Nice Book Failures Imagination Deadliest Threats Homeland:

Failures of Imagination Michael McCaul, 2016 The sitting chairman of the Homeland Security Committee who receives daily intelligence about threats materializing against America depicts in real time the hazards that he believes are closer than we realize From cyberwarriors who can cripple the Eastern seaboard to radicalized Americans in league with Islamic jihadists to invisible biological warfare many of the most pressing dangers are the ones he feels we've heard about the least and are doing the least about Amazon.com

Fear Robert Peckham, 2023-09-07 Extraordinary Ai Weiwei Brilliant Simon Schama Fear has long been a driving force perhaps the driving force of world history a coercive tool of power and a catalyst for radical change Here Robert Peckham traces its transformative role over a millennium from fears of famine and war to anxieties over God disease technology and financial crises In a landmark global history that ranges from the Black Death to the terror of the French Revolution the AIDS pandemic to climate change Peckham reveals how fear made us who we are and how understanding it can equip us to face the future

Human Geopolitics Alan Gamlen, 2019-05-02 Human geopolitics the competition for population rather than territory is an essential but weakly understood dimension of world politics today Such competition has preceded violent conflict throughout history but has been muted since the Treaties of Westphalia laid the territorial foundations of the modern international system in the mid seventeenth century Today however human geopolitics is being resurrected in unanticipated ways as governments are enabled and encouraged to engage their emigrant diasporas How and why is this happening Until now these questions have been difficult to answer The majority of research attention has focused on questions of immigration policy in a handful of wealthy migrant destination countries largely ignoring the emigration policies that preoccupy the world's many migrant origin states This book addresses that research imbalance by focusing on the overlooked sending side of migration policy Drawing on data covering all UN members across the post WWII period and fieldwork with high level policy makers across 60 states and a dozen international organisations the book charts the re emergence of human geopolitics through the global spread of diaspora institutions government ministries and offices dedicated to emigrants and their descendants It calls for the development of stronger guiding principles and evaluation frameworks to govern these new state diaspora relations in an era of unprecedented global interdependence
