Hollywood and the End of the Cold War Bryn Upton, 2014-08-26 From the late 1940s until the early 1990s the Cold War was perhaps the most critical and defining aspect of American culture influencing television music and movies among other forms of popular entertainment Films in particular were at the center of the battle for the hearts and minds of the American public Throughout this period the Cold War influenced what movies got produced how such movies were made and how audiences understood the films they watched In the post Cold War era some genres of film suffered from the shift in our national narratives while others were quickly reimaged for an audience with different political and social fears In Hollywood and the End of the Cold War Signs of Cinematic Change Bryn Upton compares films from the late Cold War era with movies of similar themes from the post Cold War era In this volume Upton pays particular attention to shifts in narrative that reflect changes in American culture attitudes and ideas In exploring how the absence of the Cold War has changed the way we understand and interpret film this volume seeks to answer several key questions such as Has the end of the Cold War altered how we tell our stories Has it changed how we perceive ourselves In what ways has our popular culture been affected by the absence of this once dominant presence With its focus on themes that are central to the concerns of many historians including civil religion social fracture and the culture wars Hollywood and the End of the Cold War will serve as a useful tool for those seeking to integrate film into the classroom as well as for film scholars exploring representations of sociopolitical change on screen

Mike Nichols Mark Harris,2022-02-01 One of The Hollywood Reporter s 100 Greatest Film Books of All Time A National Book Critics Circle finalist One of People s top 10 books of 2021 An instant New York Times bestseller Named a best book of the year by NPR and Time A magnificent biography of one of the most protean creative forces in American entertainment history a life of dazzling highs and vertiginous plunges some of the worst largely unknown until now by the acclaimed author of Pictures at a Revolution and Five Came Back Mike Nichols burst onto the scene as a wunderkind while still in his twenties he was half of a hit improv duo with Elaine May that was the talk of the country Next he directed four consecutive hit plays won back to back Tonys ushered in a new era of Hollywood moviemaking with Who s Afraid of Virginia Woolf and followed it with The Graduate which won him an Oscar and became the third highest grossing movie ever. At thirty five he lived in a three story Central Park West penthouse, drove a Rolls Royce, collected Arabian horses and counted Jacqueline Kennedy, Elizabeth Taylor, Leonard Bernstein and Richard Avedon as friends. Where he arrived is even more astonishing given where he had begun. Born Igor Peschkowsky to a Jewish couple in Berlin in 1931, he was sent along with his younger brother to America on a ship in 1939. The young immigrant boy caught very few breaks. He was bullied and ostracized; an allergic reaction had rendered him permanently hairless and his father died when he was just twelve, leaving his mother alone and overwhelmed. The gulf between these two sets of facts explains a great deal about Nichols's transformation from lonely outsider to the center of more than one cultural universe: the acute powers of observation that first made him famous; the nourishment he drew from his creative partnerships; most enduringly, with May, his unquenchable drive, his hunger for security and status and the depressions and self medications that brought him to terrible lows. It would take decades for him to come to grips with his demons. In an incomparable portrait that follows Nichols from Berlin to New York to Chicago to Hollywood, Mark Harris explores with brilliantly vivid detail and insight the life, work, struggle and passion of an artist and man in constant motion. Among the 250 people Harris interviewed: Elaine May, Meryl Streep, Stephen Sondheim, Robert Redford, Glenn Close, Tom Hanks, Candice Bergen, Emma Thompson, Annette Bening, Natalie Portman, Julia Roberts, Lorne Michaels and Gloria Steinem. Mark Harris gives an intimate and evenhanded accounting of success and failure alike; the portrait is not always flattering but its ultimate impact is to present the full story of one of the most richly interesting, complicated and consequential figures the worlds of theater and motion pictures have ever seen. It is a triumph of the biographer's art.

Todas ellas forman parte de este libro en el que Susana Peiró ha volcado su ingenio y su saber hacer. Te atraparás desde la primera página.

The twentieth century generated tens of thousands of hours of American newsfilm but not the scholarly apparatus necessary to analyze and contextualize them.
