in past years Living Politics in the City looks at public space from the perspective of architecture and its effective contribution not as a prop but as an actual catalyst for embodying politics The essays gathered here span five continents activating various disciplinary approaches to architecture and examining it in different contexts from a Palestinian refugee camp to the most vibrant urban axis in Sao Paulo from the numerous city squares around the world crowded with rebellious populations to the proximal politics of housing in Australia Contributors Endriana Audisho University of Technology Sydney Maja Babic Charles University Alexandra Biehler Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture de Marseille Tracey Bowen University of Toronto Mississauga Etienne Delprat Rennes 2 University Claudia Faraone IUAV Venice School of Architecture ETICity Caterina Frisone Oxford Brookes University Catherine Grout ENSAPL Lille Pavel Kunysz University of Liège Flavia Marcello Swinburne University of Technology Eric Le Coguiéc University of Liège Tova
